"THE DAILY TRIBUNE," the opening number of which we present to our readers to day, is intended to be journal worthy of the patronage of all resctable classes of our community. I shall be the Editor's aim to so conduct it that the commercial, industrial and social terests of the Dominion may be advanced, while its management shall know neither party, nationality nor sect. THE DAILY TRIBUNE will support all sound legislative neasures, wherever they may originate and oppose every scheme prejudicial to the public good, by whatever political party it may be upheld. While Dominion and Pro-

To his Patrons and the Public THE Second Anniversary of a Christmas season in business naturally awakens a spirit of thanksgiving towards friends, when the fact is felt, that since his first start in trade, he has, up till date, been the recipient of a very generous patronage, he would, at this festive period, offer heartfelt offerings for good to all, and trusts, when another year hath clapsed, he may feel in position and spirit, with greater force of speech to present his manifold congratulations for prosperity vouchsafed to a liberal people.
