Why Pearls Are Popular
Pearls are today the favorite neck ornament of womankind. Just why they are so popular is little understood. Here is an expert's opinion:
"Pearls—because of their peculiar sheen—are complementary to every complexion. Blondes and Brunettes alike can wear them with equally good results. The roundness of the pearl and the soft drupe of the string add to their charm. Any colors may be worn with them."
We have made a close study of the pearl situation and have been successful in acquiring a stock of the best grades hard to duplicate as they are extremely scarce.

RECENT WEDDINGS

A wedding of interest to many in the city and in Kings county was performed at the residence of the bride's parents at Smithtown, New Brunswick, on Thursday, Nov. 25. The bridegroom, Harry L. Campbell, of St. John and Westfield, is well known in the city, having been engaged in the street car service for some three years or more. The bride, Annie M., daughter of William Allan Beyer, of Smithtown, was a popular school teacher at Westfield and elsewhere. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Johnson, of Hampton, and a large number of guests from an extensive circle of relatives attended. The bride, dressed in white silk, was conducted to the assembled company on the arm of her father. A dainty lunch was served at the close. The presents were numerous and both useful and beautiful, including bed and table linen, cut glass, silverware and china. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell expect to make their home in North End, St. John.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orr, Sussex, on Monday, Nov. 22, at 1 o'clock when Miss Nora Mildred Stuart, youngest daughter of Mrs. Celia A. Stuart, was united in marriage to William Galloway, of Chatham. Rev. J. D. McPherson performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a Foch blue jersey dress, black satin hat, with gold trimming and wore a black fur coat and corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served, and the bride and groom left on the C. P. R. for a short honeymoon trip to Truro and Halifax. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Galloway will reside in Chatham. The bride received a large number of beautiful gifts in silver, cut glass and china.

A quiet wedding took place last night at 815 Germain street, when Miss Minnie Campbell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Campbell, of Digby (N. S.), was united in marriage to Harold Sheehan, of this city. The bride was attended by her sister, and the groom was supported by Walter Lashley. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a small circle of friends by Rev. Neil McLaughlin. Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan will reside at 22 Carleton street.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Robena A., wife of E. J. Bowmar and daughter of Mrs. Susannah and the late William Dunlop, of Passaic (N. B.), took place at her home in Canton (Mass.), on Nov. 23, after a lingering illness. She leaves her husband three sons, Robt. McQuinn and Ewing, all at home. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church.

Fred G. Trites, son of the late Thomas T. Trites, of this city, died recently at his home in Winnipeg, at the age of forty-five years. He leaves one brother, Arthur, of Boston, and two sisters, Miss Lillian and Miss Bird, Wright street.

A fire call was rung in from box 241 yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. No. 4 fire department responded to the call, which was of a small nature, being a chimney fire at Robinson street in Celebration street. All out was sounded at 4 p. m. No serious damage was reported.
