CANNING AND VICINITY

The Literary Club of Canning met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spurr Woodworth, president, Dr. S. W. Spicer, presiding. The speaker was Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson, who gave a very fine address on Socialism, in the Light of Christ. The points dealt with were the necessity of Capital for industry, the necessity of broadening the bridge so that co-operation may be the easier. Socialism built on the principles of Christ teaches brotherliness. Those taking part in the musical program were Mrs. Allan Clarke, Mrs. Walter Rand, Miss Rand, Mrs. A. D. Payzant, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. F. F. Chute, Mrs. A. D. Ellis, Mrs. Walter Dickie, Miss Josephine Harris, Mrs. Charles Sinnett, William Payzant, R. S. Sanford, station agent, who has been confined to his home by illness, has recovered. Mr. Nevelle was relieving agent for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Spicer entertained at a delightful Bridge of eleven tables on Tuesday evening, March 17. The house was artistically decorated with St. Patrick's decorations, and the prizes were won by Mrs. Allan Clarke and H. E. Bigelow.

The benefit skating party held in aid of the rink on Monday evening, March 16, was very successful. The ice was in good condition and the Citizens' Band rendered a delightful program. Tea was served, those assisting being Mrs. Victor Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huston, Jr., and B. Kerwin. The proceeds amounted to $25.00.

Mrs. R. W. North, who has been confined to her home by illness, has recovered. Miss Ruth Sheffield, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. North, has returned.

The United Baptist church has been renovated and presents an attractive interior.

Mrs. Otto Schafheitlin, who spent a week in Boston, where she joined her brother, Mr. Blake, and Mrs. Blake, who arrived from Seattle, has returned home.

Miss Margaret Chute, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Kinsman, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas left for Philadelphia on Friday, where Mrs. Thomas will undergo medical treatment for her eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Sandford, Peregé, have returned from spending a week in Halifax.

Mrs. C. H. Meek has returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred West, Kingsport.

Mrs. Manning Sandford left for Maine on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Melvin entertained at a delightful High School party on Saturday evening, March 14th, in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Geraldine Melvin, and their son Embert. Miss Mabel Bigelow, on behalf of the High School, presented Miss Melvin with a gold fountain pen. Miss Melvin, who was taken entirely by surprise, responded appreciatively, and the evening was a very jolly one.

Mrs. L. F. Blenkhorne entertained the Mission Circle of the Methodist church on Friday evening, president, Miss Florence Cook, in the chair. The devotional services were led by Mrs. R. W. North, Mrs. Blenkhorne, and Miss Cook, who was appointed delegate to the Truro convention. Miss Erna Goldsmith was appointed secretary to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of Miss Constance Adams, who is in New York.

Miss Winnifred Adams, Kentville, visited in town this week. Rev. Mr. Winfield occupied the pulpit of Christ Episcopal church Sunday afternoon, preaching a fine discourse to a large congregation. The organist of St. John's church, Mr. Ipson, was in charge of the music, and rendered beautifully solo. Rev. Mr. Winfield in the absence of the rector, Rev. Gordon C. Brown, occupied the pulpit at St. John's church at the morning service, and preached in Kingsport in the evening.

HABITANT

Habitant Women's Institute was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Payzant Cox Friday afternoon, March 18, president, Mrs. John Ross, in the chair. The attendance was large and the responses to roll call, "Irish Reminiscences", were very humorous. Expressions of appreciation were extended to Mrs. Milton Greenough for making possible improvements in our school flag-staff, and to the program committee—Mrs. Payzant Cox, Mrs. Arthur North, Miss Alice Eaton—also to Mr. Everett Lyons, for his assistance at the Community Supper. It was reported by the Home and School Committee, that the school house is to be renovated during the Easter vacation. At the close of the business session a social hour was spent over the tea cups.

Habitant Institute is arranging for a class in basketry, with Mr. P. Kempton as instructor.

KINGSFORT

The ladies of Kingsport Congregational church held a very successful St. Patrick's tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred West. The decorations were very attractive and in keeping with the day. An interesting program was provided and was much enjoyed. The committee in charge was Mrs. E. I. Loomer, Mrs. Fred West, Miss Juanita Loomer, Miss Minnie Woodburn. The program was the following:

Chorus—Choir.

Vocal solo—H. Vaughan.

Reading—Rev. T. Crosby.

LADY MARGARET BOSCAWEN

who is visiting her brother, Lord Byng, Governor-General of Canada.

Violin solo—H. Vaughan; Miss Juanita Loomer accompanist.

Chorus—Choir.

Reading—Mrs. Rafuse.

Vocal trio—Messrs. Walter Loomer, Robert Woodburn, William Webb, with violin obligato by Mr. Thomas Ellis; piano, Miss Juanita Loomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow entertained Kingsport Bridge Club on Wednesday evening, March 18th. The ladies prize was won by Mrs. Roy Loomer, Mr. Joe Dickie winning the gentlemen's.

