

of the Province, which has enabled the Legislature to extend a Prudent Relief to Trade and Navigation, that will Naturally circulate its Benefits to the Encouragement of the Fisheries, with which it is Indispensibly connected; and which has also enabled you to Grant such great Aids to the Agriculture of the Country, and Comfort of the People, in affording them the Means of making Roads and Bridges through very many Parts of the Province, thereby distributing Money for all the Labour that can Possibly be Spared, to an extent, beyond our most sanguine Hopes, but a few Years since.

These bright Examples you will continue to Cultivate in your different Districts during the Recess; and I trust that whatever Measures may be found necessary, still further, to promote the Prosperity of the Province, will in due time be accomplished.
