A Policy of Favoritism.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir:—Crab-alien and monopoly of Government pickings are the predominant features of some of the pretended supporters of the People's Party here. The constant taking, the emigration of the Voters' List, Agriculture, together with a conglomeration of road grants and what not, all must be in the hands of a few celebrities who appear to have claims hereditary and otherwise. Woe be to the presuming individual who would have the audacity to ask a share in the jobs above alluded to. The policy of favoritism and patronage is a most unwise one in a people's representative and especially in one posing as a member of a party pledged to be great enough as to embrace all classes and sections of the people. The present Government has ignominiously failed to uphold its professions of democracy. To-day the "clashes" to the ignoring of the masses is far from a sane administration at any time, particularly in an election year. It does not require great scholarship to take the Voters' List. Any citizen with a common school education is competent for such a post. There are many such in our town to a few of whom this would mean quite an addition to a by no means large income. They are not considered. It is the men with money and a gull and a reversible political opinion. Mr. Goodison will find in a few months when free men will exercise the great privilege of the ballot box asked for them through the statesmanship of Sir Robert Bond, that because he has not proved worthy of his trust and faithful to his charge, that an irate electorate has cast him aside because he was weighed in the balance and found wanting. The people have now realizing the seriousness of the mistake they made more than four years ago, in renouncing Sir Robert Bond. Unhappily they substituted the shadow for the substance, the dross for the refined gold. Now that they are once more the sacred right of a freeman's vote, let them atone for the past by placing once again at the head of our country's affairs this rightful and honored place the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Bond, one whom the people delighted to honor.

Thanking you, dear sir, for space in your esteemed paper, I am, yours,

CARBONAR, July 24th, 1913.

Minimise The Loss.

Practically farmers may easily minimise the loss due to a backward and cold season, by the judicious use of Sulphate of Ammonia as a fertilizer. Sulphate of Ammonia contains over 20 per cent of nitrogen, as against 15 per cent in Nitrate of Soda, and is therefore more than 25 per cent better than nitrate of soda as a means of quickening and increasing the growth of crops.

The use of Sulphate of Ammonia has increased enormously of late years and it is recognized to be the most valuable fertilizer obtainable. By its judicious use the production of root crops per acre may be doubled, and the growth of late crops stimulated.

We invite the attention of Farmers to our special pamphlet on the best methods of using Sulphate, copies of which will be forwarded free to any address on application.

The price of Sulphate is moderate, and our terms are accommodation.

The Regatta.

Over thirty crews were on the lake last evening. The quickest time was made by Reid's laborers, 10.22.

The Naval Reserve (Central), rowed the course in 10.40.

The Shamrock will be launched on Monday.

The crews that won last year are favorites on the bank. The "dark horse" is not reckoned with.

A few dollars more is required by the Committee to run the Regatta.

The Nina was not on the pond last night but will likely be in the water on Monday evening after being renamed. She is done up in fine style.

The C.L.B. rowed the course after dark last night, and made good time.

Nickel Patrons Pleased.

With Fine Performance.

There were crowded houses at the Nickel Theatre last evening, and everyone was pleased as the performance was one of the finest ever given here. Mr. Myers won new honours, his marvellous voice being heard to advantage in the two beautiful songs he rendered. Those present were most enthusiastic over his work and warmly applauded. The first picture was "Under Mexican Skies," which was watched with interest. "The Narrow Road" is a melodrama which had the attention of everyone. "An Interrupted Elopement" is a bright comedy. The final film "The Tragedy of a Dress Shop." The entire programme will be repeated this evening.

Clark's Park & Beans

Quality, flavor, and perfect cooking combined. The maximum of palatability, just heat—then serve delicious trouble and cost.

Consolation.

The heat that makes us gasp and shrivel, and hand out comments most uncivil, keeps corn and beans alive; around in sweat a fellow shoves, forgetting 't h a t t h e Hubbard squashes 'e e d heat to make them thrive. We all rear up and rant together, and roast the blink-blinded, ding-donged weather, and storm around like loons; and yet this heat, which seldom varies, is helpful to the huckleberries and also to the prunes. In arctic realms sun rays don't sizzle, so agriculture is a fizzle, there is no corn or wheat; the natives wish the sun were blazing, for they are tired of always raising cheap polar bears and sleds. Then let us, while profusely sweating, be in no danger of forgetting what's needed by the peas, the cge plant, with its hus of amber, the onion, and the proud cucumber, and other things like these. And when hot weather makes you suffer, don't be a mournful whining duffer—it's foolishness to chafe; just face the issue bravely, stoutly, and dance and sing, and say devoutly, "Thank God, the prune crop's safe!"

