verboard. The crew of the British schr Lily, which was wrecked at Nauset last week, left for their homes in St. John this afternoon on the steamer Boston.

Digby, Jan. 8.—Barque Brookside was successfully towed from Bear River to Digby yesterday afternoon by tugs Percy erer D. Gifford, which foundered off Deer Island early on the morning of Dec. 5 while endeavoring to make this harbon for shelter from the storm, was raised and towed to the city yesterday. The vessel was loaded with a cargo of 328 tons of coal, and was bound from Perth Amboy, N. J., to St. John, N. B.

The cargo, with the exception of about 70 tons, was pumped out before any attempt was made to bring the vessel to By means of heavy slings attached to the wrocking lighter Trilby and the floating derrick Bull, the schooner was fited from the bottom and was pushed n on the beach, where she was pumped ree. The tug boat Clara Clarita ther took her in tow for the city, and she was berthed at Commercial wharf. The schooner was found to be making water so rapidly that to prevent her from sinking at the dock she was towed to Sorensen's wharf, Chelsea, and ground-of sorensen's wharf, chessea, and ground-ed in the mud. She is very badly dam-aged, her after house having gone, decks and stern started and the entire hull-seriously shaken. The vessel is leaking 20 inches an hour. After the coal remaining in the vess s removed she will be placed in dry dock nere for examination and repairs. Th vessel's cargo, which was consinged to the International steamship company at St. John, will be delivered at the com-
