EASTER IN THE CHURCHES.

Easter Music Drew Large Crowds Sunday.

Rev. T. J. Delstadt in Exmouth

Street—J. Ritchie Bell's Farewell in Carleton—Baptism in German Street.

In the city churches Sunday the services were of a character appropriate to Easter, and were attended by very large congregations. As usual, the special music was the chief attraction, and in some cases the choir had spent much time in preparing for these services.

Trinity, Centenary and the Cathedral are credited with having the best choir, and on account of this reputation the attendance at these churches was greatly increased. In Centenary the floral decorations were the gift of Joseph Allison, and the effect was magnificent. In Trinity and many of the other churches the flowers were supplied and arranged by members of different church societies, and in all the effects were most pleasing.

Special Easter services were held in all the Fairville churches yesterday. Rev. Dr. Manning occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Dykeman being still unable to attend. He has been asked by the congregation to reconsider his resignation. In the Methodist church the nature of the service was a solo by Mrs. Dr. Curran.

In German street Baptist church yesterday morning twelve candidates from the Sunday school were baptized, six boys and six girls.

A large congregation assembled in Trinity Sunday evening, and the Easter music of an exceptionally high standard. Barnaby's Magnificat in D was given a fine interpretation, and the quartette singing of Misses Munro and Smith and Messrs. Kelly and Ritchie was particularly pleasing. Miss Munro's powers for solo work and the strength of the full choir as a chorus were abundantly shown in the offertory anthem, Handel's Hallelujah Chorus.

The 96th anniversary of the Queen square Methodist Sunday school was observed last evening by a special service in the church.

The secretary's report showed a total membership of 367, of these, 231 were in the adult department, 44 in the home department, and 35 in the cradle department. The average attendance during the year was 135, the largest single attendance 197, in November. The receipts amounted to $338, disbursements $278, leaving a balance on hand of $55.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. Duncan Smith, superintendent; C. G. Langley, assistant superintendent; Miss Josephine Betts, superintendent of the home department; N. A. Rogers, secretary; W. Bailey, assistant secretary; A. D. Gilmore, treasurer; C. M. Lingley, librarian; L. D. Lingley, assistant librarian. Thirty-five new books have been purchased during the year. A set of 1,875 books were issued to scholars.

Exmouth Street Methodist Church was crowded last evening. The Easter music and the presence in the pulpit of Rev. T. J. Delstadt, a formerly popular pastor of the church, combined to make the occasion a particularly interesting one.

Rev. Mr. Delstadt said it gave him especial pleasure to be present with his former congregation. The old church had many hallowed memories and sacred associations for him. It was, therefore, no wonder that he felt like praising God that he had been connected with Exmouth street church. His pleasure at being present was not, however, unminged with sadness. There were some faces absent, who were there two years ago. They have passed from the church militant to the church triumphant. The sermon was not preached, it was to be sung by the choir. He hoped that it might be as impressive as the song services held in Wales last winter. He wished to say a few things, the first of which was that Christ was still ready and willing to save sinners. There were those people present who knew this, and who were familiar with the teaching of the scriptures, but they had not responded to the invitation of Christ to accept Him as their Saviour. Christ does not reveal Himself to men in the church alone, but in the store, on the farm, in the office, and in fact everywhere. We could worship Him anywhere and everywhere. The trouble is that men are not willing to suffer as Christ has suffered. They want to enjoy all the worldly pleasures and distractions. But they cannot do this and in the next world enter into the reward of the righteous. In conclusion the preacher exhorted his auditors to allow Christ to enter their hearts.

Rev. Mr. Delstadt said at the close of his remarks, that this occasion was the first time in the forty years of his ministry that a sermon had been preached by the choir.

Rev. J. Ritchie Bell, who has been holding evangelistic services in Carleton during the past two weeks, held his farewell service last evening. In the forenoon he preached in the Free Baptist Church; in the afternoon a men's service was held, and in the evening he spoke in the Methodist Church. At all meetings the churches were filled to the doors.

