Fine Stylish Overcoats

We sell more fine overcoats than any other store. Why? Well, for the simple reason that ours are not the ordinary ready-made affairs, instead, they are all built for us, built the way the tailors build made-to-measure garments, they have to be come up to the high standard required before they can wear the New Method label, which guarantees pureness of fabrics, correctness of style, excellence of workmanship and perfection of fit. Prices

$7.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00

You can choose from a large variety of fabrics, including black, dark gray and brownish Cheviot Coatings, Friezes, Scotch rough wools and black Meltons, all the new models, the Chesterfields, those with broad shoulders and long, loose, full skirts and the Yoke Coats.

For Young Men

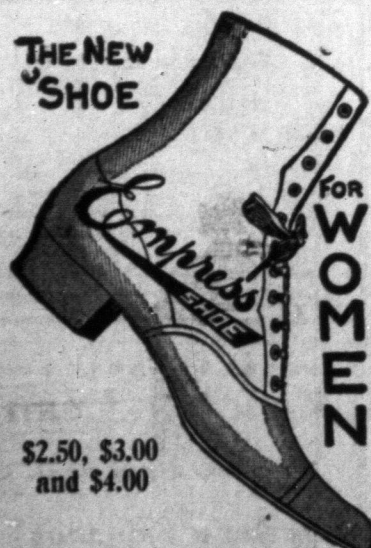

Overcoats as fine and as well tailored as men's. Nothing is more stylish than those Raglan Coats in Oxford mixture at $15.00. Gray Friezes, Oxfords and brown Rough Diagonals and dark Oxford Coatings, the latest fashions $10 to $15.

EMPIRE'S PRAYER

Correspondent Rightly Complains of the Usage Which the National Anthem is Accorded.

With people so prone to offend in the foregoing particular, it is perhaps needless to expect them to display any finer sense of feeling with respect to another serious infringement of decorum. By this is meant the manner in which the present day theatrical audience receives the playing of the National Anthem. Time was when the opening bar of "God Save the Queen" was the signal for the members of an assemblage to rise to their feet and stand respectfully until its close, or better still, join in, and make the invocation a vocal as well as a musical one. Now, however, it would seem that only the members of the orchestra are aware that the National Anthem is being played, for the rest of the audience is busily engaged in donning rubbers, adjusting wraps, and showing a way toward the exits. Surely modern life is not so strenuous that theater patrons cannot spare two or three minutes which would suffice to fittingly honor the playing of the nation's hymn. If this be found impracticable, it would be far better to cut out "God Save the King," and let some less hallowed number take its place as a perfunctory form of dismissal.

GEN. BULLER HAS FALLEN

Relieved of Command of First Army Corps and Placed at Half Pay.

Pays the Penalty of his Indiscreet Address—Gen. French Appointed to Succeed Him.

London, Oct. 22.—Sir Redvers Buller has been relieved of the command of the first army corps in consequence of the speech he made Oct. 10 after the luncheon given in his honor by the King's Royal Rifles, dealing with his famous dispatch to Gen. White at Ladysmith. He has been placed on half pay and Gen. French has been appointed to succeed him. In the official announcement the war office says that the commander-in-chief "after full consideration of all the circumstances and the explanations furnished," recommended that Gen. Buller be relieved, which has been done. The appointment of Gen. French is to take effect "when his services are no longer required in South Africa." Pending Gen. French's return Gen. Haldy will command at Aldershot.

Gen. Buller's supersession was not unexpected, but the manner of it has caused a sensation. It is understood that the government endeavored to break the fall by giving him the option of resigning, but that Buller declined to give way.

The morning papers all express sympathy for the unfortunate ending of a brilliant career; but they are unanimous that no other course was open after his indiscreet speech, and they express the greatest approval of the selection of Gen. French to succeed him.

The Daily Chronicle and the Daily News attack the government for weakness and lack of courage in ever appointing Gen. Buller to the command of any army corps.

In the official announcement the war office says that the commander-in-chief, after full consideration of all the circumstances and the explanations furnished, "recommended that General Buller be relieved, which has been done."

"We were very much pleased with the design you sent. It was beautiful and appropriate." The Victoria Ave. Greenhouses receive such words of commendation every day. Telephone No. 181.

THEATRE PANIC

Was Caused by Uncalled for Cry of Fire and Resulted in Many Serious Injuries.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 22.—Hundreds of people attempted to rush out of the Temple Theatre this afternoon because the cry of fire was raised when a little flame was seen about the polyscope machine.

In the scramble, scores of people were knocked down and more than 20 were badly hurt, while it is feared that two or three will not survive their injuries.

