My lord Fat Purse was a very good mas;

He had houses and lands galore;

And with each new day he had some new trick Parliament, and the Hon Edward.

plan
For aiding the needy and poor.
He gave to the churches; he gave to the homes;
He gave to the tramp by the way;
Yet the terrible curse in the land green worse, And the poor grew poorer each day.

My lord Fat Purse was troubled and sad,
That his thought and toil seemed vain.
"But I do what I can," said this very good man,
"To ease the want and the pain.
This the will of heaven that some shall