Mr. Bell's subject for the afternoon service was, "The Problem of Probation." He started in with the statement, "God is." In all his travels, he said, he had never met an atheist. Bob Ingersoll was not an atheist, but a deist. An atheist would be such a curiosity that he would be really worth seeing. The problem of probation was "What will we do with Christ?" The great majority of men believed in the personality of Christ, but a few denied His divinity. Mr. Bell told a story of two eminent American lawyers who were deists and who decided that if deism were to be accepted by the world two things would have to be proven, viz., that Christ did not rise from the dead and that Saul was not miraculously converted as described in the journey to Damascus. After having collected all the evidence available on the subject and having weighed it carefully in their legal minds they decided that the burden of evidence showed that Christ had really risen from the dead and that Saul was converted as described by the Scriptures.

The great question which confronted us today was the same as confronted Pilate on the judgment seat. "What shall I do with Christ?" Mr. Bell told the Scripture story of Pilate getting the people to choose between Christ and Barabbas for the crucifixion. The same question, he said, was coming up before us every day as to whether we would choose Christ or the devil.

After the evening service in the Methodist church a farewell meeting was held. At this several persons announced their intention of becoming members of the church. Mr. Bell has so professed during the past week or two will be received into the Free Baptist and Methodist churches early in May.

IMMIGRANT SEASON CLOSED.

The Two Steamers of the Season Arrived Yesterday—25,000 Newcomers This Year.

St. John immigration bureau wound up for the season Sunday with one of the busiest days that Sand Point has seen for some time. Within an hour and half of each other in the afternoon the C. P. R. boat Lake Manitoba and the Allan liner Tunisian docked and landed their passengers. The Tunisian brought to St. John 12 saloon, 12 second cabin and 418 steerage passengers.

The Tunisian left Liverpool at 5 a. m., April 13th, with 1,357 passengers, 803 of whom were landed at Halifax.

The Lake Manitoba, also from Liverpool, brought 31 saloon, 135 second and 317 steerage passengers, 200 of the latter being Norwegians and Swedes.

The Manitoba brought 64 farm hands from the S. A. Messrs. Kelly and Ritchie were particularly pleasing. Miss Munro's powers for solo work and the strength of the full choir as a chorus were abundantly shown in the offertory anthem, Handel's Hallelujah Chorus.

The Dominion and United States immigration officials and the C. P. R. staff were kept busy until early this morning before the last train left for the west with its new settlers.

Perry, C. P. R. district passenger agent, said this year's arrivals by steamship had not been totalled, but the number was several thousands in excess of the previous year, and probably over a number from 25,000 to 26,000. Yesterday's arrivals were a good collection and had little difficulty passing the medical examiners.

MONCTON HOTELS FINED For Violation of the Scott Act—Smaller Beer Shops Scared.

MONCTON, April 24.—The Misses Mary and Elizabeth McInerney of St. John spent Easter in Moncton, the guests of Conductor and Mrs. Thomas Co.

Three hotels were fined $50 each in the police court on Saturday for violation of the Scott act. As a result of the determination of the authorities to have a better enforcement of the law most of the little beer shops have stopped selling so far at least as out-of-door appearances go. In some the lights are out and in others the screens are drawn aside so that the passer by may see that the traffic has been stopped. A $50 fine looks big to the proprietor of a small beer shop.

Rev. Dr. Macdonald came to Halifax today to attend a meeting of the augmentation committee of the maritime Presbyterian synod.

S. W. Irons, principal of Victoria school, left today for Fredericton to attend the N. B. Teachers' Association meeting.

MORE AUTO VICTIMS.

NEW YORK, April 23.—One man was killed and two women badly hurt when a big sightseeing car, crowded with passengers, crashed into a billboard fence at 8th avenue and 57th street today. The streets were thronged with Easter promenaders at the time of the accident, and police had to be called out to keep the crowd in check. The chauffeur claims the automobile was struck by an Eighth avenue trolley car and was skidded along the tracks and that in this way he lost control of the brakes.

The dead: Charles P. Koster, 21 years old, a business man of this city. The injured: Miss Anna Finerman, 18 years old, broken nose and contusions.

Mrs. Angelina Romano, 45 years old, injuries to spine.

Koster and Miss Finerman were on the front of the automobile. They were engaged to be married, the ceremony being set for next week.