At the City Hall.

The weekly session of the Council Board was held yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Prowse, who represents the McLean estate, submitted plans of proposed streets on unoccupied property of the estate. Referred to the Engineer.

Water and sewerage pipes will be installed in Walsh's Square as asked for by T. Hallett.

An overhanging rock on Battery Road, reported by T. Stamp, was referred to the Engineer.

The retaining wall at the corner of John and Danford Streets, reported to be in bad condition by C. C. Taylor, will be attended to.

Applications of A. B. Walker, to build plank platform on Station St., R. Gillingham to make repairs to Golf Avenue, J. Hilditch to repair house on Quidi Vidi Road and J. Carpenter to repair house in Dicks' Square were referred to Engineer Ryan.

Permission was given J. P. McLaughlin to put roads on houses 365 and 367 Duckworth Street; also to James Beck to raise kitchen, Flower Hill.

Plans of proposed buildings will have to be forwarded by P. McGrath and G. Gillingham.

The contract to Sudbury retaining wall ($270), was awarded Spratt Bros, and the contract to repair Long's Hill wall ($220) was awarded J. Hoskins.

Tenders for installing sewerage systems were awarded to the lowest, Constable Martin, who was in the chair in place of the Mayor, who was out of town, was called away from the meeting. Councillor Mullaly made a motion that in the absence of Mayor Ellis no individual powers be granted and that no important work be transacted without the consent of the Board. The motion was seconded by Councillor Myrick provided it did not interfere with standing committees. Coun. Ryan refused to support the motion as he did not see the reason why Coun. Martin should be reflected upon.

The question of raising the Engineer's salary from $1,200 to $1,400 a year was then introduced by Coun. Mullaly. A heated debate followed. Coun. Mullaly, in making the proposition, regretted the absence of the Mayor and Deputy, but said that the matter was long enough in slings and should have been settled months ago.

Coun. Ryan contended that the proposition was taking advantage of the absence of some members of the Board. He asked that the matter be deferred for a full meeting to deal with it. Coun. Mullaly said there would never be a full meeting and asked Coun. Myrick to stick to his guns. The latter Councillor retorted, "I'm as good a friend of the Engineer as you are, and it is cowardly on your part to push this matter in the absence of other Councillors."

Further cross-firing followed between Councillors Ryan, Mullaly and Myrick, and the motion was left over until next week.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Mr. Stephen Sheppard came from Boston last week on a visit to his mother and father, the former being very sick, and the latter, over 80 years of age, is still quite active. Mr. Sheppard returns to the United States next week.

The British Band excursion party returned by last night's regular, arriving here at 10.30. The outing was a most enjoyable one for all who took part.

A fairly good sign of codfish was in the local market a couple of mornings this week, but the prospects are very black for the fishermen. We hope to have a better report to give soon.

Miss Jean Munn, daughter of John G. Munn, of St. John's, arrived here last night on a visit to her many friends.

Miss Greta James also arrived by last night's train to spend a while here with friends.

Capt. J. S. Tucker, 1st officer of the S. S. Stephano, came in by last night's train on a flying visit to his friends.

Mrs. James Prowse passed away on Wednesday forenoon after a long illness. Mrs. Prowse, who was a Miss Stabb, was born here over 80 years ago, for a number of years she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Sanderson. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

The S. S. Beatrice arrived from Sydney yesterday afternoon with a load of coal to the Harbour Grace Coal Co. We are glad to see that this company has started business. A coal depot in Harbour Grace will benefit not only this town but the whole bay.

A visiting gentleman who arrived here by last night's train (we could give his age if he lives to see May, but we won't, being anxious to leave the train at the cross roads was very glad when the train slowed down to let section men off, and took advantage of this opportunity to surprise his fair one. Arriving at her home, it was his turn to be surprised on learning that she had gone to visit, leaving shute to meet the incoming train, and was on the train when he, not knowing it, left the cars.
