

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—MEMBERSHIP.

The members must be professional artists ; all who follow art as a profession being eligible as candidates—namely: painters, sculptors, architects, artistic-engravers and draughtsmen-designers.

Every candidate for membership must be proposed and seconded by members at a regular meeting of the Society, the proposer and seconder vouching for his eligibility in all respects. He must also, unless his ability as an artist is well known to the members generally, submit not less than three specimen works to be forwarded and removed at his own risk and expense. Elections for membership must take place at a regular meeting of the Society, and shall be by ballot, requiring an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present. The Secretary shall then notify the candidate of his or her admission, send a copy of the Constitution and Rules of the Society, and on receipt of the entrance fee, together with the fee for the current year, the name of the candidate shall be placed upon the roll.

Ladies joining hereafter, while admissible as members to the Society, shall have no vote at the business meetings.
