ONLY ONE ATHENS

There is only one Athens for me, With the maple, our emblem so dear, The very best high school in all of the land With pupils from far and from near.

Our merchants, doctors and lawyers Have high marks of merit we agree, Many were pupils in our own high school There is only one Athens for me.

Athens has many fine churches, Their tall gleaming spires we can see, Do they do all the good they advertise?— There is only one Athens for me.

We have a painstaking editor too, His paper so clean we see, Pay up your subscriptions and help him along— There is only one Athens for me.

The streets are kept tidy and clean, The shops are all up-to-date, And if you are the least bit hungry, You can get a good meal while you wait.

The farmer drives in from the country, Has an extra big load on we see, Goes home with a wad in his pocket— There is only one Athens for me.

The hotel is run on straight lines, Everything's spelled with a G, The curses kicked out, the bar door locked up— There is only one Athens for me.

Her old boys are scattered afar, Many come back here we see, There's no place like Home Sweet Home— There is only one Athens for me. —A.M.M.

HONORED THEIR TEACHER

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the Elويد School house on Friday last when the pupils, under the guidance of their teacher, Miss B. G. Leverette, gave their annual Christmas concert. A good program carefully prepared was given, after which Santa Claus with jingling bells and loaded with presents for the children, entered the door and distributed candies and nuts with lavish hands. The parents of the children turned out in large numbers. Before parting with their teacher she was presented with the following address by parents and pupils, accompanied by a beautiful leather portfolio:—

Elويد, Dec. 19, 1913

Dear Miss Leverette:— We, the parents and pupils of Elويد School section desire to express to you our deep appreciation of your faithful and efficient services. Your untiring efforts for, and zealous interest in the welfare of each and all, have won our highest esteem.

With all good wishes for you at this festive season we beg you to accept this slight token of our sincere regard. Signed on behalf of the school.

The annual select assembly under the auspices of six experienced young gentlemen from the country was held in the town hall on the evening of Dec. 26th. The roads being in good condition brought those from a distance as well as those near by. Thanks to the weather men. Dancing began at nine p. m., excellent music being furnished by the Mallorytown orchestra, and continued until about four a. m. Shortly after midnight, refreshments were served, which were provided by a number of ladies, and all did ample justice to the countless supply of good things. LIVE 100 YEARS

The famous British physician, Sir James Sawyer, believes it is by no means a difficult matter for any human being to live to be 100 years old. He has recently declared that anybody can attain this age, unless killed by accident, if he or she will religiously observe the following eighteen "commandments of health":

1. Eight hours' sleep every night.
2. Sleep on your right side.
3. Keep your bedroom window open.
4. Have a mat at your bedroom door.
5. Keep your bed away from the wall.
6. No cold bath in the morning, but a bath at a temperature of the body.
7. Exercise before breakfast.
8. Eat little meat, and be sure that it is well cooked.
9. Drink no milk—this applies to adults only.
10. Eat plenty of fat to feed the cells which destroys the disease germs.
11. Avoid intoxicants, which destroy the cells that combat disease.
12. Allow no animals in your living rooms, for they carry disease germs.
13. Live in the country if you can.
14. Watch the three D's—drinking water, damp and drains.
15. Have change of occupation.
16. Take frequent and short holidays.
17. Limit your ambitions.
18. Keep your temper.

WILLOWS—HALLADAY

It was a very pleasant event which took place at high noon on the 17th inst., at the home of Mr Edgar Halladay, Elgin, when his daughter, Miss Lillian Estella, was united in marriage to Mr Roy Willows, of Philippsville. The bride and groom were unattended. While standing under a beautiful arch of evergreens the ceremony was performed by the Rev Mr McFarlane. The bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, the bride being given away by her father. After the ceremony congratulations were offered by the guests while Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Frank Willows, brother of the groom. The guests then went to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Brockville, thence to Edmonton, Alta., where they expect to spend a few weeks with friends.
