BONAR LAW.

KING GEORGE'S APPEAL.

LONDON, Oct. 22. King George has issued the following appeal: "To my people. At this grave moment of struggle between my people and the highly organized enemy who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that binds civilized Europe together, I appeal to you. I rejoice in my Empire's effort. I feel pride in the voluntary response from all my subjects all over the world who have sacrificed home, fortune, and life itself, in order that another may not inherit the free empire, which their ancestors and mine have built. I ask you to make good these sacrifices. The end is not in sight. More men, and yet more are wanted to keep my armies in the field, and through them secure victory and enduring peace. I ask you men of all classes to come forward voluntarily and take your share in these fights. In freely responding to my appeal, you will be giving your support to our brothers who for long months have nobly upheld Britain's past traditions and the glory of her arms."

MUCH DAMAGE DONE IN OSTEND.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 22. Much damage was done in Ostend on the Belgian coast in the recent bombardment by British warships. The marine railway station, light-house, hotels and many warehouses were destroyed.

ON ALL FRONTS.

LONDON, Oct. 22. Greece has declined for the present the Allies offer to her of Cyprus and other concessions, territorial and financial, in return for her assistance to the Serbo-Greek treaty of alliance, which would mean her military aid to assist in meeting the Bulgarian and Austro-German attacks against her former ally. The reply of Greece to the offer, which reached the Foreign Office to-night, is a lengthy one. While it has not been made public, there is reason to believe that the Hellenic Kingdom bases its decision not to join the Allies on the ground that the Anglo-French force landed at Salonika is not, in the Greek Government's opinion, strong enough for the task allotted to it. Refusal to accept the offer was not unexpected, as it has often been stated in official circles that both Roumania and Greece were withholding their assistance until the Allies either won a decisive victory or proved to the Greeks and Roumanians their ability to do so, or until operations had reached a stage, which would assure them that their countries would not be overrun by the forces of the Central Powers and their Turkish and Balkan allies. There is no inclination here, or in the capitals of other members of the Entente Powers, to minimize the seriousness of the situation in Serbia. The Austro-German-Bulgarian campaign is developing slowly, but their plans are now fairly clear. The Austro-German centre is advancing down the Morava valley from Semendria, while the Bulgarians have got across this valley to the south, and command Belgrade and the Nish-Salonika railway. The Austro-Germans have their other forces engaged, one northwest near Shabatz, one at Belgrade, whilst a third has not yet crossed the Danube. The Bulgarians have other armies moving across the frontier.

On the other fronts operations are considered to be more favorable for the Allies. The Russians are taking advantage of the removal of German troops from other points on the front to reinforce Field Marshal Von Hindenburg for his drive at Riga, which seems to have been checked, and have been delivering some fierce strokes at the German centre on the Styr and Galicia. In all these they have initial success. The latest offensive by the Russians was assumed north of Tarnopol, where they are carrying the Austro-German positions, giving the Russian soldiers nearly 8,000 prisoners and a number of machine guns. These prisoners added to those taken near Baranovitchi, the day before, make a total of over 11,000 Austrians and Germans captured in two days. The Germans, on the other hand, claim that counter-attacks both on the Styr and at Baranovitchi were successful, and according to a Berlin official statement the Russians, made prisoners, totalled upwards of 4,000. The Germans admit the loss of six guns on the Styr.

In the West another German attack, according to French accounts, was repulsed in Artois, while a contemplated attack in Champagne was prevented by French artillery. Italians continue on the offensive in Tyrol and Trentino, progressing along the Isonzo. No advance is reported in the latter region. During the week ending Oct. 20th, only one British steamer, the Salerno, was sunk by a German submarine. This is the lowest record of British ships sunk for months. Unofficial reports say that British submarines added three more ships to those sunk in the Baltic during the last 24 hours. Some mystery surrounds the sinking at Hamburg, of three British steamers, which had been interned there since the beginning of the war.

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 22. Further Russian successes in the southern part of the front are announced to-day by the War Office. It is stated that several Austro-German positions, and more than 7,500 men have been captured. By an energetic surprise attack in the region of Novo Oleksinetz, twenty miles south of Tarnopol, we captured portions of the enemy's positions yesterday. Similarly we seized part of the enemy's positions in the course of to-day. We made prisoners in these combats of 148 officers and about 7,500 soldiers. We captured two howitzers and numerous machine guns.

AUSTRO-GERMAN LOSSES.

LONDON, Oct. 22. A despatch reaching London from Nish to-day says: An official announcement has been made in the Serbian capital that the losses of the Austro-German army of invasion have reached sixty thousand dead, wounded and prisoners. The Serbians are said to have repulsed the invaders. The message was forwarded to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from its Athens correspondent, who says that this information is contained in an official telegram from Nish to the Serbian Legation at the Greek capital. It is stated that among the Austrian and German prisoners are many officers. The same despatch contains a denial that the Bulgarians have occupied Vranja, Velessa or Kijazevac, but confirms the report they have captured Istip and Kotezana.

BULGARIAN PORT BOMBARDED.

LONDON, Oct. 22. The British Mediterranean squadron to-day bombarded the Bulgarian port of Dedegatch according to a telegram from Sofia, received by Reuters' telegram company by way of Amsterdam.

GREECE'S ATTITUDE.