It was about 3.30 o'clock, just after the first act of "Tennessee's Pardner," and while the polyscope was being prepared for its exhibition, a little flash of flame came that caused the panic. Many women and children made a rush for the door. The panic seized the gallery, and in a moment the occupants were plunging down the stairway in a heap, or were taking the swifter method of climbing down into the auditorium proper.

In their haste, many fell landing on those beneath. Several were badly hurt in this way.

The great crush occurred where the stairs come down from the gallery. Here the two crowded seats, and were packed in a space not large enough for half of them, and all were trying with a desperation born of fear to reach the street.

The weaker were soon knocked down and trampled under foot. Those who realized the state of affairs were trying their best to check the rush, but the crowd went on pell mell through the doors, and literally rolled down the long flight of stairs.

Just as the doors were closed, Mrs. O. W. Blum pitched her 3-year old child through the exit to a policeman. He caught it in his arms, but it slipped to the floor, sustaining, however, no injuries except slight bruises.

There was no damage from fire. It is said the cause of the flame was the blowing out of a fuse on the polyscope.

THE SUGAR BEET.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Three large sugar beet companies doing business in Ontario have submitted their contracts for next year to the provincial department of agriculture. One of these concerns, which has its head office at Wallaceburg, but no factory there, shipped many tons of the sweet roots to Michigan during the summer, sending them by boat to Saginaw. Next year the firm proposes manufacturing stock in Canada, and will establish a plant here.

PRIEST PLEADS TO NO AVAIL

The Assassin Czolgosz Definitely Refused to Renounce Anarchism.

Declared to be Incurable and Contumacious of Church May Be Denied Him.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, who is awaiting electrocution in the prison here during the week commencing next Monday, fully realizing that his death is now a question of a few days, has asked for spiritual consolation, and this afternoon received a visit from the Rev. T. Szadinski, a Polish priest of the Roman Catholic church.

The interview between priest and prisoner proved very unsatisfactory to both. It took place in the condemned man's cell and the conversation was carried on in Polish. During the interview Czolgosz said he had been baptized in the Roman Catholic faith in the Polish church in Detroit. He had abandoned the church early in life and had lost all faith in its teachings. Fr. Szadinski urged him to renounce his belief in anarchy and return to the faith of his early years. Czolgosz declared his inability to do so, and he was informed that unless he could the consolation of the church would be denied him.

Father Szadinski, before taking his departure, left with Czolgosz some Catholic literature, printed in Polish and also some emblems of the church. Czolgosz assured Fr. Szadinski that in case he determined to accept the offices of religion, he would send for him, but he did not hold out much hope that he would renounce doctrines of anarchy.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Rev. Fr. Szadinski returned home to-night. Fr. Szadinski would not say whether his visit had been of his own volition or whether upon the request of Czolgosz.

Three priests, Fr. Letoka, Fr. Szulca, and Fr. Stadenon, who were with Fr. Szadinski, would not say what their business was with him, but all seemed familiar with Czolgosz and his recent actions. Fr. Stadenon admitted that Czolgosz was without the ban, was an incurable and utterly worthless case.

ANOTHER FACTORY

Mayor Sulman Says There Are Probabilities of Chatham Securing Beet-Sugar Industry.

"It has been my fondest hope," said Mayor Sulman to The Planet this morning, "to see Chatham the centre of a Radial Railway and to have a Beet Root Sugar Factory. My last desire is beginning to take shape."

There is a syndicate of American and Canadian capitalists who are prepared to submit a proposition to the Council and their offer is, I consider, the best that we have yet had. The promoters will probably be able to lay their proposition before the Council this week. It will be along the lines of exemption from taxes, free site, and probably supplying a limited quantity of water for use in washing the finished sugar.

It is advisable that the Council should look over this matter as soon as possible, so that arrangements can be made to submit the proposition to the ratepayers at the coming municipal elections.

The most completely lost of all days is the one on which we have not laughed.

The Conservatives Won't Have a Ghost of a Show of Beating Ross Government, Says McKee.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 22.—W. J. McKee, M. P. P., appeared pleased this morning on learning that the Provincial elections will not be held until after another session of the Legislature. The news confirmed a belief he has held for some weeks.

"There will certainly be a redistribution of the electoral divisions during the next session," said he. "This is but natural after the Dominion census. We will change the constituencies so that the Conservatives will not have a ghost of a show of beating Ross' Government."

He admitted that it was the intention to lop off the township of Andover from North Essex, and add it to South Essex. This change would materially better McKee's chances of re-election, as Andover gives over 100 of a Conservative majority. Being placed in the south riding, it would not interfere with John A. Auld, M. P. P., who has a sincere
