

Through the inward working of the Holy Spirit, our Saviour's outward work is made effectual, by being applied, appropriated, and brought home to the soul. It was the Holy Spirit who enabled Peter to make that good confession: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

"No man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." Our dear young sisters, may the blessed Holy Spirit give you to know the Love of God, as it is in Christ, give you power to trust in it, and resign yourselves wholly to it! Then will you be in possession of that living, loving faith, which is the gift of God."

A number of our young sisters are with us, cheering and encouraging us by their Christian sympathy and love.

Our Committees on Sabbath Schools, Temperance, Education, and Missionary work, have made favorable reports, shewing an increased interest in these departments of Christian labor.

With love toward you all, and especially to your younger members, we bid you farewell!

ABIGAIL N. MENDENHALL, Clerk.

INDIANA.

DEAR SISTERS:

Under a sense of the loving kindness of our Heavenly Father, we address you at this time, having assembled we trust in the power, and under the leadership of our Great Head. Our hearts are uplifted in gratitude and praise to Him for His mercy and for His truth's sake. We have at this time the company of several dear Friends of other Yearly Meetings, bearing the glad tidings of the Gospel to the edification of the Church, holding up Christ as a complete Saviour, able to save to the uttermost all that come unto God by Him. We have been reminded that none can follow Christ until they have first accepted Him as a sacrifice for sin. There is no peace saith my God to the wicked. But to his followers Christ said, "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you, not as
