A Woman Made Happy.

I could scarcely get about the house to attend to my work and felt miserable nearly all the time," writes Mrs. Alex. Buchanan, Island Brook, Que., "after using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food my appetite wonderfully improved. There is no further trouble from dizzy spells and stomach weakness, and with health and strength restored, life has a new pleasure for me."

When Mark Twain was a boy at school in Hannibal, the school-master once set the class to writing a composition on "The Result of Laziness." Young Clemens, at the end of an hour handed in as his composition a blank slate.

See that you get the real thing. Unscrupulous makers are putting up a counterfeit of "The D. & F. Menthol Plaster." The genuine is made by DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO.

'Say,' began Citman, 'you were saying the other day that you needed a reliable alarm clock. Get one like mine, it's sure—'

'Don't need it now,' interrupted Suburbs; 'my next door neighbor has just got a Shanghai rooster.'

Little Eleanore, who was very fond of chickens, stood crying over a dead rooster. Thinking that something good ought to be said, she remarked between her sobs:

'He was always so glad when one of the hens laid an egg.—The Delineator.

Eczema Not a Blood Disease.

Eczema is a disease of the skin and not of the blood. For this reason internal medicines have never been successful in curing Eczema. Whatever the cause local application is necessary to heal the sores and restore the skin to a healthy, natural condition. For this reason Dr. Chase's Ointment has a world wide reputation as being without a rival a cure for Eczema.

'There's Williams! Let us turn back. I've no desire to meet that fellow again! Last week I asked him to lend me five pounds.'

'Well, he certainly might have done so, he has plenty of money.'

'Yes, I know—and he did lend me the five!'

'Don't you feel as if you would like to leave footprints on the sands of time?'

'No,' answered Mr. Crosslots, gloomily, 'out where I live the mud is 18 inches deep, and I don't feel as if I wanted to see another footprint as long as I live.'

The primary class was discussing birds, and the teacher asked what birds remained in our climate all the year round. Nearly every kind had been given. "Have you thought of one more?" his teacher asked.

'Yes'm,' he answered triumphantly. "The stork."—The Delineator.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S 25c. CATARRH POWDER 25c.

Rev. Dr. Fournilly, mildly reproving his youngest daughter:

'Florence, do you think it is appropriate to wear that gaudy hat to church? It looks as if you were there merely to be seen.'

Miss Florence Fourthly, aged 13, demurely responding:

'Well, papa, all you go to church for is to be heard, isn't it?'

Handy in the house as a clock, Davis' Menthol Salve cures quickly a great many of the simple ailments such as cuts, skin injuries, insect bites and stings. 25c. a tin at druggists.

His wife brought in the first course and placed it before him. Then she fussed with the silver at his plate and filled his glass. Next she flipped out his napkin and put it in place, and stood back respectfully.

'What's all this?' he asked in surprise. 'Why don't you sit down?'

'I saw you tip the waiter 50 cents when I was at lunch with you yesterday,' she said, 'and I need a little change myself.'

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they aid and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

A little three-year-old whose mother was making a simple zephyr medicine for him, watched the process, and asked if it was good. He was permitted to taste, and exclaimed:

'It's awfully good, mamma. Let's keep it for papa.'

When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a normal and healthy condition. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

October Rod and Gun.

Big game hunting is to the fore in the October issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont., and sportsmen intending to try their fortunes in the woods this season will find the number particularly attractive. Moose, deer, grizzlies, mountain lions and wolverines are all told about and both stories and illustrations are bound to find responsive echoes with all hunters. In each case the experiences related are personal and therefore far more interesting than any imaginary tales. In addition to big game stories there are numerous attractive papers dealing with other phases of outdoor life and both the east and west of Canada receives attention in this way. A finely illustrated account of the Dominion trap-hunting meet at Montreal is included. Canadian sportsmen may take up this issue, confident of finding within its page something of interest them whatever may be their particular inclination in matters of sport. The variety of ground covered is remarkable and probably accounts for its continued and wide interest to the readers of the magazine in the sporting advantages and possibilities of Canada.

What Would You Do?

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

The Trooper's Wise Steed.

Trooper Brown of the British Territorials was 'green.' His horse, like-wise unaccustomed to war, seemed from its appearance and general structure to have been not very long ago a dray horse. But it was a wise animal and had learned through experience that to keep one's mouth shut is to avoid many troubles. Much practice had enabled it to keep its mouth shut very successfully and very tight.

On the first morning parade in the lieutenant rode down the lines of his company.

'All the men turned out, sergeant-major?' he queried.

