where a special service with appropriate music will commemorate Armistice.
The parade will fall in at 10:20 in front of the Carleton Curling Rink, and will march off at 10:30 headed by the Carle-are cordially invited to fall in. Cars will be sent to the Lancaster military attend. Invitations have also been extended to the Premier and Mayor and Commissioners, County Councillors,

HAROLD LLOYD in
"THE FRESHMAN"

SPECIAL PRICES MORNING SHOW
Mat. 25c, 35c; Eve., 35c, 50c. Monday Morning Starting at 10

"WE HAD A GREAT WORK-OUT, DIDN'T WE, COACH?" When Harold Lloyd speaks that title in "The Freshman," it's a tear that makes a rainbow among the laughs that have preceded—and quickly follow! Harold makes his debut in football as a substitute for the dummy, which had given up the ghost and passed out—in pieces!
The team needed tackle practice in the worst way—but it was Harold who got the worst of it. Twenty men lined up and took their turn at tackling him, and when they weren't knocking him down, the Coach was demonstrating on him the wrong and right way of tackling. Try how he would, Harold couldn't keep himself picked up. When time is called because the squad and the Coach are all worn out, Harold, battered and torn and dizzy, but still plucky and willing, gathers up the broken dummy, the water bucket, the protectors and other things littering the field and, summoning a smile with a final show of spirit, says, "We had a great work-out, didn't we, Coach?" A gulp will get you at that moment, if you don't watch out. It's a human touch coming on top of riotous hilarity that always distinguishes Harold Lloyd's comedies.
