nd Mary 2nd prize, et O'Gortained by tendance, et O'Con e McDon-; compo-le deport-

geometry, Miss Aze ing, vocal Dann : lit Miss Ella algebra arithmetic. in music, Rev. Dr. Delaney.

ASYLUM,

laying the of the St. performed ear of the re a large ymen; His Rev. Father thier, Rev. ott, Mr. A. y and Mr.

e ceremony the charitthe Catholic

ks he went forget that ate Fathers many of the lorning the amount of d performed ords of deep Connor and in his largeaged, infirm hem a home ly. He had beople of St. all in their pastor, Rev. k he had so nlarging the called upon of charity noblest sym-lits developt by the tru n throughout ad sufficient vitation from esent to look y done by St. ore could r subject as he ped that the d accept his and Catholic a stone then ng assisted by nd Vicar-Gen-hoir.—Ottawa od will exist.

is at this sea-ooks her pret-ne of the grass reshing to the y to day only dusty streets. amber who on ome attractive he city. The tario Agri ay invaded by e admirers of en evidence of l is to be seen active way in and beds are

LORETTO CONVENT. GUELPH.

JULY 12, 1884.

Among the educational events of inter-est which transpire during the year, the closing exercises at Loretto convent is one of the most attractive and at the same time instructive and entertaining. This year the ladies of Loretto took more than ordinary pains, not only to make the educational display a rare one, but also to make the convent look as attractive as possible. This was principally because of the visit of His Lordship Bishop Car-possible. This was principally because of the visit of His Lordship Bishop Car-bery. The study hall of Loretto presented, therefore, an unusually gay and festive appearance on Thursday evening, as the large and fashionable assemblage poured into the room about 4 o'clock. A large stage had been erected at one end of the hall. Around this, evergreens, mottoes and flowers were tastily arranged. Above the centre of the platform the word 'wel-come,' formed of numberless tiny gas jets, shone brightly forth, and in the full-ness of its refugence impressed all present with the idea that the greeting of Loretto to the eminent prelate would be a right hearty one. So it proved to be. His Lordship entered the room at the time appointed for the opening of the program. He was accompanied by the following rev.gentlemen: —Vicar General Heenan, of Hamilton ; Fathers Crinnon, of Brantford : McGuire, of Galt ; Lillis, of Elora ; O'Reilly, Doherty, S. J., Macdon-ald, S. J., Plante, S. J. and Dumortier, S. J., of this city. Among the lay gentle-men present were Mayor Chase, Messrs. Jas, Innes, M. P., Dr. Herod, J. C. Chad-wick and several aldermen and other prominent citizens. The program opened with a march on prominent citizens. The program opened with a march on four pianos, harp and organ, by the Misses Nuilson, Battle, Dorenberg, Sweeney, Wait, Leonard and Fielding. It was pleasingly rendered. Miss Maggie Hughes then came forward and in a clear, distinct pleasingly rendered. Miss maggie Hugdes then came forward and in a clear, distinct voice, read the following: ADDRESS TO HIS LORDSHIP: In the general strains of welcome that greeted your arrival on our loved Can-shore our voices have hitherto been but the fond hope was cherished idian sh silent, but the fond hope was cherished that the bright day was soon to dawn for us, on which our convent walls would resound to the gladdest strains that ever resolution to the gradest status that even awakened their peaceful echoes. Thus our hope has to day reached the plenitude of its realization, and our long suppressed joy has at last found utterance in words of heart felt welcome to our revered and loved bishop. While we offer your Lord-ship the homage of filial devotedness, our hearts exult at the thought that we can claim as our father a member of the illustrious order of St. Dominic, which like a glorious constellation illumines the firmament of God's church. Well we know, my Lord, that a large share of the know, my Lord, that a large share of the divine spirit and glorious gifts of the great St. Dominic has fallen upon you, whom it is our highest privilege and honor to call by the hallowed names of shepherd and guide. Earnestly do we pray that your Lordship will long dispense to us, your loving children, the blessings which as a sacred deposit our heavenly father hea confided to your faithful care. father has confided to your fauthful care, and for ourselves we shall ask that we may know the gift of God and faithfully and gratefully correspond with it. YOUR DEVOTED CHILDREN OF LORETTO GUELPH. Miss Hughes handed the address to the Bishop when she had concluded reading it, and at the same time His Lordship was made the recipient of a beautiful bouquet from the hands of little Miss Lulu Buchanan. The next number was a solo and chorus, "Oh Steer my Bark to Erin's Isle." Miss L. O'Connor sang the solos with much feeling, and the chorus by the full school feeling and the chorus by the full school present, he felt, as well as himself had been charmed and delighter<sup>A</sup>. Not only did the pupils possees superior accomplish-ments in the branches of st. sty which had been displayed at the enterty ment bind they also had acquired mary, flour taste and skill in painting, drawing, faucy work, etc., as shown in the room adjoining. The degree of perfection attained by the pupils in all these lines of study was an evidence of the merits and accomplishments of the Sisters of Loretto—their diligent instrucin all these lines of study was an evidence of the merits and accomplishments of the Sisters of Loretto—their diligent instructors. It must be a matter of consolation to the parents of the young ladies to know that their children can be placed under the zealous care of the ladies of this in-stitution and at the same time have their minds fully developed in all the arts and sciences which can adorn the human in-tellect. His Lordship again expressed his gratitude to the pupils for the pleasure he felt at being with them and concluded by wishing them a happy and profitable vacation

