will prove to any woman that there is no better shoe for feminine wear than the King quality at $3. She doesn't need to be a judge to see that. Did you ever know that uncomfortable shoes

THE MARKETS

CHATHAM GRAIN MARKET:
Planet Office, Wednesday evening, April 4.

J. B. Stringer & Co. give the following grain gossip:
Wheat—The market was a cent higher in the west to-day. There are no receipts, but as a result of the stronger market in the west, there is a firmer feeling here. The farmers are holding quite a large quantity throughout the country.

Oats—There is a good strong demand from Ontario dealers. The export prices are about a cent higher.
Home consumption provides for all offering. The outfranchise rate to the coast went up two cents. April 2nd.
Although the freight rate is still very low, dealers are unable to export owing to the lack of space on the ocean liners and consequently high rates.
Probably with the opening of navigation on the St. Lawrence and lower ocean freight rates, the price of oats may advance. The '99 crop is about all out of the farmers' hands, and dealers have very small quantities. Mixed wheat is quoted by an Indiana firm to local dealers at 55¢ a bushel.
Nearly all accepted one or two cars, but they received word that the quantity should have been 400,000. The market in Chicago strengthened today also.

jobbers very light.

TORONTO GRAIN.

to local elections. Cables were firm, and the tone here was good. Quotations are as follows:—Ontario, red cent. Car loads 60¢, north and west, ferings are very light.

53¢ east.

only fair, and the market is about steady. Local demand good. Jobbing lots, new laid, 13 to 14¢.

Butter—Market firmer. Deliveries of choice butter rather light. Local demand good. Local quotations to the trade—cream, poor to me-job at 40 to 70¢; geese at 7 to 8¢; ducks at 8 to 75¢ per pair, and turkeys at 12 to 15¢ per lb.

Potatoes—Free deliveries and a slow local demand keep prices down. Car lots are sold on track here at 15¢ to 40¢ per bag, and at farmers' wagons about 50¢ per bag. Out of store, choice stock brings 45 to 50¢ per bag.

Dried apples—Quiet market. Dealers pay 5-1-2¢ for dried stock, delivered here, and in small lots resell at 6¢; evaporated 7 to 7-1-2¢, in small side holders are asking from 16-1-2 to 18¢.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.
Toronto, April 4.—At the Western cattle yards yesterday the receipts were 81 loads, comprising 2,000 hogs, between eleven and twelve hundred cattle, 225 sheep and lambs, and a light run of milkers and calves.

The market for cattle was unusually bad, the demand was poor, quality indifferent, and prices weaker.

Little was done in export cattle, and prices are nominally from $1.25 to $1.75 per cwt., with ten or fifteen cents more, perhaps, for selections.

For the best butcher cattle prices were maintained at from $3.75 to $4.25 per cwt., but secondary and common stuff was a slow sale at figures which were at least 25¢ per cwt. lower.

A good proportion of the cattle was left over.

Scarcely any of the cattle sales were of any fair representative value, and were not worth quoting.

Export, and light bulls, stockers, feeders, and milk cows are all unchanged.

For sheep there was a rather better enquiry at from 3 to 3-3-4¢ per pound.

Lambs are steady and unchanged at from 4-1-2 to 5-1-2¢ per lb.

Good veal calves will sell.
Some good Easter cattle was at the market, but it was all held over.

Hogs again advanced 1-4, and are firm at the increase.

For prime hogs, the top price is 61-2¢; high and heavy hogs are bringing up to 5-3-4¢ per lb.

EAST BUFFALO LIVE STOCK.
East Buffalo, April 4.—Cattle—Feeling was quiet.

Calves—Were in fair demand, and a shade higher than on Monday.

Sheep and lambs—Choice to extra, $4.65 to $4.75.

Good to choice, $7 to $7.65.

Sheep, choice to extra, $6 to $6.50.

Hogs—Demand was fairly active and prices ruled stronger toward the close.

