GRAND FALLS OBSERVER

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell White were pleasantly surprised on Monday evening, when several of their friends gathered at their home to give them a house-warming. A very pleasant evening was spent with music and dancing, and before leaving, the guests presented Mr. and Mrs. White with a very nice clock. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCluskey, Miss Monica Martin, Miss Marie Maffet, Miss Blanch Powers, Miss Annie Long, Miss Ida McCluskey, Miss Albertine Martin, Miss Dora Merritt, Miss Helena Burgess, Miss Mildred Corbin, Miss Lodovine Long, Miss Cecelia Martin, Arthur White, Ivan McCluskey, Berton McCann, Matthew Kelly, Mr. Amman, Charles Oliver, Frank McKensie, Walter Bradley, Louis Fortifier, Vincent Leonard, Denis Comeau.

The first meeting of the W. A. of All Saints' church for the winter season was held at the home of Mrs. R. T. Moseley on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance.

T. R. Keat was in town last week. Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore, of Andover, are interested in the announcement of the arrival of a son at their home. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Kathleen Estey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Estey.

D. Comeau, who was acting manager of the Provincial Bank of Canada for a few weeks, left town on Tuesday.

Miss Monda Mulherin has been spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mulherin. She left on Wednesday for Providence, R. I., where she is in training at the Rhodes Island Hospital.

C. J. McCluskey, who has been at home for several weeks, on account of an injury to his eye, left on Tuesday to resume his work at Woodstock.

The sacrament of baptism was administered to three adults at the morning service in All Saints' church Sunday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Shorey and their son Phineas, of Gillispie.

Mrs. Fowler of Hampton is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Douglas Hooper, of Salmon River.

Allan Bradley, of Truro, spent the week-end here, the guest of his brother, George Bradley and Mrs. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. H. Wade, of Centreville, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Glenna Wade, who has been Mrs. Graham's guest for the past week.

J. B. Powers and Silvia Martin were in Fredericton by motor last week.

Mrs. Michael McCluskey and son Louis, of Prince Albert, Sask., are guests of Mr. McCluskey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCluskey.

On Wednesday evening a party from town enjoyed a very pleasant supper and dance at Dr. Puddington's camp. A chicken supper was served after which a huge bonfire was built on the shore, and a very merry evening was spent with music and dancing. Those present beside Dr. and Mrs. Puddington, were Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCluskey, Mrs. V. T. Powers, Miss Josephine McBriarty, Miss Juliette Rouleau, Miss Blanch Powers, Miss Edna Martin, Miss Zeta McCluskey, Miss Martina Horton, Miss Annie Long, Miss Doris Merritt, Miss Monica Martin, Miss Helena Burgess, Miss Kathleen McCluskey, Miss Vera McCluskey, Miss Mildred Corbin, Miss Albertina Martin, Miss Ida McCluskey, Miss Lodovine Long, Miss Cecelia Martin, Donald Taylor, Gerald Rouleau, Edward Rouleau, Mr. Fancey, Victor Beitelson, Arthur White, Wilfred Bradley, Walter Bradley, K. McCluskey, Harry Kelly.

Mr. A. D. Jones, principal of the Superior school, was called suddenly away on Friday, when he received the sad news that his brother, Watson Jones, Hillsboro, had been killed. The late Mr. Jones met his death at Edgemoor's Landing, while at work at the wharf owned by the J. B. King Co. Mr. Jones fell into the hold of one of the vessels, a drop of about forty feet, and was instantly killed.

Mr. A. D. Jones left by C. P. R. soon after receiving the news of his brother's death. Much sympathy is extended to him in his sudden and sad bereavement.

MURCHISON-WATSON

The marriage was solemnized at All Saints' church at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon of Miss Gladys Olive Watson, daughter of Charles R. and the late Mrs. Watson, of Argosy, and William Murchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood Murchison, of Four Falls. The bride looked very pretty in a suit of brown cloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Watson, and Leonard Thibodeau acted as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Patstone. Mr. and Mrs. Murchison left on a short motor trip, arriving at their home at Four Falls on Thursday, where a reception was given them.

