Massive Crowds at Majestic Theatre Balloon Scramble

Yesterday afternoon at four o'clock the great delight of all, the who could attend approx-150 balloons were released the roof of the Majestic Theatre, were gathered in by the crowds all parts of the eastern section of city. The balloons contained ranging from a ten dollar bill to an ticket to the Majestic and after the scramble, the kindness of the Manage-of the Theatre all the children entertained to a free moving pic-show. The children completely of the Theatre and were given a pointers on the Pony Contest, as to secure votes. Children from sections of the City are entering contest, and there is bound to be an effort to secure the first prize.
 is a genuine Shetland Pony, that is in store for the child-Saturday afternoon when they see an amusing and instructive act of mystifying magic, which will be given in conjunction the picture on Saturday afternoon. On Monday evening the lovers of this city, will have pleasure of hearing Mr. G. Her-Perry, in cornet and piano selections. At the request of a large number of friends Mr. Perry will give the selection "Post and Peasant." which is considered rather intricate piano solo. Mr. Perry will be accompanied by Miss Grills at the piano. His cornet solos. Another feature of the evening will be the appearance of Albert E. Maca writer of "We'll Never Let the Flag Fall," "By Order of the King," "When the World has Peace" "I'll not Forget you Soldier" and many other songs of the period, and "Radio Joe," "Over Radio," "Come, get me," and the popular fox-trot of this season,
 "A Prince," written with the approval of the present Prince of Wales, danced by him and the guests who depicted in the big formal dance held last year at Newport, Rhode Island. Mr. MacNutt will describe the baseball classic "The Underdog," in character, as written by him "Liberty" Magazine, and will be accompanied by Mr. Perry at the piano. Mr. Perry has been Mr. Maca musical arranger for a number of years and credit is due him for excellent work on many of the listed above, and others too numerous to mention.

Spanish Woman Gave Birth to Her 29th Child

ADOLFO, Spain, Sept. 28.—(U.
 S. S. Camille Lorenzo, has given birth to her 29th child—a son—the age of 68.
 It is believed that this is a record modern times, although the Bible records that Sarah gave birth to Isaac over 90 years old.
 The woman in 2,300 gives birth child after reaching 50 years of