Heavy, $6.50.
Mixed, $5.50 to $5.50.
Heavy Yorkers, $5.35 to $5.40.
Light Yorkers, $5.25 to $5.30.
Pigs, $4.90 to $5.
Roughs, $4.75 to $5.
Stags, $3.75 to $4.

In the Elevator.
B—Excuse me, sir, but that open window is very annoying.
C (pleasantly)—I'm sorry, but I'm afraid you'll have to put up with it.
B—I wish you would close it, sir.
C—I should like to accommodate you, but I can't.

B—Do you refuse to close that window, sir?
C—Certainly do.
B—If you don't close it I will.
C—You won't.
B—If I come over there I will.
C—I'll give you odds you won't.
B—I'll ask you once more, sir; will you close that window?
C—No, sir, I will not.
B (getting on his feet)—Then I will,
sir.

C—I would like to see you do it.
B (plunging his hands on the window) —I'll show you whether I will or not,
sir.
C (as B tugs at window)—Why don't you close it?
B (getting red in the face)—It appears to be stuck.
C—Of course it is. I tried to close it before you came in.—Illustrated American.

Beauties of "Blue Rooms." There is no color so valuable in decoration as blue, nor one from which so many schemes may be evolved.
For a sunny room blue may be used entirely, as far as wallpaper, carpets or draperies are concerned, or blue and green.

A blue and green room looks best with green stained furniture, and is more appropriate for a library or bedroom, but as this furniture is found sometimes in dining-rooms and halls it may be used there also. For a hall blue, "Delamere" paper lends itself well to a blue and green scheme, and the green must be carefully chosen, as far as colors are concerned.

An artistic though inexpensive dining-room for a small house can be well carried out in blue and green. As there will be but little space the walls may be painted in pale blue, and the woodwork should be in a deeper shade.
A square of blue carpet should cover the floor, and the window curtains should be of a bright shade of green.
A nice suit of green-stained and rushseated furniture, consisting of sideboard, table, two armchairs and four small chairs can be bought at a moderate price, and these with some blue and white ornaments will look effective.

A Perfect Balance

Of mind and body was the Roman idea of perfect health. They defined this balance as "a sound mind in a sound body." A weak mind in a sound body tends to drag down the mind to its own level. Keep the body in health and the mind will take care of itself. The health of the body depends mainly on two things: A sound stomach and pure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery preserves the balance of health, because it makes the stomach strong and the blood pure. People who had not had a pure, healthy body, nervous of body, depressed of mind, have been perfectly cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"During the summer and fall of 1891 I became all run down," writes Charles H.
Sergeant, Esq., of Plain City, Madison Co., Ohio, "nerves were out of order and sleeping was out of order. I wrote to Doctor Pierce for advice. He said I had general debility and advised me to use his Golden Medical Discovery. I used six bottles, and blood started taking it, about one year ago, I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have been able to work every day since. I am in good health. I do not feel that burning in the stomach after eating, and my blood and nerves are in good shape."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only.

Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Why Fur Rugs are Expensive.
Fur rugs are expensive luxuries, and this is the reason when they find the greatest sale. The orders for perfect lion skins are sometimes very hard to fill, but the very highest of prices are paid for these rugs with the beautiful heads attached. An order for a fine Lichtenstein Harlequin, or African deer head, may take a year to fill.
Special prices are charged on such an order, as the remainder of the animal is rendered useless even for museum collections, and $250 to $500 is not an unusual price.

Rug skins without the heads do not bring one-quarter the price of those with the heads attached. The most perfect lion skin, having a rich color, handsome mane, all the claws, mounted on the full whiskered head attached, bring as high as $3,000, and no fine ones are to be had for less than $1,000. Nearly all of them have some imperfections, because the superstitious natives usually cut off the heads, ears, the whiskers, ears, and sometimes the claws, before they sell them to traders, having a superstition that if these go out of the country in which they live the entire species will become extinct.
