

Imperialism Collapses With the Capture of Ludendorff and Hitler.

Lloyd George Denounces Protection as He Steps Ashore—Summary Trial Denied Home Bank Official—U.S.A.'s Refusal to Participate in Reparations Question Anticipated.

"PUTSCH" ENDED.
LONDON, Nov. 9. A Central News despatch from Berlin says the following message has been received from Munich: "The Putsch is considered to have ended. Ludendorff and Von Hitler have barricaded themselves in the war ministry, which is surrounded by troops. Von Foenner, who had assumed the Premiership of the new government has been arrested. The Reichswehr are loyal to the Berlin Government."

LUDENDORFF A PRISONER.
MUNICH, Nov. 9. General Erich Ludendorff to-day lost his second "Putsch" within three years and to-night is observing the fifth anniversary of the German revolution a prisoner in the custody of Federal troops. The man, who as commander-in-chief of the German forces is credited with having lost the world war for Germany, to-night is an ignominious prisoner of the young Republic.

He so thoroughly despised and against the fragile existence of which he has plotted openly and in secret ever since he retired to his reactionary Bavarian stronghold. Ludendorff and Adolf Hitler, who had barricaded themselves in the offices of the War Ministry after the collapse of the attempted coup d'etat engineered by Hitler last night, surrendered this afternoon to a detachment of Federal troops which laid siege to the building. There was brief fighting between the Reichswehr and the Hitler guards, in which there were a few casualties on each side, afterwards Ludendorff and Hitler emerged from the building and placed themselves at the disposal of General von Losow's troops. The status of Ludendorff and Hitler as political prisoners has not yet been defined for the moment, their capture merely marks the physical collapse of Hitler's tragic-comic "putsch," in which the world famed former Quartermaster General of the German army became engulfed.

LOYD GEORGE ACCEPTS BALDWIN'S CHALLENGE.
SOUTHAMPTON, Nov. 9. Lloyd George was given a noisy reception when he appeared on the deck of the Majestic. Cheering crowds awaited his arrival outside the dock gates to escort the British war Premier through the streets. Reporters asked his opinion of Premier Baldwin's pronouncement at Plymouth regarding protection, to which he replied he thought it to be "the most incredible pronouncement, a piece of incredible folly, an insult to the intelligence of the nation to feed starving industries with milkweed straw of the last century with every grain of stamanship beaten out of it." The war Premier said he accepted Mr. Baldwin's challenge on free trade or protection as a domestic issue.

HOME BANK DIRECTORS MUST FACE JURY.
TORONTO, Nov. 9. Ten accused directors and officials of the Home Bank were denied a request for speedy trial before a county judge without a jury, by Mr. Justice Smith this morning, and their trial will traverse to the January assizes. Immediately following the refusal to grant them a speedy trial on the conspiracy charges preferred against them, the directors and officials of the institution pleaded themselves in the custody of the sheriff of York County, and through their counsel, asked that they be placed on trial. Counsel for the defendants asked the judge to grant bail to the accused, but he refused this application, and the defendants were compelled to remain in the custody of the sheriff's officers. Unless bail is renewed, the defendants will have to partake of their Thanksgiving dinner in jail.

U. S. WILL NOT PARTICIPATE.
PARIS, Nov. 9. The fact that the French Ambassador to the United States, M. Jusserand, has requested delay in the publication of Secretary Hughes's declaration regarding the proposed expert Reparation Committee, is taken here as indicating the United States will decline to participate in the Committee. The chances of the Committee being organized are regarded as slight.

CRACOW SITUATION STILL SERIOUS.
WARSAW, Nov. 9. The situation in Cracow, where earlier in the week twenty persons were killed in a riot growing out of railroad strike, is still causing anxiety. The striking railroad workers are disobeying the orders of their union to return to work and are formulating fresh demands. The first of these is amnesty for those responsible for the trouble at Cracow and for the persons who killed Polish officers in the clash between the military and his mob. The second demand is for a fortnight's wages. The Government has refused to comply.

DIED AT PIANO.
NEW YORK, Nov. 9. As he lifted his fingers off the keys and the last chords of "The Miserere" floated away, death lay gripping hands upon Richard Nicols last night and he toppled from his bench dead. He was 63 years old.

THREE KILLED IN EXPLOSION.
BUFFALO, Nov. 9. Three men were killed and twenty injured in an explosion at the plant of the National Aniline and Chemical Co. in Abbot Road to-night.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"
"I'm going to sneeze," said she.

