THE YANKEE AND THE LAWYER.

A native of the United States (says the Montreal Herald,) some time ago, having employed a lawyer in this city to do some business for him, was leaving his office without offering him a fee, when the lawyer observed :-

"My good sir, you should give me a fee ; you should act towards your lawyer as you do towards your horse-you should give him a feed at starting, if you wish him to perform his journey.

"Well squire," answered Jonathan, " always use my lawyer as I do my hogs ; when I want them to go to the other end of the yard, I put the feed there and they gallop to it."

The answer was so ready and so drolly expressed, that the lawyer galloped like the hogs to his feed, and was well fed by Dr. BARTHOLOMEW'S his client.
