THIRTY-FIRST THOUSAND.

Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN, and Her Royal Highness the Princess LOUISE, through their private Secretaries, have each been pleased to acknowledge the receipt of a copy.

"This book translates its readers to the celestial world, where, amidst the splendours which no imagery can fully represent, they hear the old story from the distinguished worthies of the Bible and modern times, who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. To the afflicted, this book cannot fail to bring consolation, and to all thoughtful readers encouragement to faith. The style is highly imaginative, without being fantastic, and the diction elevated and pure."—Christian Guardian.

"I have just finished reading your beautiful book 'Within the Pearly Gates.' I have enjoyed the same and have been profited. No wonder it has had such a large sale. It is safe to go anywhere; success to it."—Rev. Joseph Wild, D.D.

FEATHERS FROM AN ANGEL'S WING.

FOURTH EDITION.

Price 50 Cents. Paper Wrappers, 25 Cents.

"We very much admire the author's style and beauty of diction."—Hamilton Times.

"The author has a powerful imagination, great command of language, and intense earnestness."—Toronto Globe.

"The style of the author is wonderfully picturesque, and the chastened imagination of the writer is displayed in every part."—Montreal Witness.

"The author has a descriptive power of no common order."—The late Rev Dr. Guthrie, Edinburgh.

STRAY BEAMS FROM THE CROSS.

Price, Cloth Gilt, 50 Cents. Paper Wrappers, 25 Cents.

"The seventeen chapters in this book all finish within the soul-saving atmosphere of the Cross of Christ. Its perusal has drawn me nearer to the Cross. I know of no book, except one or two written by Mr. Moody, which, in my opinion, is more likely to be of equal benefit to the public than 'Stray Beams from the Cross.'"—Rev. R. Boyle, Brampton, Ont.
