(From Monday's Bulletin.) The village of Stoney Plain was created prior to the coming into force of the village act of 1907. The case caused considerable interest, as it was felt that if the provisions of the village ordinance of 1907 were applied to villages created prior to that date it might upset the elections for councilmen in half the villages in the province. Judge Taylor held that the village ordinance did not apply to villages created prior to the passing of that act. The overseer had power to perform the duties of the councilman and the village was declared ousted from office as he had no power to withdraw from the office. Miller and Oppertbauer were declared legally elected.

It will be composed of Mrs. Jarley's works, which will be shown for the first time in the city. The Strathcona is to have roller skating this summer. The new opera house has been leased by W. H. Armstrong and will be opened at once to the public. The manager has secured a large number of gentlemen, ladies and children's skates and this evening will give every one coming to the rink the use of a pair free. The roller rink promises to be a favorable form of amusement in the southern city this summer.

(From Wednesday's Bulletin.) Alex. Gilson returned yesterday afternoon from Hardisty, where he has been for the past two weeks, making estimates on a large contract. Several culverts are being placed across the Edmonton road, thus removing several ponds that have been an annoyance to residents for some time past. There was a big attendance at the opening of the roller rink last night in the Strathcona Opera House. A large number took advantage of the opportunity to have a whirl on the smooth floor. There are a great number of men, mostly foreigners, in the city at the present time, looking for work. Yesterday O. Bush, the C.P.R. employment agent, furnished 107 for Calgary, where they will work at $7.25 per day. John Douglas has been appointed to fill the vacant position of janitor of the Dugan street school. At a competition between the Edmonton and Strathcona Odd Fellows on Monday night for the Past Master May's banners for deuce work, Strathcona won by about forty points.

(From Wednesday's Bulletin.) W. E. Ross has returned from a business trip to Winnipeg. The scavenging contract for the balance of this year has been let to Messrs. Wilson and Gilliland for $4,800. Mrs. J. Carmichael has received a telegram from Spencerville, Ont., Monday night for the first time since she left for the west. John Bush has returned from Ottawa, where he spent the winter with his family. H. G. Hinton, of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Strathcona, left this morning for Winnipeg, where he is to examine the books there. A number of friends were at the station to see him off. At 5 o'clock on Saturday morning last J. L. Somers' large barn on his farm south of Strathcona, burned to the ground, entailing serious loss. The barn was valued at about $1,800 and was insured for $1,200. The origin of the fire is unknown. The tenants who had occupied the farm during the winter had vacated the farm previous.

(From Monday's Bulletin.) The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Waterloo westward of Mrs. Mary Clifton, whose death took place on Saturday at the Strathcona hospital. The services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Johnston and interment was at the Strathcona cemetery.

(From Tuesday's Bulletin.) This is the night of the regular weekly meeting of the Strathcona city council. No important business is scheduled for consideration, but there are several matters over from last meeting to be dealt with. Among the passengers south this morning were Rev. W. T. Stackhouse, Winnipeg; C. C. McLaughlin, Calgary; J. H. Howling, Waskatunga; and A. McDonald, Leduc. At the ordination of Rev. Mr. Shea in the Baptist church, Edmonton, last night Rev. Mr. McDonald was moderator, Rev. Mr. Bowen, Strathcona, preached, and Rev. W. T. Stackhouse gave an address.