The following is the LIST OF PREMIUMS. Gold medal for general good conduct and honorable distinction in English, and honorable distinction in English, French, Music and oil painting, awarded by Rev. Father Doherty, P. P., of Arthur, and obtained by Miss Hattie Holiday. Gold medal for Christian doctrine, awarded by Rev. Father Keough, of Ham-ilton, and obtained by Miss Sweeney. Crown and prize for charity in conver-sation, awarded to Miss Sweeney by vote of her companions.

of her companions. Crown for fidelity to school rules, awarded to the Misses Hughes, J. Wilson, Keating, Cassin and Sweeney in boarding school, and Scanlan and J. McElderry in day-school.

in day-school. Prize for personal neatness equally merited by the Misses Battle, Dorenburg, Mullin, Bowman, J. Wilson, Sweeney, Hughes, and Spiers in boarding school, and Rose Heffernan, Scanlan, M. and A. McElderry, N. Heffernan, Rene and F. Heffernan, L. Gay and R. McEligate in day school, and obtained by the Misses J. Wilson and Rose Heffernan. Prize for regular attendance in day school, equally merited by the Misses Prize for regular attendance in day school, equally merited by the Misses Scanlan, J. McElderry, M. McElderry, L. McTague, L. Bergin, L. Gay and Rose Heffernan, obtained by J. McElderry. Prize for promptitude in rising, equally merited by the Misses Hughes, Sweeney, Bachanav, Wilson, Cassin, Keating, Rains and Barrett, obtained by Miss Lulu Bu-chanav. chanan.

Prize for promptitude in returning after vacation, equally merited by the Misses Hughes, Sweeney, O'Dea, Wilson and Keating in boarding school. J. Mc-Elderry, T. Coffee, M. McElderry, A. McElderry, Scanlan, L. Gay, K. McEli-gate, and obtained by Misses Hattie O'Dea and R. Heffernan. and R. Heffernan.

Crown and prize for excellence in in-strumental music, awarded to Miss Herod.

Herod. The Misses Meldrum, Mills, Tremble, Cotteral, S. and T. Coffee, Doran, Carroll, Duquet, Scott, Deary, Foster, Cavers and Herod have merited hoporable men-tics for increment in painting.

tion for improvement in painting. Miss Dorenberg, 2nd prize in 1st class instrumental music, 2nd in division 3rd class French, 2nd for water colors and oil

Class French, and prize for fancy work. Miss Janet Wilson, crown and prize in division 6th English, 1st in 5th class French, 1st for Algebra and practical arithmetic, 2nd for Euclid and English literature, improvement in book-keeping and prize in 2nd class instrumental music. and prize in 2nd class instrumental music. Miss Hughes, crown and prize in 5th class French, 1st in division 6th class Eng-lish, 1st for English composition and Christian doctrine, 1st in 1st class instru-mental music, 1st for improvement in vocal music and English literature. Miss Passia Chilton 1st prize in 2st