Some time in June the members of the legislature and a few others who ought to know about consolidated schools will be invited to visit the MacDonald school at Kingston. They will probably be conveyed by special boat to Clifton. Possibly the school vans may meet the visitors there and give them a chance of testing the methods of transportation used for students.

Men's Clothes for Spring and Summer.

Figures—prices—don't tell much about a suit. In advertisements, the figures $12 quoted by one store for a suit are not different from the same figures quoted by another. But the clothing is different.

Even taking two stores of like reliability; you get lowest clothing from both, but different, one suit from the other.

Difference is in Style. Style is hard to get into a suit, and unless the suit is well made, it won't hold its style. Style is put in by the adept and WORKED (not ironed) into the suit, stitch by stitch, here a pull, there a twist and the shape held by the sewing.

Oak Hall Clothing is Stylish. —Keeps its style. —Is well made. —Is of up-to-date fabrics, and judging by the crowds who bought their Easter Clothes here last week it would be more in evidence than that from all the other Clothing Stores and departments put together—this we truly believe.

New Styles in Spring Suits..... $5 to $25
New Styles in Top-Coats..... 8 to 15
New Styles in Rain Coats..... 8 to 18

Spring Clothing for Boys.

In some things every store gains pre-eminence, just as one restaurant becomes famed for shell-fish; another for salads; another depended upon for its good coffee. This store is thus pre-eminent as outfitter of boys.

And you know it—for your buying here is the proof of the store's leadership. Honest clothing, fairly priced. That's the basis. Clothing with style to it—choose at what price you may.

MURDER IN MAINE.

Jealous Husband in East Waterford Kills Supposed Rival, Stabs His Wife and Shoots Himself.

PORTLAND, Me., April 23.—A special to the Press from Norway says: Jealousy was responsible for one of the most horrible crimes in the history of the state at East Waterford today, when Edward Hilton, a man of about 60 years of age, shot and instantly killed George Young, aged 45; stabbed his wife several times about the head, leaving her for dead on the floor, and then went out in the back yard of his house and put a charge of buckshot into his own chest.

Mrs. Hilton's face is horribly cut and gashed, but it is thought that she will recover. The death of both Hilton and his victim was probably instantaneous.

It is said that Hilton and his wife, who is about 15 years younger than he is, have not lived happily together for some time.

The trouble between them became acute last fall, when Young, whose home is at Hebron, where he has a wife, went to East Waterford to work and engaged board at the Hilton home. He had not been there long before Hilton became jealous, and Young removed to a house in the vicinity.

Young called at the Hilton home today and asked Mrs. Hilton to do some washing for him and while waiting for it to be done, remained in the front room. It is supposed this visit aroused the jealousy of Hilton to the point of frenzy, for after borrowing a single barrel shotgun and some shells from a neighbor, he walked into the room and aiming at Young's breast, pulled the trigger. The charge of shot entered the breast and he fell dead. Whether there was any talk previous to the shooting is not known.

Mrs. Hilton rushed in from the kitchen upon hearing the shot and was met at the threshold by her husband. He struck her a glancing blow with the stock of the gun that failed to knock her down. She ran to the kitchen, where she was overpowered and thrown to the floor. Then he inflicted several gashes in her face with a butcher knife, and supposing her to be dead returned to the front of the house. Mrs. Hilton, whose life had been saved by shamming death, then rushed to a neighboring house. When she returned with several men she found the dead body of her husband slumped over the head of the bed, and he had killed himself with the gun.

Coroner A. P. Bassett of Norway viewed the bodies and decided there was nothing for him to do except to allow them to be prepared for burial.

Nine cases out of ten the man who tells you that it is hard to sell real estate is the man who has tried to sell it without advertising. In the tenth case the man has probably tried to sell real estate that could not be given away—if the man "was looking".

CHAMPION HALFPENNY HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

CHARLOTTETOWN, April 21.—William Halfpenny, champion pole vaulter of the maritime provinces, had a narrow escape from drowning this afternoon. He was out goose shooting in a goose pond when he was caught in the drift and the boat was crushed to pieces. He managed to get on a cake of ice and remained near the mouth of the harbor for some hours before he was seen and rescued by a boat that put out from the wharves, about two miles away. His escape was a narrow one, as the cake was drifting out to sea, and would soon be broken up with the heavy sea outside.
