TWO BODIES FOUND IN A PARK.

Buffalo, Oct. 22.—A special from Correy, Pa., says—A horrible murder and suicide occurred here early this morning. At 1 O'clock two shots were heard in the park. No attention was paid to them, however, until this morning, when the dead bodies of Harry Bettis and Dalsy Blydenburg were found on a scat under a tree. Both were shot through the temple. The revolver with which the deed was done was clenched in Bettis' right hand. It is thought by many that the deed was premedicated.

The young couple attended church last night and spent a pleasant evening together at Miss Blydenburg's home, and later called on friends. When bidding them good-bye they said—"Well, good-bye; you will never see us again."

OLD-TIME LOTTERY ETHICS. When Money Was Raised by Lottery

for College Purposes. for College Purposes.

When one reads, as has frequently been the case of late, of the arrest of such and such an individual for the maintaining and promoting of a lottery, it is hard to conceive that within the present century. Harvard College sought and obtained permission from the legislature to hold such an affair. Such is the case, however, if we can rely on history.

case, however, if we can rely on history.

In 1806, when the finances of the college were in a decidedly critical state, the corporation, having represented the situation and duly, petitioned, were accorded power by the general court to raise by means of a lottery the sum of $30,000 for the crection of a new building in the college yard. With the proceeds of this lottery the college was enabled to begin in 1811 the new building, which was completed in 1813.

new building, which was completed in 1813.

The entire cost of the building—Holworthy—was $24,000, so that the balance which remained of the $25,000 produced by the lottery was "applied to reinstate the stock which the college had spent in erecting Stoughton Hall and to other objects specified in the act granting the lottery."

This new building, which to-day is probably the one most sought after by under-graduates at the annual drawing of rooms, and in which it is not allowed that freshmen small live, received its name in honor of Sir Matthew Holworthy, the great-

Reporter's Baby Talk Answered.
Because we copied an article from the Hamilton Times, showing up our local contemporary's little tricks of figure juggling, it says we "cannot hold our own against it," and must go outside for help. We are free to admit that in the use of Billingsgate and cheap Yankee clap-trap we may not be able to "hold our own" with the Reporter, but that was not our reason for reproducing the Times' criticism. We did so merely as evidence that the Reporter was not only making itself ridiculous in the eyes of its own renders, but that its sillness was the occasion of remark by outside newspapers.—Galt Reformer.