'Yes, sir,' said the sergeant-major, all except Trooper Brown. He's waiting for his horse to yawn so's he can slip the bit in, but the worst of it is, sir, the brute doesn't seem a bit tired.'—From Tit-Bits.

Sick Headache.

This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a sample at Rand's Drug Store and try it.

Eve Was a Lunger.

Man still carries the original number of ribs, but he is short of a lung lobe. Where did he lose it? Eve got it. Man's right lobe to-day consists of three lobes; man's left lung to-day consists of two lobes. Let us consider the missing lobe on the left. The lungs, mind you, are the life. Eve was made out of Adam's third lobe on the left, the lobe nearest the heart. She was constructed out of wind mostly. That is—she took part of Adam's breath away. Adam's posterity of the male persuasion in these latter days can count on only five lobes to both lungs; and Eve's daughters can count on seven; which accounts for woman having the last word in a controversy.—New York Press.

Crushed Coffee— what it is

By a process of crushing between steel rollers, instead of grinding, the skin, which remains in the eye of the bean after roasting, is separated from the kernel and removed by air suction, while the kernel is broken into small even grains. These grains when steeped, being free of the skin or chaff, settle quickly, leaving the liquid clear and bright, and give the true coffee flavor.

I know a Thing or Two.

'My dear boy,' said the father to his only son, 'you are in bad company. The lads with whom you associate indulge in bad habits. They drink, smoke, swear, play cards and visit theatres. They are not safe company for you.'

'You needn't be afraid of me, father,' replied the boy, laughingly, 'I guess I know a thing or two. I know how far to go and when to stop.'

The lad left his father's house twirling his cane in his fingers and laughing at the old man's notions.

A few years later, and that lad, grown to manhood, stood before the bar of a court, before a jury which had just brought in a verdict of guilty against some crime in which he had been concerned. Before he was sentenced he addressed the court, and said among other things: 'My downward course began in disobedience to my parents. I thought I knew as much as my father did and I spurned his advice; but as soon as I turned my back upon my home, temptations came upon me like a drove of heaves, and hurried me into ruin.'

Mark that confession, ye boys who are beginning to be wiser than your parents! Mark it, and learn that disobedience is the first step on the road to ruin. Don't take it.

A Bank Temperance Rule.

A leading bank of Cleveland, Ohio has adopted a very stringent rule against the use of intoxicants by its employees. When a man or boy enters the service of this institution, he is required to sign an agreement that he will not enter any place where intoxicating liquors are sold. Two who had signed the pledge were dismissed because they took a couple of young women into a liquor selling restaurant after the theatre.

'It may seem a hardship,' said an officer in the bank, in explanation of their action, 'to prevent a young man from entering a hotel or restaurant to which he might go with the best of motives, but with this rule agreed to on the part of the employees and enforced on the part of the bank, we feel sure that an employee is not going to spend it in improper places, nor are the employees likely to form the acquaintance of short card gamblers or race track touts in the dairy lunch rooms. We are seriously contemplating the extension of the order, so that it shall apply to any place where stocks or produce is dealt on a margin.'—Tract.

The Four Plants.

An old teacher was walking through a forest with a scholar and his sister. The old man suddenly stopped and pointed to four plants close at hand. The first was just beginning to prep above the ground, the second had rooted itself pretty well into the earth, the third was a small shrub, while the fourth and last was a small sized tree. The tutor said to his young companion:

'Pull up the first.'

'The youth easily pulled it up with his fingers.'

'Now pull up the second.'

'The youth obeyed, but not so easily.'

'And now the third.'

'The boy had to put forth all his strength and use both arms before he succeeded in uprooting it.'

'And now, said the master, try your hands upon the fourth.'

'But lo! the trunk of the tall tree, grasped in the arms of the youth, hardly shook its leaves.

'This, my son, is just what happens with our bad habits. When they are young we can cast them out readily, but only divine power can uproot them when they are old.'

One of the best Greek scholars in New York City was a guard on the Sixth Avenue Elevated Railway. A famous professor published a volume on certain features of the ancient Greek dialects of interest only to scholars. The guard referred to wrote to a newspaper, pointing out several errors made by the professor in his book, and signed himself by his real name. After a month's search a correspondent found the man. How does it happen? he said, showing his card, 'that you, a Greek scholar of first rank, should be doing such work as this?' He looked at the correspondent sadly and his face flushed. 'It was the best Hellenist of my year at Dublin,' he replied, 'My Greek is still what it used to be, but my career has been ruined by—whiskey.'
