boats, although I asked them especially for these latter, and pointed out to them that they were, and that they were of no earthly use to them. They ordered me back into my boat and then left us.

Captain Groom then described the attempt of the two boats to get into the track of steamers between Port Said, Alexandria and Malta.

SIX DAYS WET THROUGH
"With a heavy sea running," he said, "we were very soon all wet through, and remained so for the next six days. All the time we were in the boats, all the able-bodied men had to take turns at bailing. Two at a time, and was ankle deep with water in spite of the vigorous bailing with two buckets."

"The next day Captain Groom lost sight of the second boat, which was not seen again.
"By the night of the 7th everybody was chilled to the bone. With that cold northerly wind blowing right through our saturated clothes, we all used to look forward to day time coming in the hope of getting a little sun, but it was always nearly covered with clouds. Several of us had excruciating pains in our ankles, knees and wrists. A poor little Italian messenger boy was crying all one night with them, and, of course, I could do absolutely nothing for him. I had them badly myself. Early on the morning of the 8th the weather moderated somewhat, and I decided to get sail and make for the African coast."

LANDED ON THE 10th DAY.
On the 10th Captain Groom landed at a small bay with houses in the background. These afterwards are found to be uninhabited cave dwellings. The boat's crew slept that night on the sands, and on the morning of the 11th the captain and three men set out to try to find some human be-

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BRANTFORD METHODIST UNION HELD LAST NIGHT AT WESLEY CHURCH LARGELY ATTENDED

Reports Received Showing That Methodism Had Spent $100,000 in Brantford in the Last Six Years—Treasurer's Report Showed Balance on Hand—Officers Elected For the Ensuing Year.

The annual meeting of the Brantford Methodist Union was held last evening in Wesley church, and the attendance was exceptionally large. Mr. Fred Mann, the president, was in the chair. In giving the report of his stewardship, he went back and gave a summary of the work done by the organization since its inception in 1910. Since that time between $90,000 and $100,000 had been spent by the Wesley church either in starting new causes or enlarging present edifices and improvements. Of course, the union could not take credit for all of this, but the connexional spirit had been kept alive and the denomination could be truly called progressive. That time $2,000 had been given to assist Wesley church with their new building. Marlborough church had been started, and given a good boost and Elm Avenue had been pledged $5,000 to help it. A year ago assistance aid was pledged $400 a year for four years, this arrangement ended. There was no question but that a good work was being done, but it was felt that this could be greatly improved by being under the supervision of one denomination. The committee reported that in view of the great demands from foreign and home fields, and the considerable amount it would take to finance the proper handling of the Evangelical Union proposition, they could not recommend the taking over of the work by the Methodist church. They would still give assistance to the work as in the past, in case no other denomination would take over the work. Owing to the great shrinkage in the foreign population owing to the war, and the fact that the missionary had resigned, now was the proper time to re-organize the work among foreigners. Their appropriation this year would be less than $200. Mr. George Wedlake, owing to ill-health was greatly regretted.

PRESIDENT FRED MANN.

ing in 1916. It had more than merited its existence as an organization. He asked for continued support in getting up the ends and hoped that all promises would be met this year. Mr. J. W. Shepperson, who has been acting as treasurer, since the lamented death of Mr. N. W. Creech, gave the financial statement, which showed a balance on hand of $1,000. The work of the churches had been unable to meet their full promises to the union, but they had authorized the raising of the money by note and were paying the interest on the same. The principle would be paid when times became normal again. Wesley church had come in for commendation by about $60. A balance on the right side was reported by Mr. Shepperson.

The report of the Missionary Committee was given by Mrs. I. D. Scruton, who acted as secretary. They had looked after the Methodist interests in connection with the Evangelical Union, and to act in an advisory capacity to the General Board of Missions, who make an appropriation to this work. The report was an important one. During the year the executive of the Evangelical Union had requested the Methodist church to take over the work as a going organization. It was not being so financially by the various denomination. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Mr. Fred Mann, vice-president, Mr. J. W. Shepperson, secretary, Mr. A. E. Day; treasurer, Mr. W. L. Hughes; Missionary committee, Messrs. E. A. Hughes, I. D. Scruton, J. B. Dewiler, H. M. D. Isaac, Craddock, F. W. Thompson, G. Grummett, I. S. W. Thompson.

