SCHEDULE.

License under the authority and by virtue of Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent.

To all to whom these presents shall come or be made known, William Cooke, of 69, Berners Street, Oxford Street, in the County of Middlesex, England, proprietor of a certain Patent Invention hereinafter mentioned, sends greeting :

WHEREAS, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, 1857, in the twentieth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Her said Majesty did give and grant unto William Cooke, his executors, administrators, and assigns, and such others as he should agree with, and no others, the sole privilege of making, using, exercising and vending his, the said William Cooke's, invention of "Improvements in apparatus for ventilating," for and during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent ; and Her Majesty did, by her said letters patent, command all persons within England, the dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, in Scotland and Ireland respectively, that neither they nor any of them, at any time during the said term of fourteen years, should either directly or indirectly make, use, or put in practice the said invention, or any part thereof, without the consent or agreement of the said William Cooke, his executors, administrators, or assigns, in writing, under his hand and seal, first had and obtained in that behalf : And whereas a specification of the said invention was duly enrolled on or about the fourteenth day of August, 1857 ; and whereas the said William Cooke, as such sole proprietor and patentee, has received an application from Robert Brampton, of Stamon, in the County of Northampton, to grant him a license to vend and sell ventilators made according to such invention and patent privilege, within the District of Canada, including Upper and Lower Canada and the Hudson Bay Company's Territory, for the term of fourteen years, in consideration of the payments, upon the terms, in the manner and upon the stipulations expressed in an agreement bearing date September 30th, 1857, and signed by the said Robert Brampton ; and for the further period of eight years from the fourteenth day of February, 1871, should Government extend the patent rights for that period. Now know ye, and these presents witness, that in consideration of the reservations and stipulations expressed or contained in the said agreement, and on the part of the said Robert Brampton therein mentioned to be paid, observed, and performed, the aforesaid William Cooke doth give and grant unto the said Robert Brampton full and free liberty, license and authority, until the expiration of fourteen years from the date of the said agreement, to vend and sell ventilators in the manner therein agreed, the said "improvements in apparatus for ventilating," according to and in the manner described and mentioned
