RING.

Decision For Britton.
Omaha, May 6.—Jack Britton, world's welterweight champion, won a referee's decision over "Cowboy" Padgett, of Dolores, Colo., in ten rounds last night. Carpenter's Favorite.

Paris, May 6.—Georges Carpentier, is an overwhelming favorite in the betting in his match with Ted Lewis as the bout approaches, as much as four or five to one being offered on the straight result, with not takers. Lewis' backers are desirous of betting even money that their man stays longer than the Australian Cook, whom Georges knocked out in the fourth round, but Carpentier's followers are unwilling to take this chance.

AQUATIC.

Tag Day For Belyea.
At a meeting of citizens in the Carlton rink last evening it was decided to hold a tag day to secure funds to meet expenses to send Hilton Belyea to Philadelphia to compete for the championship of the United States. J. C. Chesley presided at the meeting. Reports were submitted by various committees. The Y. M. C. I. promised to put on boxing exhibitions to secure funds towards his expenses. The Royal Baseball Club to hold an entertainment in City Hall, West St. John, and St. Peter's and St. George's Clubs to arrange exhibition baseball games. D. W. Leddigham, agent of the Manchester Lines, sent word that he had arranged for shipping Hilton and his two shells to Philadelphia free of charge. Plans were also made for a civic send off next Wednesday. Hilton's new shell the "St. John" is now completed except installing the rigger outfit.

TURF.

Capt. W. H. Williams Dead.
New York, May 6.—Captain W. H. Williams, 79, dean of turf writers, died today at the home of his son, Thomas B. Williams, in Brooklyn. Captain Williams was a Canadian by birth.

Clover Trains in Style.
Catawissa, Pa., May 6.—"Clover," the 81 year old horse, owned by Dr. U. Myers of this city, went to New York yesterday in style. Decked out in harness and blankets presented by admiring friends, and wearing a bridle trimmed with gold, he was taken to New York in a special car with all the comforts the railroad could provide. Next week Clover, said to be the oldest horse that ever lived, will be exhibited at the Madison Square Garden. He was insured for $60,000 for the trip.

POLICE HOLIDAYS.
Police Officer Ralph Dykeman left yesterday on the valley train to spend two weeks' vacation with his wife's father, William J. Comeran, Central Greenwich, Queens County.

POLICY, ORGANIZATION AND RULES FOR 1922.

A supply of "policy, organization and rules" for 1922 has been received and any scoutmaster or cubmaster who has not already received a copy may do so by calling at the district headquarters, Bank of Montreal Bldg., King street.

The attention of officers is directed to the following important changes in the issue this year:

- 1.—The importance placed on an efficient troop committee and their duties. Sec. 23, page 16.
- 2.—The uses of the scout staff, added to the requirements for Tenderfoot. This was included in the changes last year, but has been overlooked by a great many scoutmasters. Sec. 37, page 28.
- 3.—The signalling test for First Class. Sec. 41 (c), page 32. It is brought up to date. Also slight changes in first aid tests for first class. Sec. 41 (e) page 32. The bandaging has been eliminated.
- 4.—Changes have been made in the requirements for the following proficiency badges:—Artist (architecture), athletic, carpenter, laundryman, naturalist, pathfinder, public healthman, signaller, stalker, tailor, telegrapher.
- 5.—Two new proficiency badges have been added, accident prevention and wireless operator. Pages 68-69.

There are some other changes from previous issues as are indicated by the vertical lines placed on the left hand side of the pages.

It Satisfies

We have yet to find woman or man who is not pleased with our expert shoe repairing. It satisfies because, in the first place, our shoe reconstruction saves money. Then again, our repaired shoes look equal to new.
