Bill pulls boxing matches of the future. Big puls the doctor's dope to prove the punch has been badly slandered and that it is no more dangerous to wallop a healthy athlete over the kidney than to slap him on the wrist. And, what's nore, BMI is right, take it from one who has been through the mill. One or two of the recent boxing shows at the larger New York clubs have not drawn the crowds figured on, notably the Attell-Thomas and Kil-bane-O'Keefe matches, and the club owners are threatening to bar the high class performers in the future unles they consent to work on a percentage.

award Johnny Kilbane the decision over Eddie O'Keefe. They were also unanimous in branding the Cleve-lander a poor species of title abder. In this they leave themselves open to a charge of inconsistency In the past these same critics have not been sparing in their praise of the skill of both Johnny Dundee and O'Keefe, and now that Kulbane comes along and outnoints

Johnny Dundee and O'Keefe, and now that Kilbene comes along and outpoints both the boys in a manner to convince everybody of his superiority over the highly touted pair, it would seem the champion was entitled to a modicum of praise for his victories. But even that is denied him.

It may be Kilbane is not all wool and a yard wide, as a champion should be; that he is no a skilful boxer, that he is not aggressive, and has no defense worth mentioning. That may all be true, but I'd like to see some one o' his weight outpoint him before I'd believe it. Kilbane may not be particularly showy, but his work is effective and he pulls considerable clever stuff that may (mind you I say "may") go over the heads of many so-called any 115.

WOODBINE RACES ENDED;

Going Was Deep, But There Were Some Very Good Events

Toronto, Sept. 29.-The Woodbine eting came to a close with the runming of yesterday's program. The On-tario Jockey club added $1,000 to the seven races. Four of the seven events

The going was deep and heavy, and The opening dash at six furlongs resulted in a drive the length of the stretch, with Bawana Tombo stalling off the fast closing Frog Legs. The latter, slow to get going, ran a win-

The Hendric steeplechase, over the three-mile course, saw but four go to the post, and resulted in a good race throughout. Highbridge, with the heavy impost, assumed the lead for a turn of the field, only to give way to Parlithram, who moved the results. Buckthorn, who moved up stoutly.
