

(59) Rear, from Old French arrere (modern French arrière); Latin ad-retro, behind. This word must not be confounded with the purely English verb rear, which is a by-form or doublet of rise, and connected with raise and rouse.)

(60) Reign, from Norman-French reigne (modern French régne); from Latin regnum, a kingdom. (The root is reg, which appears in reg-o (I rule), rex (= reg-s), etc.; and in the English reg-ent, reg-ular, reg-ulation, regn-ant, etc. This word has no connection with sovereign, which is only a corrupt and mistaken spelling of sorran, from Low Latin superaneus, above.)

(61) Rein, from French rène; from Low Latin retina, a bridle; from Latin retinere, to hold back. The same word gives retain, retention, retentive, etc.

(62) Roll, from French rouler, to roll or wheel; from Low Latin rotulare, to keep turning; from Latin rota, a wheel. The same word gives rotation, roller, enroll, etc.

(63) Route, French route, a road; Latin rupta (via, a way) broken or cut through the primeval forest. (From the same word comes routine = the following of a route; and Rotten Row, in Hyde Park, which was originally Route au Roi = the road for the king.)

(64) Sage, French sage, wise; Latin sap-ere, to taste, or to be wise. From the same root come savor, savory (Latin sapor).

(65) Salary, from French salaire; Latin salarium, an allowance made to the Roman soldiers for sal, salt. From the same root come salad, sauce (u for l, as in mou, mol; vieux, vieil, etc.), sausage (Low Latin salsitia), etc.

(66) Sound, from French son, Latin sonus, a sound. (For note on intrusive d see Peasant.) There are four words in the English language with the spelling sound. The others are: sound, from Old English sund, connected with Latin sanus, (which also gives sane and sanity); sound, a strait, connected with swim, and = what may be swum across; and hence a second meaning of this is the swimming bladder of a fish; and sound, from French sonder, Low Latin subundare, to dive under the wave.
