A. BONAR LAW, A NEW BRUNSWICKER, THE NEW CHIEF OF UNIONISTS

London, Nov. 10.—At a meeting to be held at the Carleton Club Monday, Walter Hume Long will propose and Austen Chamberlain will second the nomination of Andrew Bonar Law, as the leader of the Unionist party in the house of commons, to succeed Arthur J. Balfour.

A. Bonar Law, M. P., was the fourth son of Rev. James Law, who was for many years stationed as Presbyterian minister at Rexton (N. B.). Bonar Law was born in 1869 and attended the Rexton public schools for some years. When twelve years of age he was sent to Glasgow to complete his education at the famous High School of Glasgow, and afterward he entered the office of Kilduff & Co., of that city. Later he became a partner in the firm of William Jack & Co., iron merchants, of Glasgow and Middleboro, and finally became chairman of the Glasgow Iron Trade Association.

About twenty years ago he married Miss Annie Pictou, daughter of Hansington Robley, of Glasgow. In 1900 the Glasgow Conservatives nominated him for the Blackburn division against A. D. Provand, who for many years had held the seat for the Liberals and whose association with Canada was through the Glasgow branch of the Glasgow Conservative Party. Law was elected by a majority of exactly 1,000. Since that time Mr. Law's rise has been very rapid. One year after his election he became parliamentary secretary to the board of trade.

That was in 1904, and Bonar Law's march forward has been very rapid since. They say his advancement to ministerial