The line of the control of the contr Miss J. McElderry, 1st prize in 5th class Eoglish and in 4th class French, 2nd in arithmetic and Algebra, prize for imted: Rose, Miss Regina Mullen, Crocus, Miss Rose Heffernan; Dahlia, Miss Rene Heffernan, Sunflower, Miss Maud Spires; Snowdrop, Miss Nellie Heffernan; Pink, Miss Luly Rushanan; Lilk, Miss Mania provement in water colors. movement in water colors. Miss Scanlan, 1st prize in 5th class Eng-lish and division 3rd class French, 1st for book-keeping, and prize in 3rd class instrumental music. Miss M. McElderry, crown and prize in 3rd alors Forneh 2nd prize in 5th class Miss Lulu Buchanan ; Lily, Miss Mamie McElderry ; Violet, Miss Emma Wait ; Forget Me Not, Miss Maud Spires. That ever popular instrumental piece, "Irish ever popular instrumental piece, "Irish Diamonds," on four pianos and Harp, by the Misses Herod, Hughes, Battle, Gay in 3rd class French, 2nd prize in 5th class English, prize for improvement in arith-metic, plain sewing and writing. Miss Keating, 2nd prize in 5th class English, 1st in 2nd class French, prize for and R. Holiday, elicited warm applause from the delighted audience. A duet by Misses O'Connor and Hughes was a thor oughly enjoyable number. Both ladies possess sweet voices. The entire school gave a chorus and solos as the next numimprovement in Park of the set of ber and acquitted themselves creditably. Following it came a reading, the "The Beleaguered City," by Miss B. Chilton, which was very ably given. The next number was received with hearty munifesment in Euclid and Algebra. Miss T. Coffee, 2nd prize in 4th class French, 3rd in 5th class English, prize for number was received with hearty manifes [1] tations of approval. It was a trio, from the "Redemption." I.- The Holy [1] Women going to the Sepulchre. II.- The Holy Women returning from the Sepul-chre, by the Misses Hugher, Bowman and Chilton. The "Grand Duo," (on four 1) pianos) by the Misses Herod, H. Holiday, Hughes and Dorenburg, was a musical treat, as was also "Ave Maria," by a num-ber of voung helies. Miss Alleen Swift French, 3rd in 5th class English, prize for writing and improvement in oil painting. Miss McCann, 3rd prize in 5th class English and division 3rd class French, prize for improvement in Eaclid and Algebra. Miss McTague, crown and prize in 4th class English, 3rd sprize in 2nd class French, and prize for improvement in plain swing. treat, as was also "Ave Maria," by a num-ber of young ladies. Miss Aileen Swift, the smallest child in the school, was warmly applauded for her singing in "Pm Going to Write to Papa." She was joined in the chorus by the other little children. "That was the Song for Me," a pretty solo, was sweetly rendered by Miss L. O'Connor and brought the normamme to a close. Plain sewing. Miss L. Gay, 1st prize in 4th class Eng-lish and in 3rd class French, prize for im-provement in plain sewing and writing. Miss Battle, 2nd prize in 4th class English, and 2nd class French and arithmetic prize for fancy work, 2nd for oil painting and brought the programme to a close. The distribution of prizes was an inter-esting sight. Euch of the ladies received and water colors, and 1st in 2nd class instrumental music. Miss Hattie O'Dea, 2nd prize in 4th her medal, crown, or other premiums from the hands of the Bishop. The audience at class English, prize for improvement in 3rd class French, prize for writing and English composition. the time showed their appreciation of the of the pupils by frequently Miss N. H. Heffernan, 3rd prize in 4th class English, and in 2nd class French, 1st At the close of the distribution, His Lordship made a few remarks. He first heartily thanked the pupils for their feeling address which was overflowing with sentiments of affection and esteem. in junior division arithmetic. Miss M. Turner, 3rd prize in 4th class English and in 1st class French, 2nd for fancy work, prize for improvement in arithmetic and instrumental music. Miss K. Cassin, 2nd prize in division 3rd He thanked them also for the very enjoyable entertainment which had been given. Those who were anxious to know joyane entertainment which had been given. Those who were anxious to know French, 3rd in 4th class English, prize for improvement in instrumental music, fancy work and drawing. Miss Barrett, 1st in 1st class French, not do better than attend a performance such as the one which had been given and the class English, prize for improvement in 2nd class French and plain sewing. Miss Mullen, 2nd prize in division 4th class German, improvement in 2nd class German, improvement in junior division arithmetic and in instrumental music. Miss Fosbury, 2nd prize in division 4th class English, 1st for improvement in junior division arithmetic and in instrumental music.

