

ing for the benefit of the congregation, to ascertain the truth; and when such statements were made, to accomplish a purpose—not legitimate.

“Chiselling” in State matter is very dishonourable; but chiselling in the church is only compatible with the spirit of those upon whom the mantle of Simon Magus has fallen.

COLIN D. REID.

NOTE.—As I do not know all of the congregation, any one who may not receive a copy hereof, can have one by calling at my office.
