THE CARNIVAL SPIRIT AT BANFF

Years before the advent of the white man to Canada, the Bloods and the Stoney Mountain Indians engaged in a sanguinary conflict on the shores of a beautiful lake situated in what is now known as the Banff district of the Canadian Pacific Rockies, to settle disputes regarding the use of the water and the nearby prairie lands. The Stoney Mountain tribe emerged victorious and after scalping their dead opposition, cast the bodies into the lake together with such of their own number as had fallen foul of the dead club. Thereafter, especially after the introduction of "fire water," the spirits of the fallen in the fray rose periodically from the surface of the lake, which, on that account, they named "Minnewanka" or "Spirit Water."

HER HEART SKIPPED EVERY THIRD BEAT

Mrs. James Burleigh, 208 King St. E., Chatham, Ont., writes:—"I think it my duty to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I suffered for years with palpitation of the heart, my nerves were very bad, and I could not be left alone at any time. I doctored for over a year, and the doctor said my heart was very bad as it skipped every third beat. I gave up, just at this time, and then my mother advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, saying my eldest brother had been relieved by using them when he was very bad with his heart and nerves. I got a box and started to take them, and would sleep a little and felt stronger. I continued taking them for about three months, and felt better than I had for years. When I think of the misery and suffering I went through before I started Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I feel like letting everyone know what they did for me. Price: 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

CALL A POSTMAN NOW IF YOU CAN'T FIND A DOCTOR

Washington, April 3.—The grass-roots letter carrier, already a collector for mail order houses, a keeper for queen bees, angle worms and infant ailments, now is asked by the post-office department to become also a travelling first aid station. "In case of emergency, call a doctor. If you can't get a doctor, call a postman," says a circular issued by the department. Then it proceeds with a list of instructions to the postman himself, beginning thus: "Be calm. Take command and give orders. Find location of the injury. Apply bandages and wrapped hot water bottles." And so on through the category of accepted methods of giving first aid.

The regular monthly meeting of the International Longshoremen's Association, local 270, which was to have been held last evening was cancelled owing to the lack of a quorum.

OPPOSES CELEBRATION IN NEW YORK AS POLITICAL

New York, April 3.—Comptroller Charles L. Craig has formally objected to a proposed celebration of the 25th anniversary of Greater New York next fall on the ground that "it is bound to be believed by most people to be a purely political affair, necessarily taking on the character of propaganda." In a letter to Rodman Wanamaker, chairman of the committee, he said that the celebration was planned mainly to show the accomplishments of Mayor Hylan's administration. The Comptroller and the Mayor have been at odds for some months. The Citizens' Union recently sought an injunction against the issuance of $500,000 city bonds to finance the celebration. A decision has not yet been handed down by the Supreme Court.

Stomach Trouble "Indigestion" Relieved By Burdock Blood Bitters

The sufferer from dyspepsia, indigestion or other stomach troubles who has picked and chosen his food to the most miserable of all mankind. Even the little that he eats causes much torture, and he digested so imperfectly it does but little good. Before you can eat heartily and enjoy your food, you must put your stomach right so that it will manufacture its own digestive ferment. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, writes—"Some time ago I had quite a serious case of stomach trouble, indigestion. I could scarcely eat anything, outside of some light food, and even then I generally had pains after each meal. I tried many different medicines, but without any improvement, until I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. A neighbor recommended Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it a short time I felt much better, so I continued to use it until I was completely relieved. I can honestly say that B. B. has done wonders for me after all other medicines failed." B. B. is put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FRANCE GOES AHEAD ON NAVY GUN RANGE CHANGES

Paris, March 30.—(By The Associated Press).—The navy programme on the battlefields of the French navy, and it is through this channel that many details of the alterations have become available. It is explained that the old observation posts on each of the two masts are being altered and converted in a manner that the director of the warship's fire stationed there may control the fire of all the guns. This is done by a well known system of mechanical devices, with light control wires running to the guns through hollow masts attached to the mainmast. Increased range for the guns is being obtained by enlarging the angle of elevation of the guns. It is pointed out that this involves the cutting away of a certain amount of steel in each turret, thus increasing the risk of the turret being struck by shells in the interior of the turret.

