VARIETIES.

A "FAMILY PAPER."-The Daily News, an evening journal, issued at Newport, Ky., is essentially a " family paper." It is edited and published by W. S. Baily and every type that goes into its columns is set by his daughters. The little girls set type with great facility. The paper is got ready, put to press, and worked off by the family in a matter of course kind of way, just as the dishes are wash-ed or any other job of housework performed.

A good story is told of a Connecticut par-His country parish raised his salary from $300 per annum to $400. The good man objected, for three reasons. First," said he, " because you can't afford to give more than three hundred. Second, because any preaching isn't worth more than three hundred. Third, because I have to collect my salary, which, heretofore, has been the hardest part of inv labors among you. If I have to col-lect an additional hundred it will kill me!"

The Bloomer costume brings advantage sometimes to the sterner sex. One of our Ohio exchanges tells a story of hus-band and wife who, in travelling in haste through the woods, met with a melancholy accident, which is thus recorded:--

SINGULAR PROBLEM.-There was a singular problem among the Stoics which singular problem among the ISTOICS WHICH ran to this purpose:—When a man says 'I lie,' does he lie, or does he not? If he lies, he speaks the truth; if he speaks the truth, he lies.'' Many were the the truth he lies.'' Many were the he lies, he speaks the truth; if he speaks books written upon this wonderful problem. Chrysippus favoured the world with no less than six: and Philetus studied himself to death in his vain endeavours to solve it.

TRIUMPH OF WIT .- An anecdote is related of two sons of the Emerald Isle, who recently called upon one of the secretaries, says the Washington Republic, to present their papers of recommenfor office, and to solicit the redation moval of two coloured laborers, aud the appointment of themselves as substitutes. The secretary did not, however, appreciate the object of their errand, and de clined acceding to their demands. Determined not to be defeated, they pro-ceeded to the White House, and there sought and obtained an audience with President Pierce, to whom they related what had passed between the secretary and them lves, and then requested him to interfere in their behalf. The President politely suggested the indelicacy of such a proceeding, and declined to yield to a proceeding, and declined to yield to their wishes; whereupon one of the Irishwith humor, propounded the following question: "Gineral, if you were going to engage in another war, who would you neger for your soldiers, Irishmen or nagers?" "Irishmen, by all means," was the prompt reply; and without giving the President time to say another word, the interrogator continued: " Then, if you prefer Irishmen in war, why not in pace?" This was a "stumper," and caused explosion of laughter on the part of the President and Secretaries Davis and Guthrie who, it is easily ware the part of the Guthrie, who, it is said, were present Guthrie, who, it is said, were present on the occasion. When the merriment subsided a little, the President endorsed the papers, in theform of an expressed " hope that the Commissioner of Public Buildings would give those men some-thing to do." They departed, bowing and acraping, and returning thanks until they reached the door, and went upon their way reioicing. heir way rejoic ing.

BIR_-I avail myself of the first opportanity of in-forming yos, that, for a very long period, I was allieted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent aviumnings in the head, attended by loss of appetie, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent rollof, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melan-choly condition, I waited personally apon Mr. Highes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Hils, I tried them without delay, and after ta-king them for a short time I am happy to bear test-mony to their wonderful efficacy.