Women Taking Dockers' Places

Liverpool, March 30 (correspondence of the Associated Press)—Women are now being employed at the Liverpool docks, handling cotton imports and other bagged goods. At the Leyland line docks nearly 100 women are now working. Pears were entertained that the dockers' union would raise difficulties, but these have been smoothed over and the women are receiving the same rate of pay as the men.

Germans in Corfu.

Paris, March 28, 5:05 a.m. (delayed)—Discovery in an elaborate organization for providing information and supplies for submarines is reported in a Rome despatch to The Journal. About forty persons including the keeper of one of the principal hotels have been arrested and will be removed to France.

Pupils Give Him Spurs and Riding Crop—Pte. Walker Also Included.

Last Friday afternoon was a happy occasion for the pupils of Central School when they assembled in the kindergarten room and presented their 21st Battalion, with a pair of spurs and a riding crop. He was entirely surprised having been led to believe the occasion was to do honor to Mr. Walker, the janitor, also now of the 21st, who was given a wristlet and watch. Both Principal Joyce and Mr. Walker expressed their genuine appreciation, and before dismissing the pupils sang "God Save the King" and "God Save our Queen."

POLLY AND HER PALS.

The patrons of the Grand Opera House will have another treat in store for them, Tuesday, April 4, when the Polly and Her Pals will hold the boards. In point of plot interest and continuity, the vehicle is easily the best Mr. Hill has fostered in his long and successful career as a purveyor of wholesome amusement. The aim has been to provide entertainment on a scale calculated to appeal to the masses as well as the classes. Every well known cartoon character, such as Polly, Pa and Ma Perkins, Happy Hooligan, and the yellow kids will be seen. There are no lagging moments in the fun which accrues from the situations as well as the piece which has been pronounced one of the best of its kind, now catering to the approval of a critical and exacting theatre-going public. The cast is a large one numbering fifty people, and includes some of the best known musical comedy stars as Dan Gracey, Annie Hart, Chic Burnham, Dan Hughes, Sallie Stembler, Grace Ady, Polly Holmes, Eddie Stembler and the Washer Bros.

COLONIAL.

"The Outcast," a 3-act comedy-drama will be presented at the Colonial by the Princess Players tonight. This is an enjoyable play, containing a real heart story, with a strong vein of comedy to relieve the tense moments. Miss Kitty Kirk will play the "Outcast." Mr. Ormibee is the hero. The two funny characters, Joel and Josiah, will be in the hands of Mr. Neal and Mr. Higgins.

HOVERING ABOUT NAMIGUIPA

Villa Not as Far South as It Was Thought He Was.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

El Paso, March 30—Interest in the pursuit of Francisco Villa was revived to-day by reports that instead of being far to the south as was generally supposed, he was still hovering in the region around Namiquipa. The last word from the front was a statement by Colonel Dodd that four days previously Villa was reported in the Santa Maria Valley, moving towards Santa Caterina. No town of any available maps of Chihuahua, a follow the 12th. Lieut.-Col. Wellington Wallace of the 13th Infantry Brigade, and a veteran of the North-West Rebellion, is recommended as commanding officer.

different direction, dispensing the information that the chief fugitive is with it. In the absence of any definite information, there is little room left for anything except speculation, but Americans here who are not only acquainted with Mexico, but know Villa himself and his habits of mind, are unshaken in their conviction that he is in full flight to the southeast. They point out that the district around Paral is the logical place for him to make for, as he has thousands of sympathizers there and the constitutionalist government is almost without authority there except in the heavily garrisoned towns. The persistent calm of the government is almost without authority there except in the heavily garrisoned towns.