Big Entertainment at the Crescent Theatre

ATTRACTIVE AMATEUR CONTEST LAST NIGHT.

Last night's Amateur Contest at the Crescent can be ascribed as the best entertainment held at this theatre. Whilst it was purely amateur, it consisted of many talented persons whose ability to entertain was appreciated. The affair was conducted in an orderly manner by Dan Delmar who gave each and every performer an equal chance. Mr. Martin Day, the popular step-dancer carried off first prize, which we agree he certainly deserved. The second prize was awarded Mr. Simmonds, a colored gentleman who sang several numbers. Miss Donnelly in a dance and song was the recipient of the third prize. In fact the whole programme was so well rendered that it was somewhat difficult to judge the three best items.

The picture, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," featuring Blanche Sweet and John Bowser, supported by an all-star cast, was enjoyed to the fullest extent by all present. Thrills and comedy predominate in this extraordinary screen drama. Robert Shields sang by request that popular ballad, "The Song of the 23rd" and "The Sergeant Major." Mr. Shields concludes his engagement at this theatre to-night, when we would suggest to those who could not gain entrance last night to hear him this evening.

It was announced last night that another Amateur Contest will take place on next Friday night, and in the meantime, the management will welcome the names of any new performers as well as any others who may wish to partake in the next Contest.

Actor Inspires Fearless People

MEN WHO DARE, ADOPT "SAFETY LAST" AS MOTTO.

What are dare-devils? Men who fearlessly take hazardous chances in their different fields of endeavor. Men who plunge themselves into perilous predicaments and come out smiling.

The world is full of those who first with danger, the fireman, the policeman, the Arctic explorer, the African hunter, the soldier and sailor, the aviator, the inventor, the chemist, the "human-fly" who scales the side of buildings, the missionary who fearlessly brings his religion to the savage, and scores of others.

These different classes of "dare-devils" all risk their lives in their own particular lines of duty, fearless of the outcome and prepared for the worst assignment. And they all believe in "Safety Last" and adopt it as their motto to inspire them and make them "carry on."

The thought of personal danger does not enter their minds. The love of adventure, the fascination of thrills and the gambling instinct to "beard the tiger" of their professions makes them look forward eagerly to the next thrilling situation that they will face. These "dare-devils" only deplore one fact, and that is that life insurance companies show great hesitancy about insuring them, policies, some companies refusing it, absolutely. An amusing thing occurred in this regard when Harold Lloyd was performing his hazardous feat—that of climbing the side of a twelve-story building in his new Pathecomedey, "Safety Last," which is being shown at the Nickel Theatre.

The comedian was forced to promise his insurance agent that he would never, under any circumstances, be again. But just the same, the thrill is there—and some thrills!

Our Dumb Animals

REPORT OF CHIEF AGENT FOR WEEK ENDING NOVEMBER 9th.

Interviewed Manager Murphy of The Avalon Telephone Co., about the insulators which have been lying around on the sides of the country roads and drains to the great annoyance of countrymen. This is very injurious to horses and cows. Linesmen have not removed them promptly when working on new poles and boys have smashed them to the danger of animals and of motor traffic. Quite a number have been shot away by boys using shot-guns. Several complaints have come in about the ruts on Water Street. The pavement is broken and it has been the cause of several horses slipping and falling with loads on. I called the attention of the Council Inspectors to it. In connection with the dog which was run over by car No. 8, the motor-man states he did not see it or know he had run over it. The case was tried in court but judgment has not been given yet. The Secretary received word that all cattle shipped by the Sable I. in future would have rope halters instead of the head rope. The halters will be kept on board. Farmers and others say this is a great improvement. I am very thankful to the Sable I. people for the great interest they have taken in this work. Attended to the landing of 25 head of cattle from the Sable I. also attended a couple of head which came in by train. Was asked to humanely put to death two very large dogs owned by residents of Brazil's Field. The dogs had previously bitten a boy belonging to Torbay. I have been asked to put to death another by a resident of Cochrane St. I humanely put to death a horse belonging to A. J. Harvey & Co. This animal has been in the firm for some years. It was suffering from lockjaw. A case of cruel treatment to a bullock taken away from Campbell & McKays wharf, tied to a cart, is being investigated, complaints having been made to the Society by a prominent merchant. The animal fell, two police-men on the opposite side witnessing the occurrence. Messrs. A. Harvey & Co. have repaired their gateway at the Coastal Wharf entrance making the grade now much better for which the Society expresses its thanks.