THE KINGSTON CONVENTS.

Miss Fosbury, 2nd prize in division 4th junior division arithmetic, in 2nd class French and instrumental music. Miss E. Wait, prize for improvement in division 4th class English and in 2nd class French, prize for plain sewing, 2nd prize in 3rd class instrumental music. Mr. James Steves and Miss Mary Tier-ney were also married the same morning. On the 30th another wedding took place,

Mr. D. G. McDonald being the happy in 3rd class instrumental music OUR CEMETERY. On Friday of last week and Monday of Miss Rose Heffernan, 2nd prize in 1st class French and prize for improvement in Miss Rose Heffernan, 2nd prize in 1st class French and prize for improvement in division 4th class English. Miss K. McEligate, 1st prize in 3rd class English, improvement in writing and 1st for improvement in preparatory class arithmetic. Miss M. Keough, 2nd prize in 3rd class English, prize for improvement in plain sewing.

sewing. Miss Egan, 2nd prize in 3rd class English, prize for improvement in preparatory class arithmetic. Miss Boyd, 3rd prize in 3rd class English.

And prize for improvement in plain sewing and writing. Miss Lulu Buchanan, 3rd prize in 3rd

Miss Lulu Buchanan, 3rd prize in 3rd class English, and improvement in sewing. Miss F Heffernan, 3rd prize in 3rd class English, 2nd for fancy work and arithme-tic, improvement in music. Miss Spicre, 2nd prize in 3rd class Eng-lish, 2nd for fancy work, prize for im-provement in instrumental music, draw-ing and writing. Anss Luid buchanad, 3rd prize in 3rd class English, and improvement in sewing. English, 2nd for fancy work and arithme-tic, improvement in nusic. Miss Spicrs, 2nd prize in 3rd class Eng-lish, 2nd for fancy work, ptize for im-provement in instrumental music, draw-ing and writing. Miss McAstocker, 3rd prize in 3rd class English, improvement in sewing and pre-paratory class arithmetic. besides his lordship, Rev. Father Kelly, Rev. Fathers Twohey, Hartigan, Fleming, Bros. Halward and Frederick, Dr. Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin, Mr. Hitchcock and daughter, Mrs. Mo'Brien, Mrs. McKenty, Mrs. Leahy, Mr. and Mrs. Ronan and daughter, Mrs. James Davis, Miss McAstocker, 3rd prize in 3rd class English, improvement in sewing and pre-paratory class arithmetic.

Sisters from the Convent de Notre Dam paratory class arithmetic. Miss Rene Heffernan, prize for improve-ment in 3rd class English, 2nd in 3rd class were also present. instrumental music and fancy work. Miss A Bunyan, prize for improvement in 3rd class English and in plain sewing in 3rd class English and in plain seeing and fancy work. Miss Mahony, prize for improvement in 3rd class English, and in preparatory class arithmetic and fancy work. Miss M Doran, prize for improvement in third class English and in plain sew-ing

ing. Miss M Hennessy, prize for improve-ment in third class English and plain sewing. Miss A Guy, prize for improvement in 3rd class Erglish and in plain sewing. Miss Tory Heffernan, 1st prize in 2nd

Miss Minnie Gay, 2nd prize in 2nd class ones' greeting followed. "Welcome Offerings" of flowers were presented to the bishop by the children, and the "Magniti-cat" was beautifully rendered by all the pupils. The next piece, "A Secret 'Neath the Roses," acted by several little girls, was very interesting. "Let Music and Song Tell Our Joy," was the next piece, and one of the best of all. Nearly all the pupils ioned in this piece, which consisted English. Miss Cecilia Klopfer, improvement in 2nd class English. Miss Aline Swift, improvement in 2ad and one of the best of all. Averity all the pupils joined in this piece, which consisted of recitations, singing and dancing, all combining to give pleasure. The manner in which the little ones danced and waved the garlands of flowers which they held in their hands, was ex-condiming the second second class English. Miss Annie Merlihan, 1st prize in 1st class English.

