

TREMADE 1790
647

(1)

JOURNAL,

AND

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY,

Of the Province of NOVA-SCOTIA.

Thursday February 25th, 1790.

THE House met agreeable to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's Proclamation. House Met:

The Speaker took the Chair,

Mr. Robert Mc Elbinny returned duly elected for the Township of Londonderry, took the usual Oaths and his Seat. Member for Londonderry, takes his seat.

A Message was received from His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor commanding the Attendance of the House in the Council Chamber. Message from His Excellency.

The Speaker and the House attended Accordingly,
And being returned,

The Speaker reported, that they attended upon His Excellency, and that he was pleased to open the Session with a SPEECH, a Copy of which he read and is as followeth,

GENTLEMEN of the Council and House of Assembly,

“ IT is with the utmost Satisfaction I can acquaint you, that those gloomy Apprehensions under which our Minds were so heavily oppres'd, during the last Session, on account of the Indisposition of our Most Gracious Sovereign, cannot now, any longer exist, as the perfect Re-establishment of His Majesty's Health, has entirely removed all such Dread and Fears; and restored to His Majesty's Subjects that abundant Happiness, of which they are so duly and justly sensible. His Excellency's Speech.

“ Your Exertions, Gentlemen, for promoting the Welfare of this Province, thro' the Means of Agriculture and Commerce, have
A given