SURGEON TELLS OF THE MALTREATMENT OF JAPS

The Note Regarding Chinese Neutrality Has Not Yet Been Received by the British Foreign Office.

San Francisco, Jan. 14.-Dr. W. D. Eastlake, who has recently been in the Japanese Red Cross service, arrived today on the steamer Doric. He declared that the Russians are using dum-dun bullets and that he had extracted a num ber of such missiles from wounded Japanese. Dr. Eastlake expressed great admiration for the hospital work of the Japanese surgeons and said that blood ming is rare.

Dr. Eastlake said four cases of maltreatment of Japanese by Russians came eyes of a Japanese were gouged out before his death. He declared that the Bussian prisoners said they had been told they would be tortured if captured.

London, Jan. 14.-The Russian government's circular regarding Chinese neutrality has not reached the British foreign office, where to-day it was explained that the delay was doubtless due to the absence of Ambassador Benckendorff, such being usually submitted by him in person. Consequently the foreign office declined to give any exprestrality coming from the Japanese, but not as indicating any immediate or serious action on Russia's part in the near future. The very fact that there has Great Britain might indicate that this is the correct view. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, who has not received official notification of the circular, visited Foreign Secretary Lansdowne to-day, and they discussed the circular informally. Minister Hayashi, prior to his visit to Lord Lansdowne, said to the Associated Press: "The Japanese have not replied to innumerable allegations of breaches of neutrality and of international law charged by Russia since the beginning upon him. of the war, but the Japanese government probably will reply to this formal party has been booked to Port Said.

Detmold, Principality of Lippe, Jan. 14.—Prince Carl Alexander, of Lippe-Detmold, who died yesterday in his asylum near Bayreuth, was surrounde by all the form of royalty, by gentlemen in-waiting and servants who showed him the most exaggerated respect, and kept up the illusion that he was indeed a sovereign. He took much pleasure in the maintenance of severe etiquette, read the newspapers daily, and seemingly kept track of the world's affairs and those of his own little principality, but he never permitted anyone to speak of them. He played chess often, and was fond of music and theatrical productions. The Prince was a calm-faced, handsome man tisnally dressed in military uniform, and except for certain excess stateliness, gave no outward indication that he was weak-minded.
