THE REVIEW.

The Quebec Daily Telegraph gives the following programme:—
The troops will be drawn up in line upon the Plains of Abraham, at half past eleven o'clock, a m., for which purpose no corps should be on the ground later than eleven o'clock. The line will face the St. Louis road, and be thrown forward en potence.

His Excellency the Governor General and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise will, on their arrival, be received with a royal salute from the much too freely, the import having line, with colors drooped and bands playing the National Anthem. His Excellency and Her Royal Highness will probably then ride down the line and inspect the troops, preceded by the troops in the regulated order of . The band of each regiment will strike up as the procession approaches the right flank of the corps. At noon a royal sulate and feu de joie will be fired in honor of Her Majesty's birthday. After each seven guns the Infantry will fire one round of running fire, three times successive-When arms are ordered, the order will be given "Off hats and three cheers for Her Majesty." The troops will then march past in column and quarter column, preparatory to which the Infantry will form quarter column on the right companies of Battalions, the Cavalry and Artillery conforming. Immediately after marching past, the troops will be formed for the following evolutions of a field day.

THE ATTACKING FORCE will consist of about 900 men and will be formed on the low ground at the extreme edge of the plains, close to the Marchmont fence. It will be composed of the following corps, viz.,:—
Half Troop of Cavalry, Quebec Field Battery, A and B Batteries (without guns), 9th Battalion Rifles and 62nd Battalion. This force will be commanded by Lieut. Col. Strange, R. A. of A and B Batteries, will compose the Defending Force, and will at once proceed to take position under the walls of the Citadel, either in the ditches or in the low ground in front riflemen into the two Martello Towers and will leave one corps of riflemen any reason why you should go on from day under cover of the broken ground near Wolfe's Monument. Should an attack from the river take place, the guns on the King's bastien and eastern face of the city must also be manned. The troops in the Citadel will be under the command of Lt. Col. Erwin,

ON A SIGNAL BEING GIVEN, the attacking force will advance in Abraham; they will be first assailed by the outpost, near Wolfe's Monuby the outpost, near Welfe's Monument, upon which they will open fire and drive them in. The Martello Towers and supporting corps of riflemen will open fire upon the assailants when within range. The towers will be captured and the troops driven in, retiring in skirmishing order upon the manument of the captured and the Citadel ditches.