LONDON, Oct. 22. While Greece's refusal of offers are definite, so far as at present concerned, it is felt by London commentators that the material strengthening of the Entente allied contingent at Salonika would have a material influence on the attitude even of the Greek Government. It is also believed by observers here that Greece cannot persist in her present position, and that public opinion, which is generally understood to be in favor of the Entente Allies, will probably exercise its influence.

Girls! Draw A Moist Cloth Through Hair Double Its Beauty

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful at once.

Immediate?—Yes. Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in a few minutes you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forestalling itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy—growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Kewit's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

REPORTED SERBIAN VICTORY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. A News Agency despatch from Athens via London, published here, says that the Serbians have repulsed the Austro-Germans north of the Serbian frontier, with enemy casualties of 60,000. This is announced in a message from Nish to the Serbian Legation here to-day.

BATTLE IN PROGRESS IN SERBIA.

PARIS, Oct. 22. An important battle between the Serbians and Bulgarians is in progress at Koprut in Serbia, on the Nish-Salonika railroad, thirty miles south of Uskup. A message from Athens says that this information has been received from Salonika. The Bulgarians are being assisted in this battle by Turkish cavalry. The Bulgarians, the despatch says, are fortifying passes on Mount Rhodape. A great number of refugees from the north are arriving at Monastir in Northwestern Serbia.

SERBIAN RESISTANCE.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 22. A representative of the Lokai Anzeiger at the Serbian front, telegraphs that the desperate resistance of the Serbians is responsible for the small number of prisoners taken by the Austrian and German troops. Serbians rarely surrender. Even in the most to-hand encounters they fight until the last possible moment. Thus there are enacted in these battles horrible scenes of the wildest fighting, unparalleled on any other front.

STEAMER ACCIDENTS.

LONDON, Oct. 22. The Norwegian barque Cissie, 1,967 tons gross, from Hull, Oct. 19, for Port Arthur, foundered in a collision off the Isle of Wight; fifteen members of the crew landed to-day at Newhaven; seven are missing. The British steamer Elder Branch, from Philadelphia, on Oct. 2, for France, has run aground in the harbor of Cetta.

THE NEW BUDGET.

LONDON, Oct. 22. The new budget, which provides for a surtax of 50 per cent. on the profits of all British companies, has already caused the removal to the states of the headquarters of several companies, representing South and Central American gold mines. Mining men here assert that unless the tax is reduced this movement will become so great that New York instead of London will become the mining capital of the world. Mines whose production is just beginning are particularly hard hit. Unlike tea and rubber companies, mining companies have not been enabled by the war to raise prices.

MISS CAVELLE'S EXECUTION.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 22. Indignation prevails over the execution of Miss Cavelle. The Nieuwe Courant, after relating the story of her execution, calls her one of the great martyrs of the centuries, but recognizes the fact that sheltering her own countrymen, who were enemies of Germany, she committed a punishable crime. Her execution was inhuman, the Germans desiring to give terrorizing example, which, however, only aroused embitterment and strengthened the opinion of neutral countries that Germany was ruling Belgium with unnecessary cruelty and harshness.

MEMORIAL STATUE.

LONDON, Oct. 22. The Daily Telegraph, with a donation of one thousand shillings, has started a shifting fund to provide a memorial statue to Miss Edith Cavelle. Sir George J. Brampton, sculptor, has promised to execute the statue as a labor of love.

Tag Day.

In connection with the Trafalgar Day Fund no one did better work than the ladies who had charge of the Tag collection on the streets on all evening leading to the city ladies were on duty from early morn. and during the day they visited the wharves and streets of the city affording every one an opportunity of receiving a Nelson "tag" and of contributing to the relief of sick and wounded sailors and soldiers. The generosity of the response and the success of the efforts of the ladies is seen from the fact that some $2,300 was collected by them. Well done! ladies!!

Obituary.

MISS LILY DUNN.

With regret we chronicle the demise of an estimable young lady of this city in the person of Miss Lily Dunn, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, whose death occurred at her late residence, Hayward Avenue, yesterday morning. The deceased young lady had been ill for some time past and was in her 24th year. She is survived by her father and mother, two brothers and three sisters to whom the Telegram extends sincerest sympathy. The funeral takes place at 2.30 p.m. to-morrow.

At the R. C. Cathedral

Yesterday afternoon the R. C. Volunteers of G Company paraded to the Cathedral where they were addressed by Very Rev. J. J. McDermott, Administrator, on their duties as Catholic soldiers, the rev. father in earnest and stirring words exhorting them to be true to their God, their King and their Country. After the address rosaries and scapulars were distributed to the soldiers, who then went to Confession. This morning at 7 o'clock Mass which was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Nangle, they received Holy Communion. It was truly an edifying sight to see the men in khaki reverently kneeling at the altar rails fortifying themselves spiritually before entering the great combat for justice and righteousness.

The Hygiene of Gas Lighting.

Incandescent gas is the ideal form of illumination for a living room. The soft yet brilliant light given off floods the room, and is restful both to the eyes and to the senses, preventing headaches or sewing from being a source of eyestrain.

It has, moreover, been scientifically determined that the strong uprush of heated products of combustion from gas burners draws up the emanations from the skin and lungs of the occupants of the room, chairs and sterilizes any accompanying germs, and, reaching the ceiling, diffuses through the plaster so rapidly as to draw fresh air from the windows and other openings.
