look any too bright when there are

THE SIDE BET

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Illustration of a man in a suit, likely related to the 'The Side Bet' article.

Milwaukee, Oct. 28.—Side bets for big fights seem to be almost a thing of the past. The other day while talking with an old sporting man, I was told that the fact that
t. c. o. l. d. fashioned contest for side bets was dying out, and he regret-ed the fact that the side bet, saying that the side bet had much to do with putting the men more on their mettle. For a great many years no longing bout of any importance was considered genuine unless each of the boys put up a side bet, either his own money or that of an enthusiastic admirer. The system originated in the old days of bare knuckle fighting, when fight money was unknown and when a fighter had no earthly chance of becoming a champion unless he could find a wealthy patron to put up money for him. In those days there was a great deal more betting on the result of boxing bouts than there is at the present time and many of the sporting Corinthians—as they were called—made and lost vast fortunes by means of wagers on fights. When glove fighting superseded the knuckle game, the practice of side bets was continued and it has been obtained to a less extent down to the present year. Of late side bets have not been so much to the fore, mainly owing to the big gates at most of the chief centres of boxing, but occasionally we have two boys of quite moderate ability battling for a side wager out of all proportion to their worth.
Quite recently
Johnny Hughes and Bill Deaton, the present bantam champion in England, fought twenty rounds at a private house before about fifty wealthy sports. The side wager was $2,500 each, the money being put up by supporters of the boys.

The winner got a share of the money he won for his patron and the boys divided a sum collected for them from the few privileged spectators. Of course, all the advertisers side bet contests are not genuine affairs, but those that take place at the London National Sporting Club are.
Every contender for a title must put up a side bet of $500,000 in the case of heavy weights—and holders of championship belts must put up a similar amount. The Walls-Carpenter battle will be for a side bet in addition to the purse. The Scotch bantam champion, Alec Lafferty, has issued a defiance to all boys of 115 pounds in which he declares himself willing to take anyone at the weight for a purse and a side wager.
The winner to take all. This notion of the winner taking the back has been club declined the proposal. They do not care how the purse is split. It can be 90 per cent to the winner and 10 per cent to the loser if the boys agree.
The club management insists upon a loser's end. These were supposed to be a big side bet between Johnson and Jeffries, but nothing was ever heard of it afterwards. John L. Sullivan and James J. Corbett fought at New Ore-ans for the really big side bet, the amount being $20,000 involved, and it was real, too. But Nelson and Joe Gans fought for a good sized side bet, but few light weight battles since then have been for a side wager. There is always lots of talk about side bets, but seldom is any real coin put up, especially by the fighters.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 28.—Mike Yokel of Salt Lake City, has regained the world's middleweight wrestling championship title, which he lost to

The Pacific Clubs

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 28.—Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association at the annual meeting last night. Delegates were present from Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster. After ratifying the agreement which Frank Patrick made with the National Hockey Association, during the summer, the association elected the following officers: Honorary president—Dr. C. E. Doherty; president—Frank Patrick; secretary—treasurer—A. J. Small; board of directors—E. H. Nelson and Lester Patrick.

While the majority of the players have stepped up to date by the mainline clubs, it is not expected that there will be many changes in the line-up. The coast clubs will probably be constituted as follows:
Vancouver—Parr, or Clark, Griffin, Lalonde, Taylor, Harris, Roman, Neighbor.
Victoria—Lindsay, L. Patrick, Dun-dale, Poulin, Rowe, Small, Genge, Urich.
Westminster—Lehmann, Johnson, Mc-Donald, Mallen, Thorpe, Tchernie, Ostman, Tobin.

THE REASON WHY

You don't take sauce? Perhaps not, but if you look for the reason why, you will find it in the fact that the word "sauce" suggests to you a thin, dark, dry tasting fluid, which, if taken at dinner, runs all over the plate, saturates the vegetables, and eventually leaves a disagreeable burning sensation in the mouth. No wonder that under these circumstances you do not take sauce—but, change the circumstances, and the taste will probably change with it.

