He Was Told to Write His Name With Hi Left Hand and He Did So.

"Bank cierks are so often called upon for directions that they sometimes fall into the habit of giving them in a hurried and mechanical manner, consequently they are frequently mis understood," remarked the clerk of a savings institution in New York to a reporter the other day. "For instance, the usual formmula when a stranger is called upon to sign his name is 'Sign here-pen and ink at your left hand.' One morning last week a stranger entered our bank and asked me for a certificate of deposit for a considerable sum of money, which he handed over. I counted the money and found the amount to be as stated, and hurriedly said: 'Sign there,pen and ink at your left hand."

"Well, it took the stranger a long time to sign his name, but I thought nothing more of it, and issued the ceritficate of deposit. About a week later the same man, whose face I had forgotten, reappeared and presented the certificate. He dashed off an ornate signature, which I proceeded to compare with the first signature. The two were vastly different, as the first one was apparently the labored effort of an old man. "'I can't pay you this money, sir," !

gaid. "Why not?" asked the astonished

"Because it is not the signature of the man to whom I issued the certificate of deposit,' I replied. "'Well,' said the stranger 'when ! was here a week ago you told me to write my name with my left hand, and I did so, but I can't write very well that way.' Then will you oblige me by writing your name with your left hand again?' I asked, as a light dawned upon me. "'Certainly,' said the man, and after much labor he produced a facsimile of his first signature, and I apolgized and paid him his money."

He is Rich Because He Lost a Dog. "Hello!" exclaimed the advertisment clerk as he read the ten scrawle on the yellow slip. "Lost another dog?"

"Sure!" responded the little man a the counter, "and if things continue I may keep on losing them.'

The clerk was interested. "What's the game?" "Easier than falling off a log and richer than Cape Nome. You remonber I came down last Tuesday with an 'ad' that informed the public that I had lost a dog. I didn't mention the pedigree of the missing canine but merely stated that a suitable reward would be paid for the return. Well, the 'ad' appeared in the after noon and the dogs appeared in the morning. Yes, sir, they appeared. I had to get a dog medicine almanac to distinguish the breeds. There were towering mastiffs, ugly bulls, French poodles and scores of others. Every a kid would say, "Is this your dog, mister?" 'Sure!' I'd say, "just hand him in and here's a dime for your trouble.' If the kid raised a rumpus I just threatened to have him pinched If they brought a yellow cur around I'd just tell them the nearest route to the dog pound. Say, I must go down and see about that carload of pugs I'm shipping East." "Carload?" "Sure! Why, man, you don't derstand this business. It beats the endless chain all hollow. So-"What's the matter with your

How He Distinguished the Hat.

A professor went into a crowded restaurant in New York for luncheon one hot day. The negro in charge of the big corridor where the hat shelves stood was an intelligent looking fellow, and his bow and smile were not of the obsequious, stupid kind so often affected by colored waiters and doormen in hotels. He took the professor's hat and gave no check for it

An hour later, when the professor came out of the dining room, the negro glanced at him in a comprehensive way turned to the shelves and handed him his hat. The professor is a man who prides himself on his powers of observation, and the negro's ability to remember to whom each article of clothing belonged struck him as being very wonderful.

"How did you know this hat?" he asked. 'I didn't know it, sah" was the re-oly.

"Then why did you give it to me?" the professor persisted. "Because you gave it to me, sah."

WONDERS OF

THE NERVES.

Unmistakable Proof That Many Serious Ills Begin With Derangement of the Nervous System -The Astonishing

Success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It is only in recent years that physicians have come to understand the nervous system, and to recognize that many diseases which affect the head, heart, lungs, stomach and other organs are due to an impoverished and exhausted condition of the nerves. Over-work, worry, care, anxiety and severe mental strain are sure to be followed by headache, neuralgia, dizziness, sleeplessness, heart-trouble, indigestion, and serious functional disorders. Gradually the symptoms grow worse; pains and aches increase, and one organ after another gives evidence of derangement, until finally there comes collapse of the nerves and prostration or paralysis.

The family physician seldom gets at the cause of these allments. He gives a powder for headache, some form of opium to cause sleep, or a stimulant to whip up the debilitated system. Such treatment is only of temporary benefit, and the trouble soon returns in an aggravated form. The tired brain, the worn-out nerves, the wasted strength must be nourished and built up before nature can have power to drive out disease. No prescription was ever filled that can do this so thoroughly as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Mrs. D. W. Cronsberry, 168 Richmong street' west, Toronto, Ont.,

"My daughter, who sews in a white goods manufactory, got completely run down by the steady confinement and close attention required at her work. Her nerves were so exhausted, and she was so weak and debilitated that she had to give up work entirely, and was almost a victim of nervous prostration.

"Hearing of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, she began to use it, and was benefitted from the very first. It proved an excellent remedy in restoring her to health and strength. After having used four boxes she is now at work again, healthy and happy, and attributes her recovery to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

It is only a few years since Dr. Chase's Nerve Food first became known in Canada, and now it is universally acknowledged by doctors, as well as others, to be of unsurpassed value as a thorough restorative for weakened and run-down systems and nerve-shattered bodies. It is possible that you have erred, as have others, and used a wrong treatment. If you would be healthy and strong se Dr. Chase's Nerve Food regularly and persistently, and it will make you 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Tor-

Act foolishly. If they improve ever so little when the fine weather comes, they relax effort and drift back inthe old condition which, if possible becomes more chronic. Hit Bronchitis hard in the summer and you'll get rid of it and drive it out of the system. In winter it is almost ossible to do this. Inhale Catarrhozone regularly. It's a dead sure thing on Bronchitis. It goes into the most minute air cells of the lungs, bathes all parts of the bronchial tubes with its healing, germ-destroying vapor, and cures every time. Tried Dr. Pitcher As a Last Resort.

A Toronto Lady's Experience With This Famous Specialist's Back-ache Kidney Tablets.

For many years in the hospitals of Detroit and as professor of Genito-Urin-ary Diseases in Michigan College of Medicine of that city, Dr. Zina Putcher gave careful thought and consideration to diseases of the kidneys, bladder, and

So profoundedly impressed was he with the fact that many thousands of people suffer from some form of kidney derange nent, who were unable to avail the selves of the services of a specialist, that he decided to give to humanity at large his famous prescription for Kidney Dis-eases, under the name of Dr. Pritcher's

Backache Kidney Tablets.

It is of these tablets that Mrs. May Goddard, 332 Adelaide street west, Toronto, speaks in the following terms:—
"After enjoying the most perfect health for many years it was a sore trial for me to realize that my health was failing. I had, in the first place, acute pains in the small of my back, and was losing flesh rapidly. Then other complications arose, which so weakened me that it was only with e greatest amount of determination that sould attend to my work. I tried a sumber of remedies and consulted several physicians without obtaining more than physicians without the physicians without the property relief, and as a last resort I thought I would try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Their beneficial action was almost instantaneous, and the results highly gratifying. The pain in my back disappeared in a short time, and my general health improved greatly, I am now, feeling fine, and am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of so valuable a remedy.