Mrs. E. L. Loomer was the hostess at the monthly tea held by the Sewing Circle of the Kingsport Congregational church on Thursday afternoon, which was much enjoyed.

SHEFFIELD MILLS

Mrs. Emerson Taylor, who is confined to her home with "flu", is improving.

The Women's Institute of Sheffield Mills, held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Irving, president, Friday afternoon, March 20th. The program was relative to Agriculture, those taking part being Mrs. Jack Whitehead, Mrs. John Burgess, Mrs. David Ellis, Mrs. E. M. Clarke, Mrs. Mrs. Harold Fellows. Piano solos by Mrs. John Burgess, community singing and graphanola selections were enjoyed. Tea was served and an enjoyable social hour spent.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Wood, who passed away at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, was held on Wednesday afternoon, March 18, Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson officiating. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ogden, Sheffield Mills, and leaves to mourn their loss a husband, one son, parents, nine brothers and sisters. Interment was at Centerville.

Miss Carol Bowser, who has been suffering with an infected hand, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brewster, Rockingham, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Bowser.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowser has been confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. A. T. Holmes, Lunenburg county, is spending a few days at the Mills.

CANARD

A unanimous call has been extended to Rev. L. P. Archibald, Lunenburg, by the congregation of Upper Canard Presbyterian church, to fill the pastorate made vacant by the retirement, owing to illness, of Rev. G. D. Logan.

Rev. Mr. Hill, Yarmouth, preached a very able discourse in Upper Canard Presbyterian church on Sunday morning to a large congregation. In the evening Rev. Mr. Hill addressed the congregation that gathered in Sheffield Mills Community Hall, where a fine sermon was enjoyed.

PRIZE WINNER WAS OF NOVA SCOTIAN DESCENT

Recently a prize of a gold medal for the best essay on Lincoln was announced by the principal of Anna Head School, Berkeley, Cal. A total of 125 essays were submitted and the judges unanimously awarded the prize to Eleanor Burgess, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Burgess, and granddaughter of Rev. Joshua Burgess, formerly of Sheffield Mills, this county. The poem, which is entitled "On Looking at Lincoln's Portrait", is as follows:

What are you thinking, lonely, sad-faced man?
Why are your eyes so full of unshed tears?
You seem to bear upon your stooping back
The untold sorrow of a thousand years.

Your face is rugged as a sea-lashed cliff,
That, beaten ceaselessly by stormy waves, Stands firm and proud against their wearing might,
And all their rabid, white-fanged anger braves.

You look as though your thoughts were far away;
Perhaps they have returned—so sad your eyes—
To Indiana's backwoods, lingering Above the grave where Nancy Lincoln lies.

Or do you still behold the sweet white face
Of fair Anne Rutledge, as she smiles at you
From out the silver mist of memory
Eternally patient and eternally true?

Rejoice, Great Heart! The down-crushed slave you freed.
Lives free today and has come into his own;
And all the bitterness 'twixt North and South
Lies long-forgotten, like a cloak outgrown.

The men who fought for, and by fighting won
The mighty principles for which you stood.
Have mostly left us, and passed on to
you.
In the bright country of the great and good.

They say that Fame is frail as any flower
But gratitude for good can never die.
We are but born into this little world
To struggle, suffer, do our best and die.

You came, the sturdy son of pioneers
As rough-hewn as the trees you lived among;
You learned and labored nobly and well
And always for the right, though you were young.

Do you remember lying on the hearth
Before the embers, far into the night,
And studying religiously some book,
Until the fire died, and left no light?

Years afterward you watched the long night through Beside your White House bed, kneeling in prayer,
Pleading with God to guide the straying
South.
And keep America alive and fair.

Those were dark days, when torn by civil strife,
Our country tottered on the brink of Hell
The people trembled for the roaring guns
Resounded fearfully like Freedom's knell.

But you were there to pilot through the storm
The sinking ship, and bring her safely home,
You guided her into the quiet bay
From out the wilderness of raging foam.

There was another bark tossed in the gale,
So once again you struggled out to sea.
Do you remember still that stormy night—
The night when first you saw Eternity?

You, who had saved America from death,
Were tired, Oh, so tired, from the strife,

And could not reach again the happy shore
To rescue that frail, shattered craft,
Your Life.

And so, like Christ, the Carpenter and King,
To whose life, yours was strangely parallel,
You died at last, and for Humanity, Mialed and blinded, whom you love so well.

Did I say died? Nay, you are no more dead
Than Christ eternal; and the world will cry
Your praise and glory centuries to come;
"Lincoln eternal, who can never die!"

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

(London Daily Express)
The idea that any concern can afford not to advertise is essentially wrong, and has been disproved by experience.
There is not a business in this country,
except that of the governor of a prison, that could not be doubled in volume by skillful advertisement. Even cemeteries have been known to advertise and proper by it. The trend of the modern age in commercial affairs might be summed up in dictum: "If your business is not worth advertising, advertise it for sale."
