The galleries were chiefly confined to tea and skating during the past few days, Saturday particularly was very gay in regard to tea.

Mrs. Brockfield gave a tea at home that was very pleasant although there was a terrible crowd as Mrs. Brockfield is very popular; the hostess was charmingly dressed as becomes a hostess, and all the arrangements were of course perfect. The tea table was particularly pretty and everything was beautifully done.

Another tea the same day was by Mrs. W. H. Troop; this was altogether a ladies party no men being favored with invitations. Everything was beautifully managed. The tea was a great success. This is a new departure in Halifax and dates only from the beginning of the winter. It is already most popular and looks as if men were to be politely boycotted at tea time. Mrs. Troop's rooms were prettily arranged and were well filled at least towards the end of the afternoon.

Monday Mrs. F. Jones gave a ladies luncheon for Mrs. Rutherford of Toronto, and two other friends of a like nature were also given during the week.

General and Mrs. Montgomery-Moore have returned from their short journeying, but believe lost one of its inmates last week as Miss Matcham left Saturday for her home in England after a stay of several months here. She will be greatly missed in Halifax. Mr. Bush who has been here for several weeks also leaves in the same ship and later on a number of well known people will, as usual here in spring go to England until the summer holidays begin; April and May here form what is known as the "dead season" as there is usually no gaiety whatever between the end of the skating season and the arrival of the fleet.

The civilian risk party is postponed until next week and it is to be hoped there will be no for it then though the prospects are not very good just at present.

Tuesday afternoon there was to have been two teas but both were cancelled owing to the excellent skating at the rink which was crowded until the last moment of the afternoon.

Wednesday Mrs. James Duffus gave a tea which was about the only thing doing. The tea I believe was particularly nice and the arrangements were all perfect in detail.

Thursday there was nothing except one small dinner at which there was a merry and congenial party. So far it is a well-known fact that Halifax "society" has not taken very kindly to the wheel, but it must be remembered that there is so much going on here in summer in that special circle that bicycling has been rather crowded out.

It is to be a great yearning summer, too, according to the gossip, and rumor says that one lady will own and sail her own yacht; while that there are to be several quite new yachts in an old story. There was not one night last week without the card party, though some of these were large or very late.

In spite of criticism such small parties are an admirable way of entertaining one's intimate friends at small expense. No one gives elaborate suppers, and a hostess has no responsibility about amusing her guests.

Mrs. Davidson's exhibition of fancy skating was quite a revelation as to what may be done on skates. Her trick work and pirouetting on the very toes of her skates were something remarkable, she looked well in her picture dress and was most graceful in everything she did but her trick work was quite beyond an amateur without months of practice. Throughout her entire performance she was tireless and applauded.

I have heard of several engagements which are soon to be announced. It would be premature to give names at present. One is that of a daughter of a prominent government official in high rank the son of a leading clergyman from a neighboring city. A popular young doctor in connection with the Hospital staff is also to wed shortly.

I hear of two Easter dances to come off in April. One at a private house and one subscription dance. It is true we are to have the navy with us early next month, they will probably bring numerous entertainments in their train.

The Sailors' Home bazaar is fair to be a great attraction this summer. All the ladies interested are good workers, and a great many of them will prove as great an attraction as any of the pretty attractions for sale.

With the summer Carnival etc., etc. Halifax promises to be quite gay this year, as two marriages are arranged in fashionable and military society, and there are rumors also that there may come off a third, and in that case the rink next year will miss one of the best and most successful skaters.

Mrs. (Rev.) John McMillan has an exceedingly pleasant "at home" at her residence No. 1 Fawcett street, yesterday afternoon. The guests were received by the host and hostess, and the latter's sister, Mrs. R. C. Wright of New Glasgow. The Misses McMillan in an admirable manner did their part to make the afternoon pass enjoyably.

TRURO.
[PROGRESS is for sale in Truro by G. O. Fulton and D. H. Smith & Co.]

MAR. 15.—A house crowded to the very doors, greeted Mrs. C. W. Harrison last Monday evening. An audience both critical and appreciative, many of whom had listened to some of the world's greatest singers, and whose demonstration throughout the evening evinced the very keenest enjoyment.

Mrs. Harrison's appearance was gracefully acknowledged. The singer's charms of face and form, were accentuated by a becoming toilette of a green corded silk, with V shaped front and back of embroidered sequins, and bouffant sleeves of false green chiffon.

Her first number "Ardis" "La Inconnue", was beautifully rendered, and vociferously encored, after a generous response from the beautiful singer Mr. W. Karl Vincent presented a handsome bouquet, which was graciously acknowledged.

Mrs. Harrison's very number, showed a true mistress of song, and increased the enthusiasm of her audience. Though, in all she shone as a thoroughly artist, in none was the great flexibility and compass of her voice so apparent as in her rendering of the Grand Triolet, "Toujours la Verite". Miss R. and Phillips were in perfect voice and had to respond to hearty encore.

