UNABLE TO STEM ITALIAN ON RUSH OVER BILLION AND HALF ON U.S. WAR LOAN

Whole Of The Bainsizza Plateau Wrested From The Austrians
FOE TASK THANKLESS
Reinforcements Now Being Hurried Up Cannot Save Situation
BREACH WAS MADE
Manoeuvre Which Resulted In Destruction Of The Teuton Line

London, Aug. 30.—The Times prints a despatch from its correspondent in Italian headquarters which bears date of August 27. "The battle on the uplands of Bainsizza," says the correspondent, "continues altogether in favor of our allies. The enemy is hurrying up reinforcements and making a gallant effort to stem the advancing onrush of the Italians, but he has a thankless task in front of him, for he is fighting against a virtually the whole of the Bainsizza plateau is now in Italian hands. To the south the occupation of Koblitz and Madoni gives us possession of the southern outlet of the Chiappovano valley.

"I was beyond the Vodice ridge this morning and had a magnificent view of the Gargaro valley and the backs of Monte Santo, San Gabriele and San Daniele, which we looked at so long from the west. Only the necessity of returning in time to telegraph prevented me from making a much longer journey. The Vodice ridge and the saddle to the east are torn and blasted by thousands of shells. Here is still all the ghastly litter of war—broken trench wire, rifles, cartridges, helmets, and all the refuse of battle, cumber the tortured ground. As you go on, the battlefield changes its aspect. The ridge has clearly become a battle. The movement of the Italians' advance from the north had turned the Austrians out of their trenches and caverns more effectively than the smashing blows of the heavy guns.

Enemy Dead Lay Thick
"Just below where I stood, on the Slatka road, the enemy dead lay very thick. They had been caught in the shell-fire as they retreated or perhaps they were reserves coming up in the open to try to save the day. I had already been lost. I met a wounded Italian hobbling up the road, smiling all over. He was wounded yesterday, and he did not know where he was.

"We have advanced far, far, signor," he said, "but we could have gone further still if we had had more artillery."

OVER BILLION AND HALF ON U.S. WAR LOAN

Final Installment of $400,000,000 Paid Into Treasury Yesterday

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, Aug. 30.—Nearly $400,000,000 was paid into the treasury in the final installment of the liberty loan. Approximately $1,615,000,000 already has been paid representing principal and interest on the liberty bonds.

To-day's payments completes the financial transaction with the issues of the bonds and it is thought likely that the bonds themselves will be ready for distribution within a short time.

Now that the first loan has been fully disposed of, it is likely that an announcement concerning the second issue of bonds will be made shortly by Secretary McAdoo.