SHOREY-GRANT

On Thursday evening at eight o'clock a large number assembled at All Saints' church to witness the marriage of Miss Lila Brackett Grant, of Fort Fairfield, and James Gardner Shorey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Shorey, of Gillispie. Rev. A. J. Patstone officiated. The bride was very prettily gowned in white silk, with veil, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Her bridesmaid was Miss A. Shorey, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by his brother, Frank Shorey. After the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Shorey, where a reception was held for the newly married pair.

NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made by the applicants hereinafter named to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, for a Grant of Letters Patent, under the Great Seal according to the provisions of "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' Act, 1914," and the Acts in amendment thereof, and in addition thereto, incorporating the applicants and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed Company, a body corporate and politic, and under the name and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

1. The Corporate name of the Company is to be the "HARTLAND ELECTRIC COMPANY, LIMITED."

2. The objects for which incorporation is sought are—

(a) To construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, equip, control and operate any or all real estate, buildings, plant, works, machinery and appliances of every nature and description for generating or producing electricity or electric light, heat or power, and lines of wires, poles, tunnels, conduits, motors, devices, and appliances of every nature and description whatsoever for generation, sale, distribution or transmission under or above ground of electricity and electric light, heat, power or current through, under, over, along or across any public street, highway, bridges, water-courses and waters in and throughout the County of Carleton in the Province of New Brunswick outside the limits of the incorporated Town of Woodstock.

(b) To generate, manufacture, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire electricity, electric light, heat, power, force or current, and to use, store, sell, lease, dispose of and distribute the same by the means mentioned in foregoing clause one for light, heat, power and any and all commercial purposes within the limits of the said County of Carleton excepting the incorporated Town of Woodstock as aforesaid.

(c) To manufacture, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, deal in, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of dynamos, motors, carbons, lamps, radio supplies and equipment, and electrical machinery, appliances and devices of every nature and description.

(d) To carry on the business of wholesale and retail electricians, and to conduct and maintain radio stations.

(e) To construct, operate and maintain such telephone lines and other conveniences as may be required between the different buildings or works of the Company, and between the buildings and works of the Company and other buildings or works supplied by the Company under the powers herein given.

(f) To enter by its servants, agents and workmen upon any or all streets, roads, squares, open plots of ground, waterways, bridges or highways in any incorporated town, village or parish in said County of Carleton as aforesaid, and to break up, excavate and open the same for the purpose of erecting and maintaining poles and poles, strings, or maintaining wires and cables, placing or maintaining under ground mains, pipes or conduits for any or all of the purposes aforesaid, and for renewing, replacing or repairing the same.

(g) To acquire by original subscription, purchase or otherwise, and to hold, sell, pledge, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any securities of or other interests in any Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company.

(h) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, assume or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property or liabilities of any person, partnership or Company carrying on any business which the Company hereby incorporated is authorized to carry on or similar thereto, and, subject to the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, to amalgamate with any such Company.

(i) To sell, lease, license or otherwise dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof, or any of the real or personal property, franchises, assets, rights or credits of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit.

(j) To issue, allot, and hand over paid up stock of the said Company in payment of right of way, plant, franchises, lands, powers, appurtenances and other property, and for the service of contractors, engineers and employees, and for any and all expenses in connection with the business of the Company, which stock shall be non-assessable and the issue and allotment thereof shall be binding on the Company.

(k) To do, all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

3. The chief place of business of the proposed Company will be at the Town of Hartland in the County of Carleton.

4. The amount of the capital stock of the said Company is to be Twenty-four Thousand Nine Hundred Dollars, divided into two hundred and forty-nine shares of One Hundred Dollars each, of which one hundred shares are actually subscribed.