Miss Ursie Doran, 1st prize in 1st class

Aliss Cisc Zenny English. Miss Rose Keough, prize for improve-ment in 1st class English. Prizes for being good little children, awarded to Mary Carroll, Eva O'Connor ceedingly pleasant. The training they received in this respect must have been awarded to Mary Carroll, Eva O'Connor and Mary Cherier. The Misses Davis, McGill, and A Keough entered too late to receive pre-miums.—Guelph Herald, June 27.

BRANTFORD LETTER.

PRESENTATION TO FATHER LENNON.

received in this respect must have been complete. A piano duet followed. It was very fine. A dialogue, "Fame," come next on the programme. Many pupils took part in this. The piece was original and most appropriate to the occa-sion. Every pupil acted her part well. A piano quartette was then given by four of the larger pupils in excellent style, and received much praise. The distribu-tion of prizes followed, and many young ladies received crowns from the hands of his lordship. AN OFFERING OF AFFECTION. An address was then read by Miss English in a very happy mauner. The READING AN ADDRESS. Miss Emily McDermott then read, on behalf of the school, an address of wel-come to the bishop, which contained lov-ing words. It also referred to the sorrow which they felt in his long absence, and their desures on his return. The chill which they felt in his long absence, and their pleasure on his return. The chil-dren intimated a wish that his lordship would not leave them again. Father Kelly was welcomed back, and reference was made to the fidelity of Father Two-hey and Monsignore Farrelly while the bishop was in Rome. It concluded by invoking the bishop's blessing. THE BISHOP MAKES REFLY.

there was nothing better for a bishop than a good lecture, and he would try and benefit by it. He said he was delighted to be in the company of children. During the whole course of his ministry he loved to be with them and he did not know of anything more lovely than THE PICTURE BEFORE HIM. They might talk about the flowers, their variety of color, their beauty and magnificence, but what were they in com-

The room was very tastefully decorated with flowers, evergreens, etc. Evergreens were hanging from the ceiling, "Welcome Home," in evergreens, hung directly facing which God prepared them to perform. He counselled the young ladies to be SYMPATHETIC AND CHARITABLE. to meekly bear the yoke of obedience and perform the duties of life with all humility. He expressed gratification at the mention that had been made of Frs. Kelly and Twohey and Mgr. Farrelly. Fr. Kelly, he said, had been afraid he would die while in Rome, and had in-timated his preference for Canada, but he (the Bishop), though he had been detained long past the expected time, was more bopeful of returning to his home, and now that he was here he was delighted and pleased beyond expression with their greeting. As to Mgr. Farrelly and Fr. Twohey he knew that they would be zealous in all things, and that his absence would not affect the anxiety which characterized the discharge of their duties. He acknowledged the receipt of the school greeting at Christmas, and said he thought he was coming home, but God had ordered it otherwise. Hereto-fore he had very closely applied his atten-tion to dioceesan duties, and had not Home," in evergreens, hung directly facing the bishop. SUMMARY OF THE PROCEEDINGS At 11.30 o'clock Miss B. Herndon re-cited, in an exceedingly pleasing man-ner, a beautiful address to the bishop, The elocutionary powers of Miss Hern don are of a very high order, and she deservedly merited the high praise be-stowed upon her performance. The little ones' greeting followed. "Welcome Offerings" of flowers were presented to the tion to diocesan duties, and had not visited them as often as he could wish, but he would be free henceforth to give the children of the schools encouragement and assistance in a variety of ways. He hoped they would always be a credit to the church, to their parents and the city to which they belonged.