A new sauce has been introduced by the Midland Vinegar Company of England, which is known as H. P. Sauce, and is quite different to the old-fashioned sauces referred to.

H. P. Sauce has proved an immediate success, and is now used regularly by those who previously never took sauce. It is prepared by blending together the choicest Oriental fruits and spices with pure malt vinegar. The manufacturers' secret process produces a thick, fruity sauce, which, if poured on the side of the plate, can be eaten with the next like mustard.

H. P. Sauce is also used very extensively in the kitchen, for housekeepers have discovered that old and familiar dishes of which everyone has grown tired become tempting and delicious when enriched and enlivened with H. P.

All family grocers are selling H. P.
Sauce. Of course its success has brought many imitations, but if you ask for H. P., and see that these letters appear on each label, you will preclude the possibility of disappointment.

dents.

Kill Dandruff

Make Hair Grow

For dandruff, falling hair, or premature gray hair use this formula: Buy Rum, 2 oz.; Compound E. of Compound, 2 ounces, and Menthol Crystals, 1/2 dram.
If you desire, add 1 dram of your favorite perfume. Mix the tonic you wish to have your druggist mix it. Apply at night and morning with fingers. Lavon contains a powerful drug that stimulates the activity of the hair-growing follicles and is believed to give renewed action to the pigment-forming cells so as to actually restore natural color to prematurely gray hair without the use of dye, all cases.

DROP HONUS AND LAJOIE FROM LIST

New York, Oct. 27.—Two veterans, who only a few days ago were proclaimed as the greatest ball players that ever donned a uniform, are now passed up by the big league managers in their selections of all-American teams. These two veterans played against each other in an inter-city series recently, and outside of their home towns little was heard of them.

These fading stars are Honus Wagner and Napoleon Lajoie, who for many years were hailed as the greatest of them all. Both Wagner and Lajoie have been compared hundreds of times.

Wagner, with his awkward but spectacular fielding and terrific batting, has been selected year after year for the shortstop position on the all-American teams, and no one disputed his title as "king of them all." Lajoie is considered the most graceful fielder on the diamond and still is one of the best batters in the American League.

Lajoie still Good Hitter While Lajoie and Wagner can still hit, they have slowed up in their fielding, and youngsters have bobbed up in their places. It is said that both the firing Dutchman and Larry are through as regulars, and that next season will find the two veterans doing pinch duty.
In the selections of the American teams by ten managers in the two major leagues Lajoie is not even mentioned as a possibility. Early in the season when the Naps were trying to overcome the Athletics' lead, Manager Birmingham removed the Frenchman from his position as first baseman, and the Frenchman was given his old position back.

Collins Greatest Insider
The new king of the keyhole sack is Eddie Collins, a Columbia boy. Eddie's brilliant work in the world's series made him the unanimous choice for the middle bag.

The American League has the edge on the National in the number of players on the all-American teams. For the outfield positions Ty Cobb, the Georgia Peach; Tris Speaker of the Boston Red Sox, and "Duke" Jackson rule favorites.

This trio of players would mean a fortune to any club. Cobb leads the American League in batting, and Jackson and Speaker are only a few points behind him. Speaker is the choice of the Cobb for centerfield, for Tris is the best ground coverer in either league.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal disorders have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical leachery for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary biassed magnesia, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub himself on it of the foot without first removing the tack.
Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acidity and the troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of biassed magnesia from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered.

Your system is full of bile not prop-cleansing up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure.

Remember that most disorders of the

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with this, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in uric acid, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; make a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking it. The kidneys need to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Common Sense Shoe Purchasing

Comfort, durability and smartness—that's what you expect from your shoes—no matter what price you pay. But such perfection cannot be obtained in "ordinary" shoes.

To get at a low price they have to be made from cheap ma-

This being so wouldn't it be wiser to pay a little more and get shoes that you could rely upon absolutely.
