

-2-

angle of the boundary, the post and mound on the west marking the section corner, the post and mound on the East marking the reserve limit. It would be well to look into this matter carefully in order that no mistake is made.

Your obedient servant,

James D. ...
Deputy Supt. General of Indian Affairs.

Indian Affairs, Letterbook,
19 June 1903 - 11 July 1903, (R.G. 10, Volume 5031)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA