THE WURTEMBERG SCANDAL.

Complete History of the Eccentric Monarch's Career.

Some Facts Regarding the Conduct of the "Americans."

Donald Hendry, of Fredericton, and Mr. Woodcock of St. John.

ST. JOHN, Oct. 30.—The Herald's despatches from Munich, Nice and New York regarding the scandal about the King of Wurtemberg and his American friends have created a great deal of excitement here. No paper published in the city has, however, dared to say a word upon the subject. The council of ministers has ordered proceedings to be taken against the Munich paper, Neue Nachrichten, for its publication concerning His Majesty's affairs.

It comes to a trial interesting development may be looked for. Jackson's appointment in 1881 created a great deal of comment, but was not so accepted, and would never have been revived now but for the Woodcock and Hendry affair.

Jackson returned his American citizenship and became a Wurtemberg subject. He was appointed a first lieutenant, or rather, a second lieutenant, and was promoted to a major. He was appointed a first lieutenant, or rather, a second lieutenant, and was promoted to a major.

LEVY AT THE CITY HALL.

His Wonderful Performance on the Cornet—A Belated Audience.

Julia Levy, the world renowned cornetist, and his concert company, were welcomed by their first appearance here last evening, with one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the city hall, and a most delightful record of people than that present was never seen together in Fredericton. Very few of the music loving people were absent from the concert, and the result was a most successful one. The concert was given in the city hall, and the result was a most successful one.
