LOCAL NEWS

CAR BROUGHT HERE.
The Oldsmobile touring car belonging to O. J. Killam which was struck at the Westfield railway crossing last night was brought to the city this afternoon. The chauffeur says it was not knocked eighteen feet and that possibly can be repaired. H. W. Berry, whose car overturned while he was going to Mr. Killam's assistance, had his leg strained and will be confined to his bed for a few days. No bones were broken.

ACTION OVER GRAVEL.
In the circuit court this morning hearing was commenced in the case of Turnbull vs. Saunders. This is a matter arising from the alleged action of employees of the provincial department of public works taking gravel from the shore of W. R. Turnbull at Rothesay. He brought action against W. H. Saunders as an employee of the government, the latter accepting responsibility for the defendant. Letters written by the plaintiff, E. S. Carter and the department were read. The case is being heard with a jury. F. R. Dyer, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and P. J. Hughes of Fredericton for the defendant. The case will be continued this afternoon.

AGAINST CARDS IN SCHOOL BUILDING

General Use for Community Purposes Approved
Annual Meeting of Rothesay Consolidated School District—Expenditures for Coming Year About $16,000.

The ratepayers of the Consolidated school district at Rothesay met in annual session last evening with Chairman P. F. Blanchett presiding and A. W. McMacdonald as secretary. The amount voted was $14,500 for the next school year which will be increased by the usual 10 per cent and shows that nearly $16,000 will be expended for educational purposes in this district during 1920-21. The report shows 172 pupils registered and there was very general satisfaction expressed with the work of the school and the attention paid to school gardens and other courses which are, at the present day, features of progressive schools. The increase in assessment over last year is between 60 and 50 per cent and it is interesting to note that with a valuation of about $1,000,000 in the three districts included in the Consolidated school district there will be a school tax rate of between $1.80 and $1.40 on the $100. The school tax rate in Hampton is said to be $2.55 on the $100 and in Sussex about the same as in Rothesay. The amount voted in Sussex for their very large town school is $165,000 but the salaries paid to teachers in the Rothesay school is considerably in excess of those paid either in Sussex or Hampton.

After the general business of the meeting there were interesting discussions on other topics, including the formation of a parents' association, the object of which is to encourage the parents of the children attending the school to get together and discuss many things which might be for the betterment of the school and of assistance to teachers. A resolution was passed endorsing the idea and a committee was named to give such consideration as possible.

A resolution to hold out an invitation to the school district of Quispamis to enter the Consolidated school is considered and the trustees to discuss terms and conditions was also adopted.

E. S. Carter, one of the trustees, was appointed a delegate to the trustees' convention when held.

The question of using the school building as a community centre was brought up and there was found to be no opposition to its general use for such purposes but a large portion of the meeting was opposed to permitting card playing in the school building. The school law says that there must be unanimous consent on the part of the trustees before the school building can be used for any purpose outside of the giving of instruction as provided by the school law. A motion was carried by a small majority to request the trustees to rescind the resolution passed by them forbidding card playing and dancing in the assembly hall but it was pointed out that there were many ratepayers not represented at the meeting and that the trustees would have to be guided by the school law in spite of any resolution of the ratepayers.

In chambers before Chief Justice Hazen an application was made by Mr. McFadden for the sale of a property at Sussex and the appointment of a guardian in the matter of Gertrude and Charles Vall, infants. An order allowing the application was granted. The property was that of the late Daniel Vall. Melbourne Scott was appointed guardian.

HAVE ARCHBISHOP AS THEIR GUEST

Syrians Entertain Vice-Patriarch of the East Nicely at Loch Lomond.

A delightful outing in honor of Archbishop Khouri, Vice-Patriarch of the East, was given last evening by prominent members of the Syrian citizenship here, when His Grace was the guest at dinner at Johnston's Hotel, Loch Lomond. Accompanying him were His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, whose guest he has been at the Palace, and several priests and a few friends of the hosts also were present.

Those who promoted the very pleasant affair were: N. J. Lalmond, John P. Shalala, Arthur Wakim, Raymond Tobias, Peter Farris and Thomas Stephen. Leaving Waterloo street about 8 o'clock in three automobiles, Loch Lomond was reached after a pleasant run and at 7.30 the party sat down to tables tastefully laid out adorned with roses and other flowers in the Bishop's colors while over head hung bunches of wild flowers. A very fine menu was provided and Mrs. George McCafferty was heartily complimented on it and on the general excellence of the arrangements.

The tables were arranged in T form with His Grace, His Lordship, Father Wakim, secretary to the Archbishop, Rev. A. P. Allen, Rev. Raymond McCarty and Hon. R. J. Ritchie. Besides the hosts others at table were Urban J. Swenson, P. J. Fitzpatrick and Frank McCafferty.

Arthur Wakim made the first address of the evening, a speech in the Syrian tongue welcoming the distinguished visitor from the East. There were no formal toasts but speeches were made by Hon. R. J. Ritchie, His Grace the Archbishop, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc and Father Wakim. The latter, besides welcoming Archbishop Khouri, spoke highly of the fine record made by the Syrian people who have made their homes in St. John, a sentiment in which Bishop LeBlanc heartily concurred and he had words of appreciation for their devotion to their church. He spoke of the people of this race being strong in their faith from the earliest ages.

His Grace spoke in French. He expressed his pleasure at the many times which had been done for him to make his stay in St. John pleasant and thanked Bishop LeBlanc and the priests of the Cathedral and the people of his own race. He broadened his expressions of gratitude to include the whole Canadian people for what they had done in the great war and said that Canadian soldiers, as well as English soldiers, were among the first to land in his country to save his people from the ravaging Turks.

The following formal welcome was read by Arthur Wakim—

"It is with a sense of the deepest gratitude and pleasure that we receive you as our guests this evening. The presence of our distinguished Archbishop in St. John fills us with the greatest happiness and the privilege which this opportunity affords us to entertain Your Grace together with our own beloved Bishop is more than we could ask. We beg to assure you of our heartfelt appreciation of the honor done us."

"It is due to the great wisdom and kindness of the Holy Father that such a union as this, the coming together of the East and the West, has been made possible and the Syrian people of this city are deeply grateful to His Holiness that he is mindful of them in their exile. We take occasion to say at this time to express our gratitude to His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc for his generous hospitality. It is but another expression of his paternal interest in our welfare."

"We sincerely hope that Your Grace may enjoy the stay that your mission necessitates in Canada and we pray that you may return soon again to bless and favor us with the honor of your presence."

The return to the city was made at an early hour, all delighted with the outing. His Grace is remaining in St. John today and will leave with Father Wakim tomorrow for Nova Scotia. He is to tour Canada and the West, including South America in the interests of the Syrian people. During the tour he will succumb to the ravages of those fearful times and the local Syrians took advantage of the presence of His Grace to make up a substantial purse for the aid of the needy ones at home.

Not Necessary of Course to Sell a Baby
Carriage to Those Who Need One

No extensive selling effort needed to sell a family baby carriage if a baby is a member of that family. So we'll merely say a few words about our stock of baby rolling stock.

First, it is complete and represents a wide range of material, design and, naturally, price.
Second, the springs and the whole workmanship represented in the line is second to none in town.
And springs are a big feature in a baby carriage because a hard riding carriage will cause the precious occupant a world of uneasiness.
We want you to at least include this store in your list when considering a carriage as we know you'll find it well worth while.

Also a Full Line of High Chairs, Kiddie Koops, Bassinets, Baby Walkers, etc.
