

Local and General

Hon. F. W. G. Haultain was down the Soo line on Saturday.

For Sale.—100 oak barrels, at 80 cents each, apply, F. M. Crapper.

The formal opening of the Y.M.C.A. will take place on July 28th.

Born.—At Regina on Monday, July 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. A. Hill, a daughter.

Hugh McCullough, of the Bank of Montreal staff at Brandon, is visiting in the city.

Russell Taber of Condie, has a large number of his stock on exhibition at Winnipeg.

H. C. Lawson, publicity commissioner, has returned from attending the Dominion exhibition at Calgary.

The death took place last Thursday of the young son of H. Edmonds. Interment took place to the Balmont cemetery on Friday.

A.M. Hales of Toronto, delivered an address in the Baptist church last evening on the liquor traffic from the business man's point of view.

D. Brown, sergeant-at-arms of the Saskatchewan assembly, is spending his holidays at Banff taking the baths and climbing the mountains.

Ernest Von Ferber has taken possession of the Waverley Hotel again, and will open it to the public as soon as the damages caused by the fire have been repaired.

Two engines collided in the C.P.R. yards here last Friday night. Engineer Alexander of one of the engines sprained his ankle in jumping from his engine. Otherwise no one was hurt.

If Scott and Calder went to Ottawa, as announced, to press Saskatchewan's claims for a boundary on Hudson's Bay, they did not meet with success. The resolution introduced in parliament on Monday does not take our province into consideration at all.

The following are the members of the R.N.W.M.P. who will take part in the military display at the Brandon exhibition under the command of Insp. Church: Sergeants, Dan, Corp. O'Connell, Consts., Watson, Mason, Quayle, Hobson, Morse, Frazer, Boast, Bass, Millar, McGregory, Quinsey, Casey, Gregory, and Haines.

The death occurred at Penrith on Saturday morning last of Wm. McKillop, one of the best known old timers. Mr. McKillop settled in the district in 1833, and has made a reputation as a farmer and stock breeder. A wife, two sons and two daughters are left. Deceased was in his 71st year. The funeral was held on Monday to Longlaketon cemetery.

The large barn of Mr. Malcolm Ross, a farmer living a short distance east of Regina, was burned last Saturday afternoon. The cause of the fire is unknown. There were four horses and a quantity of grain in the building at the time. Mr. Ross only succeeded in getting one horse out, and in his efforts to do so was badly burned and is now in the Victoria hospital undergoing treatment. The loss to Mr. Ross is very heavy. The only insurance carried was $400 on the building and $100 on the contents.

In consequence of a waitress having some money stolen from her room on Thursday last, the city police arrested W. J. Osborne on suspicion. He was up before the magistrate on Friday, but was remanded until Saturday. At the trial on Saturday he was discharged after a good deal of evidence had been taken. The accused was represented by J. F. L. Embury. From information since given out it would seem that Osborne was doing some private detective work, the parties whom he was watching being C.P.R. employees.

A remarkable handsome silver cup has been presented to the Agricultural association, to be competed for at the provincial exhibition, and can be seen in the rotunda of the King's Hotel; it is given by the King's Hotel Co. for three of the get of any Shorthorn bull, to be won three times by the same breeder, and no doubt will give rise to keen competition among the Shorthorn breeders. Mr. Haslam is to be commended for his liberality in thus showing his interest in the provincial fair, which gives every indication of being a most successful exhibition.

The Regina Herald speaks in high terms of the management of the Dominion fair just concluded and says: "The chief credit for this remarkable organization belongs to E. L. Richardson, general manager of the exhibition who, by his handling of it, has made a reputation for himself. For months he worked unremittingly to ensure the success which has now crowned his efforts. With unflinching courtesy and consideration he has met the demands upon his patience inseparable from his task, and has with equity and good judgment decided the many problems that came up. No fair in the Herald's experience ever opened with so little friction or closed with such unanimous expression of praise. To Mr. Richardson's efforts this city owes a great deal. He has today the satisfaction of knowing that he has done a big thing well." Regina friends of Mr. Richardson will be pleased to hear of his success.

Police Magistrate Trant is at Banff taking treatment.

Judge Rimmer is at present on a visit to the old country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cross have returned from a holiday trip to Banff.

Mrs. L. H. Bennett and son have returned from visiting relatives in Ontario.

It is probable that an army medical corps will be established in Regina shortly.

Born.—At Lumsden, on Wednesday, July 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Watkins, a daughter.

Mr. Hanbury of Brandon, has taken a position in the office of the secretary of the Exhibition.

Mrs. W. M. Martin, accompanied by her young son and sister left this week for Ontario on a visit.

The Knights of Columbus have secured rooms for a club in the building over England's jewelry store.

Action is being taken to test the legality of drawing contests which Saskatoon merchants have been advertising.

Thos. Murray has bought the fruit and confectionery business of Gavin & Boyle on Scarth St., just south of the Jones Shoe Co.

A. Dredge Jones has returned from Calgary where he attended a convention of the A. O. F. While out west Mr. Jones visited Banff.

Dr. Mitchell of Weyburn has been selected by the Liberals to contest that constituency in the provincial elections against Geo. Beischel.

W. A. Wilson, superintendent of dairying for the province is attending the Brandon exhibition where he will act as judge for the dairy exhibits.

The members of the 95th regiment who left Toronto to take part in the tercentenary celebration were: Sergt. Sneath, Privates Norris and Hudson of "C" company, and Sergt. Biggar, Sergt. Smith, Privates Johnson and Smith of "D" company.

Jas. E. Price, of Tracksell, Price, Anderson & Co., who was injured in the railway wreck at Tottenham has returned from the east. He is improving nicely from his injuries and speaks very highly of the treatment accorded the injured by the railway company.

The horse driven by A. C. Knight and Robt. Morrison last Monday as they were driving from the exhibition grounds, shied at a shunting engine at the Hamilton street crossing, and ran the buggy against a load of coal. Both gentlemen were thrown out and badly injured.

The squabble between the local architects and the city over the plans for the municipal hospital has been amicably settled and it is probable that another competition will be opened. Mr. Sharon, who put in plans last time will not enter the competition this time as he is still in the government service.

A freight train loaded with cattle was wrecked a short distance this side of Indian Head last Saturday. The train consisted of 11 cars of cattle and 8 cars of other freight. A large number of cattle were killed. The train crew were badly shaken up but not seriously injured. The rails spreading is supposed to have caused the wreck.

The R.N.W.M.P. who go to Quebec to act as a body guard, for his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, left the city early on Monday morning. They had some difficulty in loading their horses, the animals getting scared while being entrained and stampeded going as far as their stables at the barracks. One animal got badly cut in a fence near government house and may have to be shot.

The Supreme Court en banc had before them last week the stated case of King vs. Barrett. Judge Johnstone and a jury had found Barrett guilty of murdering his stepson last winter. Jas. McMay, K.C., the counsel for the accused brought the case on the grounds that the jury had been improperly charged by the judge. The court en banc, however, upheld the action of the trial judge, and a new trial will not be granted. Barrett who was sentenced to hang on July 17 has been reprieved until August 18th.

The Calgary Herald speaks in high terms of the management of the Dominion fair just concluded and says: "The chief credit for this remarkable organization belongs to E. L.
