FOR SALE—A Silver Moon Self Feeder, No. 14, in good order. 73 Several Guardians and who were deported on account of one of the children suffering from tuberculosis. Doctor Wormald, medical adviser to the guardians, said he understood the child was passed by the doctor in Montreal, but in Winnipeg the doctor said she had phthisis. Doctor Wormald, who has examined the girl says he can find no signs of the disease. Arthur Hawkes it will be remembered was of the opinion that the medical examination on behalf of the Canadian government should be made on this side so as to avoid people being deported. The present case seems to establish some support for that opinion. These people got as far as Winnipeg at a cost of about $225 before it was decided to deport them.
