German Raider

Boston, Jan. 16.—A British cruiser stopped the Steamer Esparta while she was passing Cape Hatteras from Port Limon a few days ago and asked for information concerning the presence of a Common concerning the presence of a German commercial raider on this side of the Atlantic, Captain McKay of the Esparta re-ported on arrival here today. Cap-tain McKay said he told the cruiser's commander that he had not seen the raider or heard of her presence and that he resumed his voyage after taking aboard three sacks of mail from the man of war.
