TYPHOID CARRIED IN MILK. Increase in the Disease Led Dr. Sheard to Investigate.

Nov. 25.-Twenty-two cases of typhoid have been reported to the Medical Health Officer this month. That is more than during any November for six years. To get a reason for the increase Dr. Sheard made an investigation. He found the city water all right, then started in on the milk supply, and soon found what he believes to be the cause. The infection, he thinks, comes from a wholesale milkman who uses an infested well.

Controller Graham has found an unhousing for the very poor, and yesterday made the announcement that private citizens had taken the matter up that a board of directors had been organized, and, without any assistance from Council, the first new building would be ready for occupation in the spring. The plan is to make the scheme not a money-maker, but a self-supporting philanthrepy. The Alderman said it had not yet been decided whether to build the new houses

FOOTBALL

VICTORY FOR DARRELL. er cup this year. This is the story briefly told of the football game played on Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. Darrell won the game by score of 2-1, making them leaders of this district of the Peninsular League series, and it now rests with Darrell and Windsor as to who will land the trophy. The game was truly Darrell's from the start, but it is only fair to say that the Chatham boys labored under y difficulties. Both Parrott, the half back line, and Grant from the forward line, were absent, and this left the team in a very weakened condition. Darrell played the same men who played on Saturday. This last named game was, itself very closely contested and when the Chatham team was thus weakened the odds were in favor of the other team, who took good advantage of it. Anderson was forced into the game again and appeared in his old position on the outside right. Sissons was brought up to half back line and Courtney played again at back. Brackin was removed from the outside right to centre. These were the changes on the Chatham team. The game started off with a rush on Chatham and the ball had not been in play many minutes before Darrell scored the first goal from a corner kick. This gave them unbounded encouragement and served to make the Chatham players work all the harder. The first goal was soon followed by another, and then the excitement of the Darrell crowd knew no bounds. When the whistle blew for half time the score was 2-0 for Darrell, with the playing easily in their favor. The ball during this half had remained for the most part around the Chatham goal. There were, however, occasional clever rushes made by the Chatham forwards, Messer and Kellington showing up splendidly, but the Darrell defense was perfect, and what shots were made unfortunately went wild or were stepped before they scored.

The Chatham team seemed to brace up considerably during the second half, but it was too late. The ball had not been in play many minutes. before it found its way down to the Darrell goal and it remained there almost continuously during the re-mainder of the game. Sissons made a beautiful drop through a corner kick and from it Chatham scored their only goal. Several scrimmages were also made around the visitor's goal, but nothing came of them. Fisher made one beautiful drop from he centre of the field in this half. dropped fairly in the mouth of team will be chosen from the follow ing players: Meinke, Kidd, Thorbin, Williams, Gail, Carmichael, Lyons, Oraig, McBeth, McAlpin, Brady and Edmunds, and, while not having had the benefit of playing as one team, are sufficiently expert in their several positions to give a good account of themselves. CHEERFUL SPEECHES BY LORD DUDLEY AND MR. REDMOND.

The Irish Leader's Optimistic View of the Present Situation-The Loadon Daily News' Comment.

London, Nov. 25 .- Speeches which were delivered yesterday by the Earl of Dudley, the new Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, and by Mr. John Redmond, the Irish leader, have aroused much comment, as striking a more hopeful note of conciliation in the Irish question. The Earl of Dudley, accompanied by the Countess, was making an official visit to Belfast, and is reply to the speeches delivered at his reception he declared that he had come to ireland with the same spirit of impartial inquiry that ani-Africa. The Irish Viceroy, proceeding then to deal with the land question as hovering dangerously around the the crux of the Irish problem, sagg sted Darrell godf, and if the time had been that a sort of round table conference extended many minutes longer there of representatives of the landlords, tenants and others interested in Ireland should be held to endeavor to arrive at a mutual understanding, and possibly some scheme for the good of Ireland and the increased happiness of her people.

Whilst Lord Dudley was speaking at Belfast, Mr. John Redmond was making an equally conclinatory speech at a de-monstration of the London branches of the Irish League at the suburb of Bermondsey. He was intensely gratified, he said, to find on returning from the Unit-ed States that the political situation in Ireland was more hopeful than he had known it for 25 years. While all rumors of Irish "deals" with the Government were untrue, the political situation in Ireland has undergone an extraordinary and radical change, and he believed that no English Minister since the union had had such a chance as the Irish Secretary, Mr. George Wyndham, now had. The time had arrived, as it did in every struggle, when the combatants were grown tired of the contest and were taking counsel as to whether it could not brought to a satisfactory end. For the first time in Irish history the ma-jority of landlords were speaking words of good sense, conciliation and reason. The tenants were united and moderate, and a quite limited use of the Imperial credit would enable a settlement of the land question to be brought about. At the same time, concluded Mr. Redmond, this would not affect the aspirations of the Irish people for home rule, and he warned the Government that if the last session's land bill were reintroduced the Irish members would "fight it line by

The London Daily News, in connection with the speech made by the Earl of Dudley yesterday, publishes a report that the Government intends to with the relations of Dublin Castle to the Irish administration, and that it is considering a project which is not dis-similar to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's original plan of national Councils.

Badly Injured by a Cow-Southwestern Traction Construction.

London, Ont., Nov. 25 .- A young man named Hyslop, in the employ of Mr. Frank P. Chatler, butcher, was endeavoring to lasso a cow, when the animal turned on him, attacking him first with her feet and then with her horns. Hyslop's shouts brought speedy help, but not before he had been badly hurt about the head and body, getting two nasty wounds on the face. He had a close call for his life.

The Southwestern Traction Co. began spiking and bolting their rails.
The work was commenced at the city limits. The rails and ties are now delivered as far as Lambeth.