The work of the orchestra throughout was grand, and a great surprise, considering the short time they have been together. Miss Fitch's accompaniment of the Grand Triolet, was a masterpiece of the art, which was largely due to his skilful conductorship and enterprise, also was it the happy forethought of this gentleman to arrange a reception and luncheon dance in Mrs. Harrison's honor, at the Black & Co. Restaurant.

Among those who enjoyed the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. Gosselin, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. Bligh, Miss Rogers, the Misses Fitch, Miss McKay, Miss Nora Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spencer, A. V. Smith, Mr. Vincent played throughout the evening for the benefit of the Truro Hospital, and the proceeds were served in the dining-room, and it is needless to say was thoroughly appreciated by all present.

Mrs. F. A. Lawrence has been entertaining very generously for several weeks. Last Thursday evening this hostess gave a large whist party, and yesterday two large teas from two to four and from five to seven, despite the very bad weather nearly seventy guests attended those functions. Tea was dished up in the most delicious manner, and the evening was a most successful one.

Miss Helen Lawrence and the Misses Smith attended the Truro Hospital, and the evening was a most successful one.

ANAGNOSIS.

MAR. 17.—The most notable thing of this week was the gossip upon the party on "Apple Hill" last Friday evening, when Miss Davidson and her brothers Messrs. Humphrey and Albert Davidson were to entertain some sixty or so of their friends to a dance, and that a glorious time was anticipated by all who were fortunate enough to be honored with an invitation. But a feeling of disappointment and regret was caused in both the villages of Pettitville and Anagnosis when it was announced that Miss Davidson had been taken violently ill, and the party indefinitely postponed. However, Miss Davidson after being confined to her bed for a couple of days completely recovered from her sudden illness and the party took place on Monday evening of this week. "Apple Hill" the residence of Messrs. Davidson was prettily lighted and decorated. Miss Davidson had everything arranged carefully and methodically to end to the comfort of her guests, as she always does. Dancing was the chief amusement. Messrs. Samuel Chapman of Sussex and Fred Davidson, of Portage furnished some excellent music, although games of various kinds were indulged in by those who didn't care to trip the light fantastic. Some cozy corners arranged in the parlors and were evidently appreciated as they were all occupied between the dances.

Among those invited and present were, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Triles, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Heston, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Mr. Hanson, Misses Triles, M. Mass, Baker, Misses Keith, Misses Price, Misses Florence Jones, Lulu McMurray, Julia Smith, Florence Stockton, Annie Webster, and Messrs. David and Harry Smith, Hugh and Chip Keith, Harry Hazlet, Cliff Price, Bernard Ryan, Hort. Price, Kenneth MacLean, John Dr. Price, Moncton, and others. The ladies all looked exceptionally well and some very pretty dresses were worn. Mrs. Davidson received her guests in a dainty frock of cream pongee silk with lace and ribbons. Refreshments were served throughout the evening, and at midnight supper was partaken of the party breaking up at about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Miss Webster of Pettitville is spending some days with friends on "Apple Hill".

WINDROB.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' book store and by F. W. Dakin.]

Is the way of amusements the principal attraction here of late been at the rink which has offered several to the public within the last week. On Wednesday a hockey match was played between a team from the second "Wanderers" of Halifax and the "Alerts" Windsor, which resulted in a very creditable victory for the home boys.

Halifax was referee and Mr. McCurdy and Mr. P. A. Curry captained the "Wanderers" and "Alerts" respectively.

A large crowd gathered on Friday evening to witness the skating of Miss Mabel Davidson, who was the world's greatest fancy skater. The movements and skill in figure skating.

Dr. Haley's friends are glad to learn that he is recovering from his recent attack of illness.

Mr. Boreham of Halifax spent the week in town.

Mr. Geo. D. Galt has been suddenly called to Bridgetown on account of the serious illness of his brother-in-law, Dr. Bath.

Miss Jennie Burgess has returned from a three month's visit to Boston and vicinity. I am sorry to hear that her health has not been benefited by the change.

SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at Wm. I. Goodwin's Bookstore. In Middle Sackville by E. Merrill.]

MAR. 15.—The Misses Sangster entertained a number of their friends Wednesday evening at a dainty and well covered party. The tramping was excellent and after covering a distance of some miles they returned to Mr. Sangster's where an appetizing lunch was awaiting them. About midnight the party dispersed the hours having passed swiftly away in conversation and games. Among those present were Misses Powell, Sayre, Minnie and Nellie Copp, Anderson, Harrison, Nettie and Beale Colwell and Messrs Walker, East, Hale, McLarren, Harrison.

Mrs. J. F. Allison entertained about twenty-five of her young friends Thursday evening; cards were the chief amusement. Owing to the majority of the guests coming from the institutions supper was served at nine and almost immediately after the adieu were said. Those present were Misses Cook, Johnson, Estabrooks, Laura Newman, Sadie Boden, Margaret Johnson, Mary Wright, Beulah Merrill.