Prize for religious instruction, presented by Rev. Fr. Fleming.—Miss Katharine Kilcauley. Medal of the superior course—Miss He ad-Mary Sullivan. Medals of the fifth course-Awarded to Misses Isabella Innis, Katharine Campbell, Katharine Kilcauley. Prize for punctuality, presented by Rev. Fr. Hartigan-Miss Angeline Lambert. Extra prizes for punctuality-Misses Bridget Corrigan, Mary Flanigan, Mar-garet Hagerty and Rose Cunningham. Mar-Prize for religious instruction, pre-ented by Rev. Fr. Kelly-Miss Caroline O'Donnell. Price for needle work-Miss Alice Quig-The prizes for music were given in A 11 May. Miss McKenty won the first prize. The prizes given last evening consisted of books and silver medals. The latter present were gratified with the entertain-ment. Many articles of fancy work were exhibited. Those by Misses Erwin, Jones. lerndon, Hitchcock, Mullen, Jones and were very handsome.

he counsels the formation of Catholic societies. It is also to care for the sick, or disabled, and at the death of a member a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars is to be paid to such persons as he may direct direct.

The sixth annual convention of the Knights was held this year on June the 24th, St. John's Day, in Detroit, Mich., and presented a brilliant appearance. Over one theurand Uniformet Keisht.

3

Correspondence of the Catholic Record. LETTER FROM WINDSOR.

St. Alphonsus Hall was crowded with

St. Arphonsus Hall was crowded with a select audience on Tuesday afternoon, the 24th ult., to witness the annual com-mencement exercises of St. Mary's Aca-demy. His Lordship Bishop Walsh pre-sided, attended by Very Rev. Dean Wagner, Father O'Connor, President of L'Assomation College Sandwich - Fra the gold medal of the Academy suitably inscribed. L'Abbe Casgrain's modal for success in the French language, was won by Miss Nellie Moynahan, Amherstburg, whilst Miss Lizzie O'Laughlin, Emmet Mich., carried off for Domestic Economy

panied by the author, professor of the Academy. About thirty young ladies took part in the operetta, and rendered it in part in the operetta, and rendered it in a manner pleasing to even musical con-noisseurs. An original cantata, "The Happy Day," by the same author, was also ren-dered by the pupils in excellent manner. The silver medals were awarded for Eng-

conomy

1

THE CATHOLIC RECORD.

Wagner, Father O'Connor, President of L'Assomption College, Sandwich; Frs. Brennan, Ferguson, Baner, Abbulin, Cushing, Mungovin. Scanlon, Dunphy and Dumonchelle. The programme was well chosen and consisted of a duet, a drama in two acts, "St. Agnes or the Young Martyr," presented in a most artistic and creditable manner, confer-ring the gold medals,—the first, for Chris-tian Doctrine, presented by His Lordship, was awarded to Miss Louise Montreuil, Windsor. Two "sweet girl graduates," Misse L'zzie Jacquemain, Detroit, and Miss Lizzie Bracell, Detroit, received each the gold medal of the Academy suitably The bishop's blessing. THE BISHOP MAKES REPLY. His Lordship after giving his blessing, addressed the children briefly. He could not find words suitable to express his feelings. They had said many beautiful things to him, their songs and their flowers and their interventation of the meaning of and their interpretation of the meaning of each flower were fully appreciated. In their address they had expressed a desire that he would roam no more. He thought there was nothing better for a bishop than a coord between one has nothing better for a bishop than

British Whig, Jcne 28. Yesterday Bishop Cleary attended the summer closing of the Convent of the Lady of the Lake. There were present besides his lordship. Rev. Father Kelly, parison with the youth and beauty before them. These were passing from girlhood to womanhood. They were being lifted here in knowledge and virtue above the sphere that it would be possible for their parents to lift them. They were being trained in their outward expressions and actions, and taught truthfalness, gentle-ness, reverence, obedience, benevolence, punctuality, regularity and conformity punctuality, regularity and conformity with the rules of their superiors. The school prepared and fashioned them inwardly and outwardly for the mission which God prepared them to perform. He counselled the young halies to be