MRS. MISENER'S ACHEs AND PAINS Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Branchton, Ont.—'When I wrote to you for help my action was mostly prompted by curiosity. I wondered if, too, would benefit by your medicine. I was the most profitable action I have ever taken, I heartily assure you, for through its results I am relieved of most of my sufferings. I have taken six boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and I can honestly say I have never been so well before. I had suffered from pains and other troubles since I was fifteen years old and during the 'Great War' period I worked on munitions for two years and in the heavy lifting which my work called for, I strained myself, causing pelvic inflammation from which I have suffered untold agony, and I often had to give up and go to bed. I had doctors for several years without getting permanent relief, until I started to take your medicines.'—Mrs. GOLDWIN MISENER, Branchton, Ont.

Originally, Absorbine Jr. was sold only as a pain reliever and an embrocation. Not only did the pain leave, but he noticed every day the swollen vein becoming smaller. The treatment was kept up and, today, Mr. Pratt's legs, though he has never used anything else on them, are as smooth as when he was a boy. It has now been proved that Absorbine Jr. is an actual specific for varicose veins, leg ulcers, boils, pyorrhea and a number of other ailments and injuries besides that for which it was first prepared. ARE ANXIOUS TO BE ISLAND KINGS

Many Answer for Royal Position Where There is Little Work and Plenty of Rum. Honolulu, March 6.—(By Mail)—The United States harbors a large number of "island kings" who would be kings, according to letters applying for royal jobs which have found their way to the office of James R. Farrington. They come as a result of an apparently widespread misconception of the South Seas. The applicants got busy after reading a mainland newspaper article headed "Islanders Want to Be Kings in the South Seas" and the erroneous information that "details might be obtained from the office of the American Governor of the Hawaiian Islands." The deluge of letters that followed found their way in the absence of the American Governor of the Hawaiian Islands. The applicants included insurance salesmen, farmers, university students, oil men, lawyers, clerks and bankers. The position of king was described as an arduous, hours not long and with considerable business and an sure of amber rum punch" always at the elbow of the monarch. The only disadvantage of the position was "the loneliness which grows." One applicant wrote: "Selling papers in one of our Texas papers an article in regard to kings' jobs in the South Seas, would you kindly inform me with the information in regard to king's job in said islands? What part of the islands are men wanted to be kings? Is there any salary paid and under whom does the applicant work if awarded a position? If it is a United States government position or is it a local concern? Any other information you can furnish will be appreciated." Another applicant states his qualifications in these words: "My dear Consul: This story appeals to me and if there is anything to it would be pleased to get in touch with the maker of kings, I had had lots of experience handling men and conducting business and am sure I could learn how to make a king. If you know anything about this put me next and the end of last March when my husband was away in the woods and I was alone with my three children. Everytime I think of this experience a shudder passes over me and as long as I live I shall remember it. At the time I really thought I would die. It's a wonder my heart did not stop beating. I was so weak that even if I had any desire to move, I could not. I was bathed in a cold, clammy perspiration. Even to recall the shocking details now makes me shudder. It was a result of this shock that I contracted a high fever and for hours at a time I was delirious. I got so bad that the doctor finally gave up hope of my ever recovering, but by careful nursing, I was finally pronounced out of danger. The shock after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund you money. For Sale at All Druggists in St. John.

AMUSING VAGARIES OF THE AMUSEMENT TAX

London, April 3.—The vagaries of the entertainment tax afford amusement to those who neither pay nor fight the Government by litigation. A dance is not an entertainment, even with the band, except if the band dance engagements will be compelled to advertise that under no circumstances could their music afford pleasure to the listeners.
