Local and General
The appearance of the Baptist Church is being much improved by a coat of paint. The Ladies of All Saints' Church will hold their annual sale and tea in Andros Hall on Thursday, August 5. An advertisement appears in another column.

Social and Personal
Miss Sadie Whelpley, who has been visiting Mrs. F. P. McCall, has returned to her home in Eastport. Miss Alice Grimmer, who has been spending the winter in the West returned home, last week.

To Farmers
You would not think of letting productive land lie idle. Is your surplus money working for you? If not, we suggest that you open a savings account with us. Where but in a good sound Bank can your money—whether $10 or $10,000—be put to work earning interest—get at the same time, remain absolutely safe and immediately available?
