

THE QUEBEC TRANSCRIPT.

His Excellency Sir George Arthur has started on his tour of inspection. On the 29th ult. His Excellency was to be at Drummondville, where he would remain a few days, and would during his stay, according to a notification addressed to the Sheriff of the Niagara District, "be happy to receive any of the magistrates, or other gentlemen in the District, who might wish to see him." From the Falls, His Excellency is to continue his tour westward.—Montreal Gazette.

Montreal, August 1.—Yesterday we had a continuation of bad, unseasonable weather. A whirlwind passed in the afternoon near the Bishop's Church, which caught the projecting eaves of the workshops belonging to Mr. Appleton, stripped off the roofs, which are scattered far and near, and carried the timbers of the roof to considerable distances. We saw a piece, the scantling which was six by three inches, that was picked up full 50 yards from the building. Crossing the road, the wind struck some of the trees in Mr. Viger's orchard; one it lifted off by the roots—another it shattered, breaking boughs as thick as a man's body.—Transcript.

Commercial.

Montreal, August 2.—Ashes.—Since our last Review, little has been done in Ashes, the few coming forward have been bought up in small parcels, at from 25c. to 25c. 6d. for Pots, and 30c. 6d. to 31s. for Pearls. We have not heard of any sales for shipment, but understand that 26c. 6d. Pots, and 31s. Pearls, have been refused.

Flour remains without variation. Sales of some 300 to 400 barrels have been made in small quantities during the week, at our quotations; say $7 for both fine and superfine.

Provisions.—Prime Pork has declined a trifle, but Prime and Prime Mess remain the same. The following sales have come to our knowledge:—100 bls. Prime, at $16; 250 at $15, and 250 bls. price not transpired, but supposed to be $15. In Beef, Lard and Butter, there is no change.

Exchange.—The operations in Exchange for the Great Western were not to any great extent. Government and the British North American Bank are now drawing, the former at 10 1/2 per cent. 30 days, and the latter same rate at 60 days. Drafts on New-York have advanced, and may be quoted at 1/4 and 1 per cent.—Courier.
