> DEFEAT OF THE MINISTRY! (From the Globe)

The ministry were defeated on Tuesday by a vote of 48 to 44 on Mr. Cameron's motion in relation to the Corrigan case. The Government made a strong fight against the resolution, the two Atterneys General spoke at great length on the subject having prepared themselves with cases from the books to refute the member for Toronto; Mr. O'Farrell, Mr. Bellingham, and Solicitor General Ross were pressed into the service, but all was of no avail. The debate was spiritedly maintained by the Opposition and at half-past eleven, the vote was taken. The Upper Canadians behind the ministerial benches who have hitherto voted with the Government, rose promptly when the Speaker called for the yeas, and the fate of the ministry was finally sealed when Mr, Cameron's phalanx poured in its fire. The ministry, besides their own votes, had only two from Upper Canada Mr.
James Ross and Dr. Clarke and though they received some from Lower Canada which are usually against them they also lost some from the same section. victory was complete, and after a short pause during which each minister tried to appear engaged in writing earnestly,
Mr. Drummond hurriedly moved the adjournment of the House.

The Government may still keep their seats, and effect to consider the division of slight import; but they would adopt the wiser course, if they walked out at once. The vote of last night is a declarapress on that gentleman.

Mr. SOMERVILLE would remind the House that this was not the first time a charge had been brought against this Judge.