The silver medals were awarded for Eng-lish to Miss Letty Monaghan, Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Libbie Ralph, of Ogdens-burg, N. Y. For music—Miss Albertina Ouillette, Windsor, and Miss Lena Giles, Lowell, Michigan. For French—Miss Edith Clancy, Wallaceburg, Ont. For religious instruction—Miss Zoe Bondy The distribution of ribbons of honor and prizes of class, followed. The valedictory was delivered by Miss Lizzie Jacquemain. His Lordship then addressed the pupils, praising their success during the past praising their success during the papins, year in the various departments of study, wishing them a pleasant vacation, hoping to see the majority of them return to complete their education under the fostering care of such a beautiful Alma Mator os St. Maria A andama Mater as St. Mary's Academy. On Thursday evening, the 26th inst., President Drescher, of Buffalo, Supreme Commander of the Knights of St. John, and about forty delegates of other commandrees, visited Windsor and installed the newly organized commandery of St.

the newly organized commandery of St. Augustine, consisting of twenty-nine members, into a union with the Knights of St. John. The Knights of St. John are a national union of uniformed Catholic societies. The object of the society is to create a feeling of fraternity and fellow-ship among the various Catholic societies, and is in accordance with the Eacyclical letter of His Holiness Leo AIII., in which he counsels the formation of Catholic AWARDING OF THE PRIZES. The distribution of a few extra prizes then took place. Every two years prizes are distributed at the Convent, but this year a few extra were given. The follow-ing is the list.

iful to the eve are the green h surround the timony to the P. J. Woods and stock de-advanced for shows that the uch care, and lar field well ## iry a good profit Bat he must they need in o keep up their er gets light in ilt edged" by Co's. Improved golden color s per pound to

ic. pain that Hag-, outrivals the

It acts in a inflammation ; Deafness, Sore

e, writes : For troubled with no relief until was then not was then so ex-l not sleep at en on his regu-m if he could Thomas' Ec-She tried it. nent when in a allayed and the for burns and le. to take a blood blood is foul hen the system k Blood Bitters. and Druggist, es: "Northrop overy and Dys-gives the best es of the blood." ll diseases from a, Liver Com-lood, and will of health and rkness & Co.,

Rev. P. Lennon, by the pupils of St. Bas-il's, June 20th, 1884." Miss Cahill read well as their parents and friends. He ad-

It's, June 2010, 1834." Alls Canill read well as their parents and friends. The adtress, which was as follows: —
To Rev. P. Lennon, P. P. :
Rev. AND DEAR FATHER : — Would that, like the poet, we possessed the power of heir parts with such surprising perfection. like the poet, we possessed the power of He prised them, too, for their proficiency expressing our thoughts in words so new in music, and said it would tend to make and beautiful as to lead you to think you their hours bright and happy. He accept had never heard them before. Bat though our language lacks the elequence and floral offerings and affectionate addresses, beauty we desire, it is not waiting in that and finished by wishing them a delight-quality which we know you admire more than any other, namely, sincerity; and we now hasten to offer you our, perhaps childish, but nevertheless sincere and af-sensor of CONGRATULATION.

SEASON OF CONGRATULATION. The bishop then walked among the pupils and the ladies and gentlemen presfectionate congratulations on the return of the feast of the glorious patron St. Peter; for children though we are, we ent, saying a pleasant word to each.

cannot but appreciate the zeal with which you watch over our spiritual interests and the care with which you so kindly embrace every opportunity of inducing us to advance in our studies. In conclusion then, dear Father, we beg you will accept this slight token of the gratitude we feel, but cannot express, and we carnestly pray that you may be spared to us many, many years; and that as each succeeding year rolls by you may have the satisfaction of seeing that the lessons of piety you have taught us have not been lost. but that obving them we may have such a highly creditable manner, and who deserve special public mention.

CONVENT DE NOTRE DAME. A greeting was given to Bishop Cleary last evening in St. Joseph school room by of piety you have taught us have not been lost; but that obeying them we may be-come good and useful members of society, an ornament to the church, and a credit happiness we shall never cease to pray. Father Lennon in reply expressed his heartfelt thanks to the children, who, he said, had taken him completely by sur-prise. Whatever he had done he felt was far from meriting such a tangible proof of good will as the present beautiful address heads of the children, on the wall. were far from meriting such a tangible proof of good will as the present beautiful address and magnificent gift. He had received many marks of esteem from the good children of St. Basil's during the past two years, but the present one surpassed them all. He did not consider it so much ark of personal esteem as an evidence of their deep regard and veneration for the priestly character which he bore; and this ministers is the mark of good Catholics, and when this evidence of Christianity is found among them as children, they will certainly grow up to be useful members of such as the one which had been given and they then could not fail to express their admiration for the high musical and liter-ary attainments of the pupils. All those Miss Bowman, prize for improvement in 4th class German. Miss Bowman, prize for improvement in 4th class I class French, miss Bowman, prize for improvement in 4th class I class French, and in 1st class German. Miss Bowman, prize for improvement in 4th class I class French, and in 1st class German. Miss Bowman, prize for improvement in 4th class I class French, attainments of the pupils. All those

PROGRAMME IN FULL

Bouquets presented to his lordship and Rev. Father Kelly upon their entrance by Misses J. Haddigen and M. Waters.

Instrumental trio, three pianos-Misses A. Anderson, M. McDonald, K. Cunningham, K. Redmond, K. Campbell, E. Mc-Dermott, M. Flanagan, F. Cookston, M. Sullivan, M. A. Hogan, M. Hagarty and

A. Lambert. Oneretta to greet his lordship by twenty-eight pupils—The principal parts were taken by Misses K. Campbell, J. Innis, K. Kilcauley and M. Flanagau. Trio, "Taucredi,"—Solo by Miss M. Cambell Campbell.

Vocal music, "Hail Pastor, Hail"-Solos by Misses M. Dolon, N. Anderson, M. Flanagan, J. Cunningham and M. McDer mott

Address-Miss E. McDermott. Duet, "Nabucco"-Misses K. Campbell, E. McDermott, M. Flanzgan, M. Sullivan, M. A. Hogan and M. Hagarty. At the close of the meeting his lordship said that he had learned that the vacation did not begin until Tuesday, but he would grant that their holidays should commence at once. He wished them a happy time.

BET IT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT ! In the Diamond Dyes more coloring is given the parages of Cholera Intantum and than in any known Dyes, and they give faster and more brilliant colors. 10c. at all druggists. They are a great success. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. bott's guaranteed to give satisfaction,

The directors of Bourget College, Rigaud, P. Q., have made arrangements with a great many of the most popular nerchants of Montreal, with regard to the new course of studies which will be opened in Bourget College on the 3rd of September, 1884. The latter agree to make applications to the College whenever they will be in need of a good book keeper or a first class clerk ; the former warrant to furnish them with well edu-cated, skilfal and practical accountants. The method adopted for the college Bunk is that of the Montreal Bunk. Great improvements are now being made in the college for the convenience of the professors and students of the complete English Commercial Course. The dif-ferent telegraph offices of the college for the practical usage of the pupils, are now fitted out. The bank counter and the corresponding furniture of these classes are under construction in Mon-treal: they will be master pieces of arch-The method adopted for the college treal; they will be master pieces of arch-itecture. The college money, merchan-dise, notes, drafts, checks, receipts, etc., etc., are already printed and finished off according to the latest method. Applications for circulars of the Classical Course, French Course, and English Course are made by mail every day from all parts of the country. Several boys from the United States, Western and Eastern Ontario and from the Province Eastern Ontario and from the Province of Quebec have applied for their places in the college for the 3rd of September, date of the reopening of classes. A great number of pupils is expected for the three different courses.

the three different courses. THE ROCK ON WHICH MANY a constitu-tion goes to pieces is Dyspepsia. The loss of vigor which this disease involves, the maladies which accompany it, or which are aggravated by it, the mental despondency which it entails, are terribly exhausting of vital stamina. Its true specific is North-rop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which likewise overcomes bilious maladies, female ailments, and those coupled with impurity of the blood. Sold by Harkness & Co., Druggists, Dun-das Street. das Street. Great Fatality.

The ravages of Cholera Infantum and Summer Complaints among children is